

tages than such as should have been stipulated for, and granted to, the said United States, the said kingdom of Portugal, or any such other foreign Power, by the respective treaties subsisting and in force between them, respectively, and Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors; or Her royal predecessors; but that the said recited Act should be so construed and applied as to give full and complete effect to such respective treaties so long as the same should respectively remain in force, and should provide such, and only such, indemnity as therein mentioned, to such bodies politic and corporate, and other person as were therein mentioned, for such losses as they should respectively sustain by the execution of such respective treaties :

And, for the prevention of uncertainty therein, it is enacted by the said Act now in recital, that it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders by Her made, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time, to declare what are the foreign Powers with which any such treaty or treaties as aforesaid is or are subsisting ; and that the Act now in recital, and the said recited Act, shall apply and shall be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as shall be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders shall continue unrevoked, and no longer :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority in Her vested by the Act so passed as aforesaid, in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of Her reign, declare, that such treaties as in the same Act are mentioned, containing provisions similar to those contained in the said recited Act of the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, are now respectively subsisting between Her Majesty and the following foreign Powers, that is to say : His Majesty the King of Hanover, His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, and His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Oldenburg :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.
