MAIDSTONE.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. Day and Stanger, at the Star Inn, Maidstone, on Thursday the 7th day of November 1844, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely, under and by virtue of an order of the Court of Bankruptcy, dated the 2d day of February last, in the matter of Thomas Kipping, a bankrupt, and by the direction of the assignees of the said bankrupt, and subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced.

The undivided moiety or half part or share, and other the estate and interest of the said bankrupt of and in all that messuage or tenement, divided into two tenements, with the back side and appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate in the Middle-row, High-street, Maidstone aforesaid, and in the occupation of Mr. Michael Aaron Jessell and Messrs. Baldwin and Godden, or their under tenants.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Charles Magan, Solicitor, Earl-street, Maidstone; Messrs. Brundrett and Co. Solicitors, No. 10, King's Bench-walk, Temple, London; or Mr. Austin, Solicitor, No. 37, Threadneedle-street, London; and of the Auctioneers, High-street, Maidstone.

TO be sold, at the Dush Inn, Carlisle, on Monday, 11th November 1844, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely (by order of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne District Court of Bankruptcy, before Mr. Thomas Baker, one of the Official Assignees of the said Court, and subject to conditions to be then produced);

All that capital messuage or dwelling-house, with the several out-offices and gardens thereunto belonging; and also all that valuable and extensive tannery and tan yard, together with the barn, byer, stable, bark house, bark mill, drying sheds, and other requisite outbuildings (including foreman's dwelling-house) appertaining thereto, situate at Ellen-grove, near Maryport, late in the occupation of Robert Hetherington, a bankrupt, the whole comprising about half an acre of land.

The dwelling-house, which is of modern erection, consists of an entrance hall, spacious drawing room, dining room, breakfast room, and kitchen on the first floor; and five excellent bed rooms above; cellar, kitchen, scullery, and various other domestic offices.

The tannery is most eligibly situate for carrying on an extensive and lucrative trade, being contiguous to the river Ellen, and also to the Maryport and Carlisle Railway.

It comprises, besides the several buildings above enumerated, seventy-six excellent pits, most of which are under cover, namely:—thirty-two handlers, twenty-one clays, four rough scourings, six snods, six taps, four limes, and three bates. The drying sheds (which are capacious) are over the pits.

The bark mill attached to the premises is carried by a powerful water wheel, propelled by the force of a copious supply of water conveyed to it from the river Ellen (upon which it abuts), by means of a dam or weir erected across the said river. The water wheel is likewise made to pump the supply of water from the river required for tanning purposes, and also to convey the bark liquors, when necessary, from one pit to another, without the aid of manual labour.

There is also a large boiler and chimney erected on the premises, for steaming bark. The steam, when produced, is conveyed from the boiler through leaden tubes or pipes laid at a convenient depth underground, unto and into the several bark pits, for the purpose of causing the same to boil or ferment, and thus, by this means, the bark, which has already undergone the ordinary process of extraction by cold water, is again made to yield an additional and further supply of liquor equally as good and strong as that first produced. This will be found a very valuable appendage to the premises.

The purchaser will be required to take the tools, implements, utensils, pumps and pump gear, and other articles and machinery used in the trade and about the tan yard, at a reasonable valuation, to be ascertained by referees in the usual way, and to pay for the same in addition to the purchase money.

The whole of the premises are of customary tenure, holden of Major-General Wyndham, as a customary estate of inheritance, and as parcel of his manor of Birkby and Little Broughton, by and under payment of the yearly customary fineable rent of three pence, and a ten penny fine on the death of lord, or change of tenant by death or alienation.

The premises may be viewed at any time previous to the sale, and further particulars may be had on application to Mr. Thomas Baker, Official Assignee, No. 57, Grey-street, Newcastle; Mr. Isaac Sibson, Great Broughton; Mr. Tyson, Solicitor, Maryport; or to Mr. Cram, Solicitor, Newcastle-upon-Tyne.
