WHEREAS by indenture, bearing date the 30th day of October last, Moyses Kleine, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Smallware Dealer, did assign unto Joseph Hughes Waters, of Manchester, in the said county, Manufacturer, his executors, administrators, and assigns, all the stock in trade, household furniture, debts, securities for money, and all other the personal estate and effects of him the said Moyses Kleine, upon the trusts therein contained, for the benefit of such of the creditors of the said Moyses Kleine as should execute or accede to the same indenture, and, if required, make proof of their respective debts, on or before the 1st day of December next; notice is hereby given, that such indenture was executed by the said Moyses Kleine and Joseph Hughes Waters on the said 30th day of October last, and that the execution thereof by the said Moyses Kleine and Joseph Hughes Waters is attested by John Nickson Gaskell Thompson, of No. 6, Newington, Liverpool, Attorney at Law, and Robert Roberts, his Clerk; and notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture now lies at the warehouse of Messrs. Joseph and Edwin Waters, No. 17, Faulkner-street, Manchester, for execution by the creditors of the said Moyses Kleine, and that such of them as shall not come in and execute or accede to the same, before the 1st day of December next, will be excluded from all benefit arising therefrom. All persons who are indebted to the said Moyses Kleine, or that have any of his effects, are requested forthwith to pay and deliver the same to the said Joseph Hughes Waters, No. 17, Faulkner-street, Manchester.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Joseph Fletcher, of Maryport, in the county of Cumberland, Manufacturer of Barytes, hath by indenture, bearing date the 31st day of October 1844, assigned all his steam engines, boilers, stock in-trade, and all his effects in and upon the premises at Maryport aforesaid, where the manufactory was carried on, and also all other his personal estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, unto John Watson Richardson Milner Watson, of Wedholme, in the parish of Wigton, in the said county, Gentleman, in trust, for the benefit of the said John Watson Richardson Milner Watson and all other, the creditors of the said Joseph Fletcher who shall execute the said indenture within two calendar months from the date thereof; in which indenture is contained a power for the said John Watson Richardson Milner Watson to carry on the said manufactory for the benefit of the said creditors, upon the terms therein mentioned; and that the said indenture was executed by the said Joseph Fletcher and John Watson Richardson Milner Watson on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of Edward Tyson, of Maryport aforesaid, Solicitor, by whom the same is attested; and that the same indenture now lies at the office of the said Edward Tyson, in Maryport aforesaid, for the perusal and execution of the creditors of the said Joseph Fletcher; and all creditors who neglect or refuse to execute the same, or assent thereto, within the time aforesaid, will be excluded all benefit arising therefrom.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Grundy, of Ramshottom, in the township of Tottington Lower End, in the county of Lancaster, Woollen Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet Messrs. Richard Walker the younger and Oliver Ormerod Openshaw, the assignees of his estate and effects, on the 11th day of December next, at two of the clock in the afternoon, at the office of Mr. William Harper, in Union-street, in Bury, in the said county of Lancaster, the Solicitor to the said assignees, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees proceeding to sell and dispose of, by private contract, all and singular the woollen mill, water wheel, steam engine, steam pipes, mill gearing, reservoirs, and other land, buildings, privileges, and appurtenances to the said mill and premises belonging; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees proceeding to sell and dispose of, by private contract, all and singular the household goods and furniture, and all other the chattels and effects which have come into their possession as the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or permitting the said bankrupt, or some person or persons on his behalf, to purchase the same at a valuation; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting certain debts due to the said bankrupt; and on other special business.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Baker, of Lower Grosvenor-street, Bond-street, in the county of Middlesex, Surgeon and Apothecary, are desired to meet the assignee of his estate and effects, on the 11th day of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, settling, and adjusting a certain debt due to the said bankrupt from one Richard Dyer; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 1st day of March 1844, awarded and issued forth against John Crump, of Stanway, in the county of Gloucester, Corn Dealer, Miller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the official and trade assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 12th day of December next, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the office of Thomas Rennie Hutton, Esq. situate in Saint Augustine's-place, in the city and county of Bristol, to confer with the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate in regard to the defence of an action commenced against them in Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer of Pleas, by a certain banking company, to be named at such meeting, to recover back the sum of £889. 11s. 10d. paid by such banking company to the official assignee of the said bankrupt's estate, on the 18th day of May 1844; and also to determine on the propriety of forthwith commencing actions or other proceedings against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of certain sums of money due, or claimed to be due, from them, respectively, to the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said official and trade assignees, or either of them, compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, or arranging the said several debts or claims, upon such terms and conditions as to the said assignees shall seem reasonable; and to authorize the said assignees generally to take such measures in the management and settlement of the affairs, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt, as they from time to time shall think expedient and necessary for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 8th day of March 1844, awarded and issued and now in prosecution against George Harding, of Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, Tea Dealer and Grocer (trading under the firm of George Harding and Co.), are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Monday the 16th day of December 1844, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising, compounding, and settling the matters in difference between the said bankrupt's estate and George Matland, of Whitehaven, in the county of Cumberland, on the following terms and conditions, that is to say; first, that the said George Matland shall, on payment of the sum of £150, as hereinafter mentioned, relinquish all his right or claim to the goods formerly belonging to the said bankrupt, now in the bonded warehouses of John Hewetson, of Maryport, in the said county of Cumberland, and Alexander Spittall, of Whitehaven, in the said county, and do all necessary acts for putting the said assignees in possession thereof, and that the said George Matland shall deliver to the said assignees all the invoices, bills of parcels, warrants, dock orders, locker's orders, weight notes, and all other documents, vouchers, papers, memoranda, and writings relating to such goods, and of all other goods obtained by the said George Matland from the said bankrupt, between the 14th day of July 1843, and the 8th day of March 1844; secondly, that the said assignees shall, on compliance by the said George Matland with the stipulation hereinbefore firstly contained, pay to Mr. Timothy Surr, the Attorney of the said George Matland, the said sum of £150; thirdly, that the said assignees shall also pay to the said Mr. Surr the sum of £47. 9s. 1d. being the amount of duty paid by the said George Matland on part of such goods at the time of the payment of the said sum of £150, on the said George Harding handing over and delivering up to the said assignees the receipt or other voucher or document for the same duty; fourthly, that the said assignees and the said George Matland shall each pay their own costs of the actions, feigned issue, and proceedings pending between them, also each of them the said parties a moiety of the costs of the said John Hewetson and Alexander Spittall of and incident to the said feigned issues, and the actions in which the said issue was ordered, tried between the said assignees and the said George Matland, such costs so to be paid by the said assignees to be paid out of the estate of the said bankrupt, and the costs of the said George Matland so to be paid by him out of his own proper moneys; fifthly, that the amount of the moiety of the costs of the said John Hewetson and Alexander Spittall to be paid by the said George Matland as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be deducted by the said assignees from the respective sums of £150 and £47. 9s. 1d. so to be paid by them to the said George Matland, the said assignees hereby undertaking to pay over such amount to the said John Hewetson and Alexander Spittall; sixthly, that neither the said assignees nor the said George Matland shall commence or carry on any proceedings against the other of them for in respect of any of the said differences and disputes between the said assignees and the said George Matland; and that the said George Matland shall not claim or prove any debt under the estate of the said George Harding; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising and compounding with the assignees of the said George Matland, an insolvent debtor, in respect of their claim to the said goods, by paying to the said assignees, under the said insolvency of the said George Matland, the costs incurred by them of and incident to an application made by them to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors against the said insolvent George Matland, of and relating to the said goods; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising and compounding with the said John Hewetson and Alexander Spittall, respectively, by paying to them, or to their respective attorneys, the costs incurred by them in, about, and relating to the detention of the said goods by them, on the several notices of claim by the said assignees of the said George Harding, also by the said George Matland, also by the assignees of the said George Matland, an insolvent debtor; and also the costs incurred by them, the said John Hewetson and Alexander Spittall, respectively, of and incident to two several actions brought by the assignees of the said George Harding against the said John Hewetson and Alexander Spittall, respectively; and on other special matters connected with the said bankrupt's estate.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Alexander Robertson and Lewis Henry Folger, of High-street, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, Cabinet Makers, Upholsterers, Dealers and Chapmen, are desired to meet the assignees of their estate and effects, on Wednesday the 11th day of December next, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction or partly by private contract, the leasehold interests of the bankrupts in the messuages and premises, 21 and 22, High-street, Shoreditch, and the stock in trade, furniture, and fixtures belonging to the said bankrupts' estate, upon such terms and conditions as they may deem advisable; also in like manner selling certain goods and chattels conveyed and assigned by one Frederick Henry West to the said bankrupt, Alexander Robertson, or to compounding, adjusting, or submitting to arbitration certain disputes and differences arising out of a claim made by the assignees of the said Frederick Henry West to the said goods and chattels, or accepting such sum of money as they may deem expedient, and releasing the interest of the said Alexander Robertson in the said goods and chattels so assigned by the said Frederick Henry West; also commencing an action at law against the Sheriff of Middlesex, in respect of an execution levied by the said Sheriff on a judgment against the said bankrupt, Alexander Robertson, at the suit of William Loynes and others, or an action at law against the plaintiffs in the said suit in respect of the said execution; also commencing an action or such other proceedings as the said assignees may deem advisable against such person or persons as they may be advised in respect of a sale of part of the said bankrupt's effects to one Jackson, on or about the 8th of October last; and on other special affairs.

