Whitehall, September 26, 1844.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto John Methold, of Beamish-park, in the parish of Chester-le-street, in the county palatine of Durham, Esq. second son of Henry Methold, Esq. by Dorothea his wife, eldest daughter of Sir John Eden, late of Windlestone, in the said county palatine, Bart., all deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, Morton John Davison, formerly Morton John Eden, second son of the said Sir John Eden, Bart., late of Beamish-park aforesaid, Esq. deceased, take and henceforth use the surname of Eden only, instead of that of Methold, and also use and bear the arms of Eden only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise Her Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect;

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Admission of Goods into the Isle of Man, free of Duty, under the Provisions of the Act 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 43.

WHEREAS we did, by virtue of the powers vested in us by the Act of the 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 43, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs in the Isle of Man," order and declare, by our warrant of the 26th ultimo, that all or any articles legally imported into the Isle of Man, and not enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, and upon which the duty of £15 per cent. is thereby imposed, shall and may, from and after the 5th November 1844, be imported into the Isle of Man duty free, so long as this our order, or any part thereof, affecting such articles, shall continue in force:

And having had again under our consideration the subject of this matter, we, being three of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby revoke and determine so much of the said warrant as admits the importation of such goods free of duty, from and after the 5th day of November 1844, and do declare that the payment of such duty shall not be enforced from the date of the passing of the before-mentioned Act of 7th and 8th Victoria, cap. 43:

And we do further direct, that this our order be duly published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, in accordance with the provisions of the 3d section, of the said Act: for which this shall be your warrant:

Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, this 20th day of September 1844,

Signed HENRY GOULBURN.