In the Matter of Henry Hilton, of Over Darwen, in the county of Lancaster, Bleacher and Finisher, Coal Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, against whom a Fiat in Bankruptcy was issued on the 28th day of July 1842.

I HEREBY give notice, that the creditors who have proved their debts under the joint estate of Henry Hilton and Edward Hilton (pursuant to an order of the Court of Review in that behalf), under the above Fiat, may, upon application at my office, on Tuesday the 26th day of November instant, or on any subsequent Tuesday, between the hours of eleven and one, receive a First Dividend of 5d. and nineteen thirty-seconds of a penny in the pound. The bills and securities (if any) exhibited at the time of proof must be produced to me, before the warrant for the Dividend can be received.—November 12, 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of two Acts, one passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better regulating the poor, maintaining a nightly watch, lighting, paving, and cleansing the streets, rows, and passages, providing fire engines and firemen, and regulating the hackney coachmen, chairmen, carmen, and porters within the city of Chester;" and the other Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend, alter, and enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, so far as the same relates to maintaining a nightly watch, and lighting and cleansing the streets, rows, and passages within the city of Chester, and for preventing nuisances and annoyances in the streets, rows, and passages within the said city, and for regulating and improving the police thereof;" or to repeal the said Act or Acts, or certain parts thereof; and to grant further and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof, for the better paving, draining, lighting (by gas or otherwise), watching, cleansing, regulating, widening, repairing, and otherwise improving the several streets, squares, rows, lanes, highways, carriageways, footpaths, the city walls, and public passages and places within the said borough and city of Chester.

And it is intended to obtain powers, within the said Bill or Bills, for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, buildings, tenements, and hereditaments, and for opening certain new streets, and for widening and improving some of the present streets, and for making better and more convenient approaches and communications to, through, and within the said borough and city; and for better regulating the police and fire engine department, and hackney coachmen, chairmen, carmen, carriers, and porters; and for better regulating the inns, taverns, ale and beer houses within the said borough and city; and for the erection and regulation of markets within the said borough and city; and for making further and more effectual provisions relative to the sale of agricultural produce, and other commodities and things usually sold and exhibited for sale in public markets; and for altering the places of holding public fairs for the sale of cattle and other live stock within the said borough and city, and for regulating the same.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended, by the said Bill or Bills, to levy certain new tolls, rates, duties, and assessments, and to alter the tolls, rates, duties, and assessments now authorized to be levied by the said Act or Acts, and for granting all necessary and effectual powers for carrying the said Act or Acts into execution.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to raise money for the purposes of the said intended Act or Acts, and to apply any money which may arise from the sale of any property belonging to the Town Council of the said borough of Chester to the like purposes.—

Dated this eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1844.

Finchett Maddock, Town Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for draining the low grounds and cars lying in the several parishes, townships, and places of Keyingham, Keyingham-marsh, Ryhill and Camerton, Burstwick and Skeckling, Burton Pidsea and Ridgmont, Ottringham, Halsham, Owstwick, Rooss, Rims-well, Tunstall, Waxholme, Elsternwick, Lelley, Humbleton, Fitling, Hilston, Garton, Albrough, Flinton, and Tansterne, within the seignior of Holderness, and east riding of the county of York,' and to render more effectual the drainage of all and singular the lands and grounds within the said several parishes, townships, and places, and within all other townships, hamlets, and places within, or parcel or member of, the several parishes before mentioned, or any of them respectively;" or to repeal the said Act, or certain parts thereof; and to grant further and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof; by which Bill it is proposed to alter the existing rates, assessments, taxes, payments, and duties authorised by the said Act to be levied, collected, and made, and to levy other rates, assessments, taxes, and duties in lieu thereof, and to vary or extinguish any existing total or partial exemptions from rates, assessments, taxes, and duties, or other rights and privileges authorised by the said Act, and to confer others.

Thomas Thompson, Solicitor, Hull.
Bulmer and Stride, Parliamentary Agents, 44, Parliament-street, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to establish and incorporate a company for lighting with gas the parish and town of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, and such parts of the respective townships or places of Everton, Kirkdale, West Derby, and Toxteth-park, as are included within the Parliamentary boundary of the borough of Liverpool; and to authorize such company to make and supply gas accordingly, and to raise, levy, and collect rates or rents for the same, with all other necessary and usual powers, rights, and privileges; and it is also intended to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges which may interfere with or impede the execution of the purposes aforesaid.—
Dated the twenty-first day of October 1844.

Clay and Swift, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to authorize the construction of a railway and branch railway hereafter mentioned, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, that is to say; a railway commencing in the parish of Saint Mark, in the city of Lincoln and county of the same city, passing thence, from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places of Saint Mark, Saint Peter at Gowts, Saint Mary-le-Wigford, Saint Botolph, Saint Benedict, Saint Swithin, Canwick Common, and the Fossdyke Navigation, in the city and county of the city aforesaid; Canwick, Washingborough, Heighington, Branston, Branston with Longhills, Branston Booths, Meer Oak Wood, Potter Hanworth, Hanworth Booths, Nocton, Duiston, Metheringham, Blankney, Linwood, Timberland, Martin, Thorpe Tilney otherwise Timberland Thorpe, Billingham, Walcott, Billingham Fen, Billingham Dales, Dogdyke, North Kyme, South Kyme, and Kyme Eau, or some of them, in the parts of Kesteven, in the county of Lincoln; the ancient bed of the river Witham, Langrickville otherwise Langrville, and Coningsby, or some of them, in the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln; Swineshead, Chapel Hill, the ancient bed of the river Witham, Harts Ground, Sutterton Fen, Kirton Fen, North Forty Foot Drain and banks, Pelhams Land, Fossdyke, Fossdyke Fen, Brothertoft, Boston West, Boston, Wyberton Fen, Skirbeck Quarter Fen, Skirbeck Quarter, Skirbeck, Wyberton, Frampton, Kirton, Algarkirk, Sutterton, the Roman Bank, Gosberton, Surfleet, Pinchbeck, Spalding, Cowbit, Weston, Moulton, Whaplode Drove otherwise Whaplode Fen, Whaplode, Holbeach, Fleet, Gedney Hill otherwise Gedney Fen, Gedney, Sutton Saint James, Sutton Saint Edmunds, Sutton Saint Mary, and Tydd Saint Mary, or some of them, in the parts of Holland, in the county of Lincoln; Tydd Saint Giles, Leverington Parson Drove, Newton, Leverington otherwise Leverington Saint Leonards, Wisbeach Saint Peter, Wisbeach Saint Mary, Elm, Dodlington, March, Whittlesea Saint Mary, Whittlesea Saint Andrew, Benwick, Wimblington, Stonea, Manea, Littleport, Downham, Byall Fen, Coveney otherwise Coveney cum Manea, Chettisham, the Holy Trinity in Ely otherwise Ely Trinity, and Saint Mary in Ely otherwise Ely Saint Mary, or some of them, in the isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, and terminating by a junction with the Peterborough and Brandon extension of the Eastern Counties Railway, as at present authorized to be made, in the parishes of the Holy Trinity in Ely otherwise Ely Trinity, and Saint Mary in Ely otherwise Ely Saint Mary aforesaid, or one of them, and such intended branch railway, diverging from the line of the said hereinbefore-mentioned intended railway, in the said parish of Spalding, passing thence, from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and

Lyme Regis Improvement.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act for improving the town or parish of Lyme Regis, in the county of Dorset; by which Bill it is intended to obtain powers for forming a new street or line of road, commencing by the formation of a crescent at the east end of Broad-street, and leading north eastwardly across the river Lim otherwise Lym otherwise Buddle, through lands and hereditaments, into the Charmouth-road, at or near a field called or known by the name of Rack-close, and belonging to Henry John Henley, Esq. or to his trustees, situate southwardly of a house called Summerhill-house, the roadway not to exceed thirty feet in width, and the space for the erection of houses, with suitable conveniences thereto, not to exceed in extent eighty feet on each side of such roadway; and also powers for improving and widening, to an extent not exceeding twenty feet, the present roadway leading from Church-street into or towards the said new street or line of road; and also powers for forming a new street or line of road, commencing near the middle of Broad-street aforesaid, and leading through lands and hereditaments, and crossing the new road, to the beach or sea shore, at Chiphold-bay, westward of the Cobb, the roadway not to exceed twenty-five feet in width, and the space for the erection of houses, with suitable conveniences thereto, not to exceed in extent eighty feet on each side of such roadway; and also powers for the erection of houses, buildings, and tenements, with suitable conveniences thereto, on lands to be purchased for such purposes, and for constructing a bridge, with proper approaches thereto, over and across the said river, for carrying the roadway of such first-mentioned new street or line of road over the said river; and also powers for laying open the present site of the market shambles, on the southwardly side of Broad-street aforesaid, for public use, as part of the said street, and for taking down other buildings on the said southwardly side of Broad-street; and also other buildings near the eastwardly end thereof, and near the eastern ends of Silver-street and Pound-street, otherwise Saint Michael's-street, and laying open the same; and also powers for making other similar improvements in other parts of the said town or parish; and also powers for paving and keeping in repair such new streets or roads, crescent, and open places; and for constructing and maintaining sufficient drains and sewers therein; and also powers for the compulsory purchase of such houses, lands, and hereditaments in the said town or parish as may be deemed requisite or advisable to be taken for effecting such several improvements, and for the purpose of making a reservoir, with aqueducts, conduits, pipes, and other waterworks, as hereinafter mentioned; and for providing a new site for the market shambles; and also powers for erecting new shambles, and for constructing and erecting a market-house and market-place, with suitable conveniences, in the said town or parish; and also powers for extinguishing existing rights or privileges of holding markets at the present site of the market shambles so intended to be laid open; and also powers for establishing and maintaining a new market in the said town or parish, and for levying, collecting, and taking tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the same, and of all articles exposed for sale therein; and also powers for the Commissioners under such intended Act to agree with the owners or proprietors of any existing market and market-place in the said town or parish, for the purchase of the same, and of all rights and privileges of holding the same; and demanding and collecting rents, dues, and tolls in respect thereof, and other rights and privileges appurtenant to the same; and to enable such owners or proprietors to sell the same to such Commissioners; and also powers to alter or increase the existing rents, dues, and tolls of such market and market-place; and also powers for removing and preventing obstructions, nuisances, and annoyances in the streets and public passages and places in the said town or parish, and for watching the same, and establishing an effective police within the same; and also powers for enabling the Commissioners, under the said intended Act to light with gas, or otherwise, the streets and other public passages and places, and houses, buildings, and other premises in the said town or parish, and, for that purpose, to erect gas works and lay pipes in the said town or parish, or to purchase, rent, or take any buildings, lands, or premises, and to enable any person or persons, body politic or corporate, to sell or let the same to the Commissioners for such purposes, or to contract with any company, body, or person for so lighting such streets and other public passages and places; and also powers for making a reservoir, with aqueducts, conduits, pipes, and other waterworks for supplying water to the houses and premises of such first-mentioned new street or road, and such other parts of the said town or parish as are not now supplied with water; and, for such purposes, to divert and to take and use the waters of certain brooks or streams in the said town or parish, and which brooks or streams are described by being coloured blue in the plans hereafter mentioned; and powers to charge, assess, and collect water rents for the supply of such water; and also powers for the Commissioners under such intended Act to agree with the owners or proprietors, lessee or lessees, of any existing waterworks in the said town or parish for the purchase of the same, and to enable such owners or proprietors, lessee or lessees, to sell the same to such Commissioners; and also, in case of such purchase being made, for powers to supply the inhabitants of all parts of the said town and parish with water, and to charge, assess, and collect water rents for the supply of such water; and also powers for levying rates or assessments on the owners or occupiers of lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments within the said town or parish, for raising money for effecting the several improvements and works aforesaid; and for the lighting and watching and other such purposes aforesaid; and for defraying the expences of obtaining and passing the Act, and carrying the same into execution; and for borrowing money on the credit of such rates or assessments, and property to be purchased or created under the said Act; and for the more speedy execution of the purposes aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans of the said intended bridge and approaches thereto, together with the book of reference thereto, and also duplicate plans and sections of the intended reservoirs and waterworks, and describing the brooks or streams to be diverted, taken, and used as aforesaid, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Dorset, at Sherborne, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of such plans, sections, and books of reference will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Lyme Regis, at his place of abode in Lyme Regis.

And it is intended to take power, by the said proposed Act or Acts, to make and maintain two branch railways, from and out of the before-mentioned intended railway or railways, one of such branches commencing in the said parishes of Saint Winnow, Broadoak, and Boconnoc, or one of them, passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Broadoak, Boconnoc, Saint Winnow, Lanivet, Lanhydrock, Cardinham, Bodmin, Helland and Withiel, or some of them, in the county of Cornwall, and terminating at or near the town of Bodmin by a junction with a branch of the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway, and the other of such branches commencing in the said parishes of Liskeard and Saint Pinnock, or one of them, passing thence in or through the said last-named parishes and the said parish of Saint Cleer, or some or one of them, and terminating by a junction with the Liskeard and Caradon Railway, in the said parishes of Liskeard and Saint Cleer, or one of them.

And it is also intended, by such Act or Acts, to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads, railways, tramways, harbours, docks, sewers, pipes, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert, for the purposes of the said intended railways and works.

And it is further intended, by such Act or Acts to vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands proposed to be purchased or taken, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended railways and works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is further intended, by such Act or Acts, to incorporate a company, and to enable the proprietors of and other persons interested in a certain ferry, known as the Torpoint Steam Ferry, at Torpoint, to sell or let the said ferry, and the machines, vessels, wharfs, quays, landing-places, staiths, works, and other conveniences thereto belonging or used therewith, or any part thereof, and the tolls and duties payable in respect thereof, and all or any of the powers of such proprietors or persons in connection therewith respectively, to the company so to be incorporated as aforesaid, and to enable such last-mentioned company to purchase or rent, and hold and use the said ferry, and to exercise all such powers as aforesaid.

And, it is further proposed to amend or enlarge the powers and provisions of the Act establishing the said ferry, passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and to alter the tolls, rates, or duties payable in respect of the said ferry, and to grant certain exemptions from the payment thereof.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to empower the company thereby to be incorporated to establish a ferry, or other means of communication, across the river Tamar, at Hamoaze aforesaid, from Torpoint aforesaid, to the opposite bank or side of the Hamoaze aforesaid, in the parish of Stoke Damerel, in the said county of Devon; and to construct and maintain such wharfs, quays, landing places, staiths, and other works and conveniences as may be necessary for maintaining the communication across the said river, in connection with the said intended railway, which ferry, and the works connected therewith, will be situate within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Torpoint, Antony otherwise Antony Saint Jacob otherwise Antony in the East, the bed and shores of the River Tamar, or of the Hamoaze and Stoke Damerel, or some of them; and it is proposed to take power also to let or sell and transfer the said intended ferry, or other means of communication and works, or any part thereof, and all or any of the powers of the company in connection therewith to the Torpoint Steam Ferry Boat Company, or the owners or other persons interested in the said last-mentioned ferry, or to any other company or persons, and to enable the said Steam Ferry Boat Company, or such owners or persons, to purchase or rent the said intended ferry, or other such means of communication, or to construct, maintain, and use the same, and to exercise such powers, or any of them, and to grant such exemptions from the payment of tolls and duties in respect of the said ferry, or means of communication, and such other privileges with respect to the traffic thereof, as may be mutually agreed upon between them and the company to be incorporated as aforesaid.

And it is further intended, by the said Act or Acts, to enable the company to be incorporated as aforesaid and the Company of Proprietors, or the proprietor for the time being, of the Newquay Railway, and the Company of Proprietors of the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway, and the Company of Proprietors of the Liskeard and Caradon Railway, and any company or companies which may be incorporated for the purpose of making a railway between Truro and Penzance, to enter, respectively, into and carry into effect such mutual arrangements as to them may seem expedient for the sale or for the letting of any or either of the said last-mentioned railways, or any portion thereof, or of the tolls and duties payable in respect thereof, and of all or any of the powers of either of the said last-mentioned companies or proprietors in relation to the said railways, or any of them, to the company so to be incorporated as aforesaid; and for adapting the said last-mentioned railways, or any or either of them, to the purposes of the said last-mentioned company; and, with such objects as last aforesaid, it is proposed to amend or enlarge, as far as it may be necessary, the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the said Newquay Railway, passed, respectively, in the first and second and in the seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty; and of the several Acts relating to the said Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway, passed, respectively, in the second and in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and also of the Act establishing the said Liskeard and Caradon Railway, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And it is also intended, by such Act or Acts, to empower the company thereby to be incorporated to purchase lands and houses, by compulsion or agreement, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said intended railways, ferry, and other works, and to grant such exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties as to such company may seem meet.

And it is further intended, by such Act or Acts, to enable the company thereby to be incorporated to sell, or let, or transfer the said intended railways, ferry, and other works, or any part thereof, and all or any powers of such company in connection therewith or in relation thereto; and to enable the Great Western Railway Company, the Bristol and Exeter Railway Company, the Bristol and Gloucester Railway Company, and the South Devon Railway Company, or any or either of them, to purchase or rent the same, or to construct the said intended railway or railways, ferry, and works, or any part or parts thereof, and to exercise such powers, or any of them; and also to contribute funds for or towards the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended railway or railways, ferry, and other works; and generally to enter into and carry into effect such arrangements in reference thereto as may be mutually agreed on between the said last-mentioned companies, or any or either of them, and the company to be incorporated as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps or plans and sections of the said intended railways, ferry, and other works, and of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Devon, at his office at the Castle of Exeter; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office in Saint Austell; and that a copy of so much of the said maps or plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said intended railways, ferry, and works are intended to be made, will be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December in the present year, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively, at their respective residences.

Scarborough Water-Works.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for incorporating a company for the purpose of making and maintaining one or more aqueduct or aqueducts, with proper reservoirs, water-works, other works, and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches thereto, for supplying the towns of Scarborough and Falsgrave, in the parish and borough of Scarborough, in the county of York, with water; such aqueduct or aqueducts and works commencing respectively, one at or near to a field in the township of Staxton, in the parish of Willerby, in the east riding of the said county of York, in the occupation of James Keith; another at or near to a piece of waste ground in the town of Flixton, in the parish of Folkton, in the said east riding; another at or near to a certain field in the occupation of William Nesfield, in the township of Folkton, in the parish of Folkton aforesaid; and another from a certain place in the parish of Seamer, in the north riding of the said county of York, called Stone Haggs, and extending from thence over, within, or along the whole of the towns, highways, town streets, ways, roads, and passages of Falsgrave and Scarborough respectively; and which said aqueduct or aqueducts and works so intended to be made, or some or one of them, are or is intended to be made in and to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial or other places following; or some of them, that is to say; Staxton, Flixton, Folkton, and Willerby, in the east riding of the said county of York; Seamer, in the north riding of the said county of York; and Falsgrave and Scarborough, in the borough of Scarborough, in the said county of York.

And it is proposed, by the said intended Act, to take powers for the purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, of any springs, waters, watercourses, reservoirs, houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments necessary for the purposes aforesaid; and to vary and extinguish all rights or privileges in any manner connected with such springs, waters, watercourses, reservoirs, houses, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction or maintenance of the said intended works, or any of them, and to confer other rights and privileges; and for powers for enabling the said company to carry the said aqueduct or aqueducts and works, or some or one of them, upon, over, along, or within the ground of the York and Scarborough Railway, and upon, over, along, or within the ground of the turnpike roads repaired, maintained, and kept under the provisions of an Act, made and passed in the third year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing the roads from near Monk-bridge, near York, to New Malton, and from thence to Scarborough, and from Spittle House to Scarborough, all in the county of York;" and upon, over, along, or within the ground of any other turnpike road, highway, footpath, street, public or private road, or bridge, in the several townships before enumerated, and upon, over, along, or within any of the lands or grounds in the several townships before enumerated.

And, in the said intended Act, powers will be taken for the said aqueduct or aqueducts, and works to cross the Muston and Yeddingham Drain, and, if necessary, for the said company to erect an arch or arches, bridge or bridges, for that purpose.

And, in the said Act, powers will be taken to levy and recover rates, rents, and duties for the use of the water to be supplied by the said company, and to grant exemptions from the payment thereof.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the intended works as required by the standing orders of Parliament, with books of reference to the said plans, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November 1844, with the Clerk of the Peace for the east riding of the said county of York, at his office at Beverley; with the Clerk of the Peace for the north riding of the said county of York, at his office at Northallerton; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Scarborough, at his office at Scarborough aforesaid.

And that, on or before the thirty-first day of December eighteen hundred and forty-four, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish in or through which the said intended aqueduct or aqueducts, reservoir, and works, respectively, are proposed to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for one or more Bill or Bills, to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirty-ninth and fortieth years of the reign of King George the Third; intituled "an Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal from the river Thames, near to the town of Gravesend, in the county of Kent, to the river Medway, at a place called Nicholson's Ship-yard, in the parish of Frindsbury, in the said county; and also a certain collateral cut from White-wall, in the said parish, to the said river Medway;" of an Act, passed in the forty-fourth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "an Act for enabling the company of proprietors of the Thames and Medway Canal, to vary the line of the said canal, and to raise a further sum of money for completing the said canal and the works thereunto belonging, and for altering and enlarging the powers of an Act, made in the thirty-ninth and fortieth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for making the said canal and a collateral cut thereto;" of an Act, passed in the fiftieth year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the company of proprietors of the Thames and Medway Canal to vary the line of the said canal, and for altering and enlarging the powers of two Acts, passed in the fortieth and forty-fourth years of His present Majesty, for making the said canal and a collateral cut thereto;" of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the company of proprietors of the Thames and Medway Canal, to raise a further sum of money, for completing the said canal, and the works thereto belonging, and for altering enlarging and rendering more effectual the powers for making the said canal and works;" and of an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Fourth, intituled "an Act for enabling the Thames and Medway Canal Company to raise a further sum of money, to discharge their debts, and to complete the said canal, and the works thereunto belonging, and for altering, enlarging, and rendering more effectual the powers for making the said canal and works," or to repeal the said Acts, or some of them, and to grant other powers and provisions instead thereof.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers in such Bill or Bills, or in one of such Bills, to authorize the company incorporated by the said first-mentioned Act, to widen, enlarge, and extend the line of railway and works, made and executed upon, along, near to, or by the side of the said canal, or some part or parts thereof, under the authority of the before-mentioned Acts, some or one of them; and also to make one or more extension or extensions of the same railway, from its present terminus, in the parish of Milton, next Gravesend, to or near to Waites' Hotel, and to or near to the Terracprier-gardens, and to or near to Harmer-street, all in the parish of Gravesend, and Milton next Gravesend, or one of them; and also to make an extension of the said railway, from its present terminus, in the parish of Frindsbury, to or near the High-street, in the parish of Stroud or Strood, adjacent to Rochester-bridge, in the said county of Kent, and which existing line of railway, and the alterations therein, and additions thereto, are situate in, or will be made and pass from, in; through, or into the several parishes, townships and extra-parochial places of Gravesend, Milton next Gravesend, Denton, Chalk, Shorne or Upper Shorne, Lower Shorne, Cliffe or Cliffe Church, Higham, Hoo, Cooling, Frindsbury, Stroud or Strood, and Rochester, or some of them, in the county of Kent.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to make lateral deviations from the line of the said work, to the extent, or within the limits defined upon the plans hereinafter mentioned, or referred to, and also to cross, divert, alter, or stop up all such tarapike roads, parish roads, and other highways, streams, canals, navigations, and railways, within the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to divert, alter, or stop up for the purposes of the proposed work.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan of the said work, as proposed to be made, widened, extended, and maintained; and also a duplicate of such plan, and a section and duplicate thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, as relates to each parish in or through which the said work is intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his respective residence.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended in the said Bill or Bills, or in one of such Bills, to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and other hereditaments, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties, upon or in respect of the said work, and to vary the existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands, houses, and hereditaments, already taken or purchased, or proposed to be taken or purchased, for the purposes thereof, and to confer exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges; and also to obtain powers for raising further sums of money, for the purposes of the said undertaking, by such means as shall be specified in such Bill or Bills, or in one of such Bills.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Bill to stop up and discontinue the use of the whole, or some part or parts of the canal, made in pursuance of the before-mentioned Acts, some or one of them, and to apply the site of such canal, or some part or parts thereof, for the purposes of the said railway, and the works connected therewith.

Dated this eighth day of November 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with suitable works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the Chester and Holyhead Railway, near to a certain house called the Shepherd's-house, in the township of Saltney, and parish of Hawarden, in the county of Flint, passing thence, from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Saltney, Manor and Rake, Hawarden, Bretton, Broughton, Dodleston, Higher Kinnerton, Hope, Hope-Owen, Bannel, Mold, Hartsheath, Lecswod, Bistree, Broncoed, Argoed, and Llwynegrin, or some of them, in the county of Flint, and Dodleston and Lower Kinnerton, or one of them, in the county of Chester, and terminating in a field adjoining the Town Hall and abutting upon the turnpike-road to King's Ferry, belonging to Mr. Wilson Jones, in the township and parish of Mold, in the county of Flint.

And it is intended by the said proposed Act to incorporate a company for the purpose of carrying into effect the purposes aforesaid; and to enable such company to sell or let the said intended railway and works, and all or any of the powers and privileges which may be conferred on them in relation thereto, to the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company, and to the Chester and Birkenhead Railway Company, or either of them, and to enable the said last-mentioned companies, or either of them, to purchase or rent the same, and to use, exercise, and enjoy such powers and privileges, or otherwise themselves to carry into effect the said intended railway and works, and also to raise the funds necessary for the purpose; and for such purpose to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the Act authorizing the construction of the Chester and Holyhead Railway passed in the last session of Parliament, and of the several Acts relating to the Chester and Birkenhead Railway passed respectively in the first and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And it is further proposed by such Act to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would in any manner interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges, and to take powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and for the levying of tolls, rates, and duties; and powers also to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all roads, streams, rivers, canals, highways, railways, or tramways, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert, for the purposes of the said intended railway and works.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections, showing the line and levels of the said intended railway, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office in Chester; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Flint, at his office in Mold, respectively; and that on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the several parishes in or through which the said railway is intended to be made, will be deposited for public inspection with the parish clerk of such parish at his residence.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for opening a street to Clerkenwell Green, in the county of Middlesex, in conti-situation of the new street from Farringdon Street, in the city of London." And also of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the provisions of the Act for opening a street to Clerkenwell Green, in the county of Middlesex; and by such Bill it is intended to authorize the commissioners appointed by the said firstly-recited Act, to make an extension of the said street to Clerkenwell-green, and also to form three new streets leading from and out of the said last-mentioned street; which said intended extension of the said street, and the said three new streets, will be situate in the parishes of St. James, Clerkenwell, St. Andrew, Holborn, and St. Sepulchre, or some of them, in the said county of Middlesex. And it is also intended by such Bill to extend the time granted by the said firstly-recited Act for the purchase of the lands, houses, and other property required for the purposes of such Act, and to confer powers for the compulsory purchase of the lands, houses, and other property which will be required in making the said extension, and the said three new streets.—Dated this thirtieth day of October 1844.

Wm. Burchell, Clerk to the Commissioners, 24, Red Lion Square.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the better supplying with water the town and parish of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford; and for that purpose to construct, make, and maintain water-works, reservoirs, and other necessary works for the purpose aforesaid, at or near the village of Tettenhall, in the parish of Tettenhall, in the said county of Stafford, and to construct proper adits, tunnels, shafts, cuts, canals, conduits, drains, sluices, communications, bridges, fences, and other works and conveniences, for obtaining, preserving, and conveying the same water from Tettenhall aforesaid, within the said parishes of Tettenhall and Wolverhampton; and in which Bill provision will be made for incorporating a company for the purpose of constructing the said works, with powers for levying rates, tolls, or rents, for or in respect of such supply of water as aforesaid, and for granting exemptions from the payment of such rates, tolls, or rents. And it is also intended to take powers by the said Bill, for purchasing, by compulsion or otherwise, lands and houses, for the purposes of such intended works, and also for varying or extinguishing all existing rights or privileges connected with such lands and houses, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, use, and maintenance of the said intended works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is also hereby given, that plans and sections of the aforesaid works, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands and grounds to be purchased or taken for the purposes aforesaid, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, at his office at Stafford, on or before the 30th day of November instant, and also a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the said parishes of Tettenhall and Wolverhampton, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the 31st day of December next, at his place of abode.

Roy, Blunt, Johnstone, and Walton, Lotherbury,
Bennett and Thorne, Wolverhampton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to extend the term, and to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of three several Acts relating to the turnpike roads from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the county of York, and from Mosbrough-green to Clown, both in the said county of Derby; that is to say, an Act, passed in the nineteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing and widening the road from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the west riding of the county of York, and also the road branching out of the said road at or near Mosbrough-green, in the said county of Derby, to Clown, in the same county;" an Act, passed in the thirtieth year of the same reign, intituled "An Act to continue for twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term, and to alter and enlarge the powers, of an Act, passed in the nineteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for repairing and widening the roads from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the county of York, and from Mosbrough-green to Clown, both in the said county of Derby;" and an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for continuing and amending two Acts of His late Majesty, for repairing the roads from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the county of York, and from Mosborough-green to Clown, both in the said county of Derby; and also for widening and altering certain parts of the said road, and making and maintaining branches of road communicating therewith;" and it is intended, by the Act so to be applied for, to alter and increase the tolls at present authorized to be taken under the said recited Acts.—Dated the 7th day of November 1844.

By order,

Wilson, Younge, and Pierson, Clerks to the Trustees of the above roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to authorise the construction and maintenance of a railway or railways, with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the Oxford branch of the Great Western Railway, either in the liberty of Grand Pont, and parish of Saint Aldate, in the city of Oxford, and

And it is also intended, by such Act or Acts, to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads and highways, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert by reason of the construction of the said intended works.

And it is further intended, by such Act or Acts, to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands proposed to be purchased or taken for the purposes of the said undertaking, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use thereof; and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended, by such Act or Acts, either to enable the Great Western Railway Company to carry into effect the said intended undertaking, or otherwise to incorporate a company, for the purpose of carrying the same into effect, and to take powers for the purchase of land, by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes thereof, and for levying tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use thereof, and to grant certain exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties.

And it is further intended, by such Act or Acts, in the event of a company being thereby incorporated, to enable such company to sell or let, and transfer the said intended railway and works, or any part thereof, and all or any powers of such company in connection therewith or in relation thereto, to the Great Western Railway Company, and to enable the said last-mentioned company to purchase or rent the said intended railway and works, or any part thereof, and to exercise such powers, or any of them; and also to raise and contribute funds for or towards the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended railway, and works; and generally to enter into and carry into effect such arrangements in reference thereto, as may be mutually agreed on between the said Great Western Railway Company and the company which may be so incorporated, as hereinbefore mentioned.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps or plans and sections of the said intended railway, and works and of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Berks, at his office, in Abingdon; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Oxford, at his office in Oxford; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Northampton, at his office, in Northampton; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, at his office, in Stratford-upon-Avon; and that a copy of so much of the said maps or plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said intended railway, branch railway, and works, are intended to be made, will be deposited, on or before the thirty-first day of December in the present year, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively, at their respective residences.

Torquay and Newton Abbot Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts for making and maintaining a railway, with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, to commence at or near Aller, in the parishes of Coombinteignhead and Abbotskerswell, in the county of Devon, or one of them, either by a junction with the South Devon Railway, or any other railway, or at an independent station, and to terminate at or near the town or harbour of Torquay, in the parish of Tormoham in the same county; with a branch diverging from the said line near Chapel-hill, in the said parish of Tormoham, and from thence to or near to Livermead, in the parish of Cockington, and terminating at or near the town or harbour of Torquay; and which said railway, branch railway, and works will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places following, or some of them; that is to say, Wolborough, Coombinteignhead, Abbotskerswell, Kingskerswell, Saint Mary Church, Coffinswell, Tormoham, Cockington, Tor, and Torquay, in the county of Devon; and it is intended to apply for powers in the said Act or Acts to make lateral deviations from the line of the proposed works, to the extent or within the limits defined upon the plans hereinafter referred to, and also to cross, divert, alter, or stop up all such turnpike-roads, parish-roads, and other highways, paths, rivers, streams, canals, navigations, pipes, sewers, aqueducts, railways, and tramroads, within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, for the purposes of the said works.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said railway, branch railway, and works, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Devon, at his office at the Castle of Exeter, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four; and on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish, in or through which the said railway, branch railway, and works are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his place of abode.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended by the said Act or Acts, or either of them, to incorporate a company to carry into effect the said intended undertaking, or to enable the South Devon Railway Company to carry the same into effect, and to enable the company so to be incorporated to sell, or let, or transfer the same, or any part thereof, and all or any of the powers of such company in connexion therewith, to the South Devon Railway Company, or any other railway company, incorporated, or to be incorporated, and to enable the said South Devon Railway Company, or such other railway company, to use, purchase, rent, or construct the said intended railway, branch railway, and works, or any part thereof, and to exercise such powers, or any of them, and to raise or contribute funds for such purposes, or any of them, and generally to enter into and carry into effect such arrangements in reference thereto as may be mutually agreed upon between the said South Devon Railway Company, or such other company as aforesaid, and the company to be incorporated by the said Act or Acts, and to enable the said last-mentioned intended company and the said South Devon Railway Company, or such other company as aforesaid, to make and carry into effect agreements and arrangements, with reference to the working and use of the said South Devon Railway, or such other railway as aforesaid, or any part thereof, by such intended company; and so far as may be necessary for carrying the above objects into effect it is proposed by the said intended Act or Acts to extend and amend the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled "An Act for making a railway from Exeter to Plymouth, to be called the South Devon Railway;" and, if necessary, to alter the tolls thereby authorized to be levied, and also to extend, amend, and enlarge the powers of a certain other Act, made and passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving certain roads near Torquay, Paignton, Brixham, Kingswear, Newton Abbot, and Shaldon; and for making certain new roads connected therewith, all in the county of Devon."

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Act or Acts to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected therewith, or which would impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid, or any of them, and also to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon or in respect of the said railway, branch railway, and works, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

Dated this ninth day of November 1844.

*Mark Kennaway, Exeter,
W. and C. Kitson, Torquay, Solicitors for the Bill.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, and enlarge, and, if necessary, to consolidate the powers and provisions of the several Acts, or some of them, relating to the Manchester and Salford Water Works Company, passed respectively in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, in the fifty-third year of the same reign, in the fifty-sixth year of the same reign, in the first and second years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, in the fourth year of the same last-mentioned reign, and in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And, by the said intended Act or Acts, it is proposed to enable the company of proprietors of the Manchester and Salford Water Works to better supply with water the inhabitants of the towns of Manchester and Salford, and the several townships of Hulme, Stretford, Chorlton-upon-Medlock, Moss Side, Rusholme, Ardwick, Newton, Cheetham, Broughton, Pendleton, Beswick, Bradford, Droylsden, Openshaw, Audenshaw, Gorton, and Denton, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and also the inhabitants of the towns of Ashton-under-Line, in the said county, and of Staly-bridge, in the counties of Lancaster and Chester, and of the township of Stayley, in the county of Chester; and for such purpose to construct and maintain new reservoirs, with all proper feeders, aqueducts, tunnels, works, and conveniences to be connected therewith, within the several parishes, townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial or other places of Armfield or Arnfield, Hollingworth, Tintwistle, Micklehurst, Stayley, Staly-bridge, and Mottram-in-Longendale, or some of them, all in the county palatine of Chester, and the several parishes, townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial or other places of Hartshead, Staly-bridge, Ashton-under-Line, Audenshaw, Droylsden, Gorton, Openshaw, Ardwick, and Manchester, or some of them, all in the county palatine of Lancaster; and to collect and obtain water from certain lands, springs, brooks, and streams, situate within the said several parishes, townships, hamlets, and places, or some of them, the waters of which brooks or streams, or some of them, now directly or derivatively flow into the rivers Etherow and Tame, and into the Mersey and Irwell Navigation, or into the rivers Mersey and Irwell, or one of them, and into the Huddersfield Canal Navigation, and the canal navigation from Manchester to or near Ashton-under-Line and Oldham.

And to lay down and maintain aqueducts, pipes, and conduits, for the conveyance of such water through private lands, and in and along roads, streets, and public passages, in the several parishes, townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial or other places aforesaid, or some of them.

And also to enable the said company to increase their capital, and to levy and raise rates or rents in respect of the supply of water to be afforded by them as aforesaid.

And by the said Act or Acts it is further intended to enable the said company to purchase, by compulsion or agreement, all such lands, reservoirs, streams, tenements, and hereditaments, as may be necessary for the foregoing purposes; and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges belonging to or connected with such lands, streams, tenements, and hereditaments respectively, or which would impede or interfere, or be inconsistent with the purposes aforesaid, and to grant other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the situation and levels of the said intended reservoirs, aqueducts, and other works, and the brooks and streams to be directly diverted into the same, together with books of reference to the said plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, for public inspection, at the respective offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the counties palatine of Lancaster and Chester, in Chester and Preston; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said intended reservoirs, aqueducts, and works are proposed to be constructed, will, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerks of such parishes respectively.—Dated the ninth day of November 1844.

John Barlow, jun. Law Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, and enlarge, and also to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Manchester and Birmingham Railway, passed respectively in the first, the third, and the seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty; and that, by such intended Act or Acts, it is proposed to empower the Manchester and Birmingham Railway Company to make a branch railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, from and out of the main line of the Manchester and Birmingham Railway, in the township of Heaton Norris, in the parish of Manchester, and in the borough of Stockport, in the counties of Lancaster and Chester, or one of them, and passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, townlands, divisions, and extra-parochial or other places of Ashton-under-Lyne, Audenshaw, Hooley-hill, Manchester, Denton, Reddish, Haughton, Heaton Norris, Stockport, or some of them, in the counties of Lancaster and Chester, or one of them, and terminating by a junction with the Sheffield, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Manchester Railway, at or near Guide's-bridge, in the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, and in the township or division of Audenshaw, in the said county of Lancaster; also to make another branch railway from and out of the said before-mentioned intended branch railway, in the township of Denton, in the parish of Manchester, and county of Lancaster, to or near to the Collieries, known as the Haughton Collieries, in the township of Haughton, in the said parish of Manchester; which said last-mentioned branch railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, townlands, and extra-parochial or other places of Manchester, Denton, and Haughton, or some of them, in the said county of Lancaster; and also to extend the line of the branch railway, known as the Macclesfield Branch of the Manchester and Birmingham Railway, from the terminus thereof, at or near Beech-bridge, in the township and borough of Macclesfield, and parish of Prestbury, to or near to a place called Cockshot-lane otherwise Cockshut-lane, in the town and borough of Macclesfield, which said extension will be situate wholly within the parish of Prestbury, and townships of Tytherington otherwise Titherington, and Macclesfield, or one of them, and in the county of Chester.

And, by the said intended Act or Acts, it is also proposed to take powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses; and also powers for the levying of tolls upon and in respect of the works hereinbefore referred to, and also powers for altering, diverting, or stopping up, within the aforesaid parishes, townships, townlands, divisions, and places, and, whether temporarily or permanently, all roads, streets, highways, rivers, streams, sewers, pipes, aqueducts, canals, and railways or tramways, which it may be necessary so to stop up, alter, or divert, for the purpose of constructing or maintaining the said intended works.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to repeal all limitations contained in the said recited Acts, or any of them, with regard to the division of interest or appropriation of dividends amongst the proprietors in the said Manchester and Birmingham Railway; and also to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the several objects aforesaid, or any of them, and to confer other rights and privileges; and also to enable the said Manchester and Birmingham Railway Company to increase their capital, and to contribute or subscribe towards the establishment and maintenance of, and to purchase or rent, and use, and, if need be, to complete such other undertakings as the said company may deem beneficial to their interests, and as may be sanctioned by Parliament.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the said proposed works, and the lands and premises required to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands and premises, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office in Preston; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office in the city of Chester; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the several parishes in or through which the said proposed works are intended to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of such parish, at his residence.—Dated this fifth day of November 1844.

Slater and Heelis, Solicitors, Manchester.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, enlarge, or repeal the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, or some of them, that is to say; an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for completing the railway communication between the towns of Newcastle on Tyne and Darlington, by a railway to be called the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway, with a branch to the city of Durham;" another Act, passed in the session holden in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to authorize certain alterations in a portion of the line of the Great North of England Railway, and for vesting the same in the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company;" another Act, passed in the session holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for authorizing the sale of the Durham Junction Railway to the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company, and for enabling the said company to make a station at Gateshead, with a bridge and approaches, to connect the said last-mentioned railway with the town of Newcastle upon Tyne, and for other purposes;" another Act, passed in the session holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for enabling John Brandling and Robert William Brandling, Esquires, to purchase and take leases of lands and hereditaments for the formation of a railway from Gateshead to South Shields and Monkwearmouth, all in the county palatine of Durham, with branches therefrom;" another Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for incorporating certain persons for carrying into effect the purposes of an Act, passed in the fifth and sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for enabling John Brandling and Robert William Brandling, Esquires, to purchase and take leases of lands and hereditaments for the formation of a railway from Gateshead to South Shields and Monkwearmouth, all in the county palatine of Durham, with branches therefrom,' and for other purposes;" another Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Brandling Junction Railway Company to raise an additional sum of money;" and another Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to authorize the Brandling Junction Railway Company to raise a further sum of money."

And it is intended, by the Act or Acts so to be applied for, to enable the said Brandling Junction Railway Company to sell, dispose of, and make over all their estate, right, title, and interest in, and to the said Brandling Junction Railway, and all and singular the branches thereof, and the works and conveniences connected therewith, and the lands in or upon which the same respectively are made, and all their other property and effects, and all the powers and privileges now vested in them, to the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company; and to enable the said Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company to purchase, accept, and take the same, and to exercise all the powers and privileges now vested in the said Brandling Junction Railway Company; and to consolidate and unite the said Brandling Junction Railway, and the branches and works thereof respectively, with the said Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway; and to enable the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company to levy and receive the tolls, rates, and duties now payable on or in respect of the Brandling Junction Railway, and branches and works respectively, and to exercise all or any of the rights and privileges relating thereto, and, if necessary, to alter, vary, and increase such tolls, rates, and duties, and to dissolve the said Brandling Junction Railway Company.

And it is also proposed to take powers, by the said intended Act or Acts, for enabling the said Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company to purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, the lands upon or over which the said Brandling Junction Railway, branches and works respectively, pass, or are made, and the fee simple and inheritance thereof, and all other estates and interests therein, and to vest the said lands in the same company, freed from all annual or other rents or charges now payable by the said Brandling Junction Railway Company, or any person or persons whomsoever, in respect of or for the use of the same; which said Brandling Junction Railway, and branches and works respectively, pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, parochial chapelries, townships, and extra-parochial places of Monkwearmouth, Fulwell, Whitburn, Monkwearmouth Shore, Boldon, East Boldon, West Boldon, Southwick, Jarrow, Hedworth, Monkton, Heworth otherwise Nether Heworth, Gateshead, Harton, Westoe otherwise Wyvestoe, South Shields, Whickham, Chester-le-street, Lamesley, and Tanfield, all in the county of Durham, or some of them.

And it is also proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to take powers for making and maintaining the several railways or branch railways following, or some of them, together with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto respectively, that is to say; a branch railway from and out of the main line of the said Brandling Junction Railway, commencing at or near a place marked S on the plans of such railway, which will be deposited, as hereinafter mentioned, in the township of Monkwearmouth and parish of Monkwearmouth, thence passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, parochial chapelries, townships, and extra-parochial places of Monkwearmouth, Monkwearmouth Shore, Fulwell, and Southwick, or some of them, and terminating at or near to a certain quay abutting on the river Wear, the property of Sir Hedworth Williamson, Baronet, in the townships of Monkwearmouth and Monkwearmouth Shore, or one of them, and in the parish of Monkwearmouth, all in the county of Durham; another branch railway from and out of the South Shields branch of the said Brandling Junction Railway, commencing at or near to a place marked V on the said plans, in the township of Westoe otherwise Wyvestoe, and parish of Jarrow, thence passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, parochial chapelries, townships, and extra-parochial places of South Shields, Jarrow, and Westoe otherwise Wyvestoe, or some of them, and terminating at or near to a quay known as the Brewery-quay, in the township of South Shields and the parish of Jarrow, all in the said county of Durham; another branch railway from and out of one of the present branches of the said Brandling Junction Railway, called the Metcalfe's

Dock Branch, commencing at or near the place where the said last-mentioned branch railway crosses a street or place, called East Holborn, in the town of South Shields, in the said township of South Shields and parish of Jarrow, thence passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, parochial chapelries, townships, and extra-parochial places of Jarrow and South Shields aforesaid, and terminating in the said township of South Shields and parish of Jarrow, at or near a certain dock called Hall's Dock, all in the said county of Durham; another branch railway from and out of the main line of the said Brandling Junction Railway, commencing at or near a place marked X on the said plans, in the township of Heworth otherwise Nether Heworth, in the said parish of Jarrow, thence passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, parochial chapelries, townships, and extra-parochial places of Jarrow, Heworth otherwise Nether Heworth, Hedworth, Boldon, East Boldon, West Boldon, Washington, Great Usworth, Little Usworth, and Barmston, or some of them, and terminating at or near a place called the Washington station, by a junction with the line of the Durham Junction Railway, now belonging to the Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company, in the township of Usworth and parish of Washington, all in the said county of Durham; and also for making and maintaining a station, with a branch railway to connect the same with the said Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway, all in the township and parish of Darlington, in the said county of Durham; and also for enlarging the present station of the said Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company, at Aycliffe, and for making approaches thereto, all within the townships of Great Aycliffe and Preston-le-Skerne, or one of them, in the parish of Aycliffe, in the said county of Durham; and powers are proposed to be taken, by the said intended Act or Acts, to alter or divert, within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places aforesaid, or some of them, all such railways, turnpike-roads, highways, canals, and navigable rivers, as it may be necessary to interfere with in the construction or maintenance of the said intended branch railways and works, or any of them; and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the said intended branch railways and works respectively, and to grant such exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and duties, as may be deemed expedient; and also to purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, lands and houses for the purposes of the said intended branch railways, and works respectively; and to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges connected with such lands and houses, and with the lands upon which the existing lines of the said Brandling Junction Railway, and the branches thereof, and the works connected therewith respectively, are made, or which would impede or interfere with the construction or maintenance of such railway, branch railways, and works respectively; and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also proposed, by the said intended Act or Acts, to abandon and discontinue, as a railway or railways, the branch railway connected with the said Brandling Junction Railway herein-after mentioned, that is to say, a branch railway called the Harton Branch, commencing on the main line of the said Brandling Junction Railway, at a point marked M on the said plans, being in the township of East Boldon and parish of Boldon, and passing from, through, or into the several parishes, parochial chapelries, townships, and extra-parochial places of Boldon, East Boldon, Whitburn, Jarrow, Harton, and Westoe otherwise Wyvestoe, or some of them, and terminating at the South Shields Branch of the said Brandling Junction Railway, at a point marked N on the said plans, in the township of Westoe otherwise Wyvestoe, and parish of Jarrow, all in the said county of Durham.

And it is also proposed to take power, by the said intended Act or Acts, to enable the said Newcastle and Darlington Junction Railway Company to raise a further sum of money for the purpose of carrying into effect the several purposes aforesaid, or some of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said Brandling Junction Railway, and branches respectively, and of the said intended new branch railways, together with a book of reference to the same, respectively, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, at his office in the city of Durham, on or before the thirtieth day of November 1844; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, respectively, as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said intended railway, branch railways, and works, respectively, are or will be situate, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode, on or before the thirty-first day of December 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for making a navigable canal from and out of the Coombe-hill Canal, at or near to Coombe-hill, in the hamlet of Evington, in the parish of Leigh, in the county of Glou-

Wester, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Evington, Elmstone, Hardwick, Uckinton, Swindon, and Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, towards and into certain garden grounds, in the said parish of Cheltenham, near to the turnpike gate, on the turnpike road leading from Coombe-hill to Cheltenham; and for supplying the said intended canal, when made, with water from and out of a certain brook or stream in the said parish of Cheltenham, called the Chelt (the waters whereof at present run into and in part supply the river Severn), by diverting the same into the said intended canal.

And it is also intended to include in the said Act powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses, and for making such collateral cuts, reservoirs, locks, weirs, dams, embankments, sluices, bridges, drains, culverts, piers, docks, wharfs, quays, landing-places, and other works and conveniences, as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, within the several parishes, townships, and places aforesaid, or any of them; and also powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said intended canal and works.

And it is further intended by the said Act to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation to execute the said intended canal and works, and to exercise the powers aforesaid, or otherwise to incorporate a company for those purposes; and with powers for the said intended canal company, and also for the Coombe-hill Canal Navigation Company, to let on lease, or sell their respective canals, and the works, rights, and privileges thereof respectively, to the Company of Proprietors of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal Navigation; and to enable the said last-mentioned company to purchase or rent the same, or either of them, or any part thereof.

And it is proposed by such Act, to alter, and amend, and enlarge, or to repeal all or any of the provisions of the several Acts passed in the thirty-first, thirty-eighth, forty-fourth, forty-eighth, and fifty-fifth years of the reign of King George the Third, relating to the said Worcester and Birmingham Canal; and of an Act of the thirty-second year of the same reign, relating to the Coombe-hill Canal; and to vary or extinguish all rights or privileges which would impede or interfere with the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges, and also certain exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans, describing the line and situation of the said intended canal, and its works, and of the stream to be directly diverted therein, and the lands required to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plan, containing the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, and sections, showing the levels of the said intended works, will be deposited on or before the thirtieth day of November in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office in the city of Gloucester; and also, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the said canal and works is or are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish, at his residence.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the provisions of an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building a new bridge over the river Parrett, within the borough of Bridgwater, in the county of Somerset, and for repairing, maintaining, and extending the quays in the port of Bridgwater aforesaid, for abolishing the ancient and accustomed duties, and for imposing certain new duties at the port of Bridgwater aforesaid, instead thereof; for regulating the moorings and stations of ships and vessels in the said port, and for imposing a certain toll on horses, carriages, and cattle;" or to repeal the said Act, and grant further powers instead thereof; and in which Act, so to be applied for, provision is intended to be made for improving and maintaining the present navigation of the river and bay of Bridgwater, by the removal of all banks of sand, stakes, wrecks, or other obstructions to such navigation, and for the better regulation of the pilots belonging to the said port; also to extend and improve the present quay on the eastern side of the said river, and form slips or landing places in the same; also to enlarge and repair the present dry dock, and to form and maintain a new dry dock and graving banks for the repair of vessels, with such other works and conveniences as may be necessary or desirable for the accommodation of the trade of the said port; and in which Act provision is also intended to be made to form a communication by a road, and also by a railway, from or near the said extended quay to the Bridgwater station of the Bristol and Exeter Railway, with approaches by roadways to and from such quay and communication; which said navigation extension of the present quay, dry docks, graving banks, works, and conveniences, and also the said communication by road and by railway, and the approaches to and from such quay and communication, are situate in, or will pass, or be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Bream, Berrow, Burnham, Huntspill, Pawlett, Puriton, Durlough, Slogursey, Stockland Bristol, Outerhampton, Cannington, Chilton Triaity, Wembdon, and Bridgwater, or some of them, all in the county of Somerset.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections describing the line and situation of the said navigation, extension of the present quay, the present dry dock, the intended new dry dock, and the graving banks, works, and conveniences, and also the said communication by road and by railway, and the approaches to and from such quay and communication, and the lands and property to be authorized to be taken for the purposes aforesaid, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and property, will, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, be deposited, for public inspection, at the offices respectively of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Somerset, at Taunton, and of the Clerk of the Peace for the said borough of Bridgwater, at Bridgwater aforesaid, and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the aforesaid parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, will, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Act, for the compulsory purchase of the messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments to be described on the said plans, and to levy tolls, rates, or duties in respect of the use of the said dry docks, and also in respect of passengers, goods, horses, and carriages passing along, or using the said communications, or of any of the works or conveniences to be provided under the powers of the said Act, and to repeal, alter, vary, or increase the several tolls, rates, and duties already granted by the said Act, and to grant such exemptions from all or any of such several tolls, rates, and duties, as may be deemed expedient; and also to vary or extinguish all rights or privileges in any manner connected with the houses, lands, tenements, or hereditaments proposed to be taken or interfered with, in or with reference to the making or execution of the said intended works; and also for power to deviate in the construction of the same, to any extent not exceeding the limits of deviation defined upon the said plans so to be deposited as aforesaid, save and except where the property, within such limits of deviation, shall not be delineated on the said plans, or, if delineated on the said plans, shall not be contained and described in the said books of reference, or where it shall be denoted on the said plans, or in the said books of reference, that the powers of deviation into any particular property or properties is not intended to be applied for; and also for power to alter, vary, and divert highways, roads, tramroads, paths, passages, rivers, canals, brooks, streams, sewers, water, and water-courses within the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them. Al. Paramore, Town Clerk.

Dated Bridgwater, 6th November 1844.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, enlarge, or repeal, and to consolidate the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, that is to say; An Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a railway from Great Yarmouth to Norwich, in the county of Norfolk;" an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and enlarge some of the provisions of the Act authorizing the construction of the Yarmouth and Norwich Railway, and to authorize the construction of certain new works in connexion therewith;" and an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from Norwich to Brandon, with a branch to Thetford;" and it is intended, by the Act or Acts so to be applied for, to authorize and empower the union and consolidation into one undertaking of the Yarmouth and Norwich Railway, and the Norwich and Brandon Railway, and the branch railways and works connected therewith, and any branch railways or other works which may be authorized to be carried into effect by the said companies, or either of them, by any Act or Acts of the next session of Parliament, and the respective capital, stock, shares, property, and effects of the Yarmouth and Norwich Railway Company, and of the Norwich and Brandon Railway Company, and the vesting in one company of the said railways, branch railways, and works, and of all the said capital, stock, shares, property, and effects, and of all the powers and privileges now vested in the said two companies, or either of them, or which may be vested in them, or either of them, by any Act or Acts of the next session of Parliament, and to authorize the incorporation of a new company for the purposes above mentioned; and it is also intended, by the same Act or Acts so to be applied for, to enable such new company to levy tolls, rates and duties, for and in respect of the use of the said Yarmouth and Norwich Railway and Norwich and Brandon Railway respectively, and any of the branches thereof, now authorized, or which may be authorized, by any Act or Acts of the next session of Parliament, or of any part or parts thereof; and to alter the tolls, rates, or duties now existing upon the same railways respectively, or either of them, or any branches thereof, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates or duties, and other rights and privileges; and it is intended, by such Act or Acts, to authorize the new company to be thereby incorporated to contribute or subscribe towards the establishment and maintenance of, or to purchase, rent, and use, and, if need be, to complete, any undertakings to be connected with the said railways, or either of them, which they may deem beneficial to their interests, and which may be sanctioned by Parliament.

Bedford and London and Birmingham Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to authorize the making and maintaining of a railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, to commence in the parishes of Saint Mary and Saint John, or one of them, in the town of Bedford, in the county of Bedford; to proceed thence, from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Saint Mary, Saint John, Elstow, Kempston, Wootton, Marston-Moretaine, Lidlington, Ridgmont, Huc-born Crawley, and Aspley-guise, in the county of Bedford; and Wavendon, Bow Brickhill, Simpson otherwise called Sympson, Fenny Stratford, and Bletchley, in the county of Buckingham; and to terminate by a junction with the London and Birmingham Railway, in the parish of Bletchley aforesaid.

And it is intended by such Act to incorporate a company, with powers for the compulsory purchase of lands and houses for the purposes of the said intended undertaking; and also with powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect thereof; and to enable such company to sell or lease the said intended undertaking to the London and Birmingham Railway Company; and to enable the said last-mentioned company to purchase or rent, and to work, use, and occupy the same.

And it is intended to apply for powers to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges connected with the lands proposed to be purchased for the purposes of the said undertaking, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects of the said intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to stop up or divert a portion of the turnpike road branching out of the Bedford and Woburn turnpike road, and situate within the several parishes of Saint Mary and Elstow aforesaid; and also for power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all roads, streams, canals, or highways, which it may be necessary so to divert or stop up, for the purposes of the said railway; and to deviate in the construction of such railway to such extent on either side of the line thereof, as will be shown on the plans of such railway to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the and intended railway, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November, in the present year, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Bedford, in the town of Bedford; and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Buckingham, in the town of Aylesbury; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relate to each parish in or through which the said railway is intended to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.
