WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Burnley, in the parish of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council, that the minister of such district, when duly licenced according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as hereinafter provided :

" And whereas the said chapelry of Burnley is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such chapelry hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bird Bishop of Chester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said chapelry of Burnley, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, " The District of Saint James, Burnley."

" And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November, next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish :

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

" The District of SAINT JAMES, BURNLEY, being

" All that part of the township of Burnley, in the parochial chapelry of Burnley, in the parish of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, situate on the western side of an imaginary line extending towards the south east, from the river Calder, along the north eastern boundary of the workhouse premises in Burnley (marked a on the map or plan herewith); and continuing in a straight direction to a point opposite to the middle of Sydney-street, at the northern end thereof (marked b as aforesaid); and thence southward, along the middle of such street, to a point opposite to the middle of Bank-house-street (marked c as aforesaid); and thence eastward, along the middle of such last-mentioned street, to a point opposite to the middle of Curzon-street (marked d as aforesaid); and thence southward, along the middle of such last-mentioned

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the parish and chapelry out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, and such incumbents and patrons have consented to the said scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intitled "An Act for granting to Her Majesty, "until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, certain duties on sugar imported into the United Kingdom for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four," it was enacted :

That, from and after the tenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, there shall be charged, amongst other duties of Customs, the following, that is to say :

On sugar, which should be certified, as therein-after is mentioned, to be the growth of China, Java, or Manilla, or of any other foreign country, the sugar of which Her Majesty in Council should have declared, in manner thereafter mentioned, to be admissible as not being the produce of slave labour, and which should be imported into the United Kingdom either from the country of its growth or from some British possession, having first been imported into such British possession from the country of its growth, the following duty, namely :

Brown, Muscovado, or clayed sugar,
the cwt. £1 14s. 0d.

and so on in proportion for any greater or less quantity than a hundred weight, together with an additional duty of five per cent. on such aforesaid rate of duty.

And by the said Act it was also enacted,

That with regard to sugar, the growth of any foreign country, between which country and Her Majesty there was then subsisting any treaty or convention binding Her Majesty to grant to such country, either conditionally or unconditionally, the privileges of the most favoured nation, or to permit, either conditionally or unconditionally, the produce of such country to be imported into the United Kingdom at the same duties as are imposed upon the like produce of any other country, it should be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare, that, from and after a day to be named in such Order, not earlier than the tenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, brown, Muscovado, or clayed sugars (not being refined), the growth of such country, in case such treaty should, after the said tenth day of November, continue to subsist, should, if imported from such country, or from any British possession abroad, having been imported into such British possession from such country, be admitted to entry for consumption in the United Kingdom at the aforesaid rate of duty of one pound fourteen shillings per hundred weight, and five per cent. additional, as aforesaid :

And whereas, amongst other treaties and conventions as aforesaid, a treaty was, at the time of the passing of the said Act, and still is, subsisting between Her Majesty and the State of Venezuela, which was signed on the twenty-ninth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, adopting and confirming certain articles and provisions therein mentioned or referred to, amongst which was an agreement that no other or higher duties should be charged on the importation of any articles, the growth, produce, or manufacture of one country, into the territories or dominions of the other, than such as were or might be payable on the importation of the like articles from any other foreign country :

And whereas application has been made on the part of the Government of Venezuela, claiming, under the said treaty, the admission of sugars, the growth of Venezuela, at the said duty of one pound fourteen shillings per hundred weight, with five per cent. additional, as aforesaid :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that, from and after the twenty-eighth day of this instant November, brown, Muscovado, or clayed sugars (not being refined), the growth of Venezuela, shall, if imported from Venezuela, or from any British possession abroad, having been imported into such British possession from Venezuela, be admitted into entry for consumption into the United Kingdom, at the aforesaid rate of duty of one pound fourteen shillings per hundred weight, and five per cent. additional, as aforesaid; subject, nevertheless, to the production of the like certificates, and the making of the like declaration, as are in the said Act required with respect to sugars, the growth of China, Java, or Manilla :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions accordingly.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time after the passing of that Act, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant; and from time to time, by warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof; and, by warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates that might be payable were to be paid:

Now we, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this warrant under our hands, order and direct, that, in all cases in which a letter addressed to any commissioned officer of the army, navy, or ordnance, or any of the departments belonging thereto, respectively, employed on actual service in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or on any foreign station, shall be forwarded by the post, and, before the delivery of such letter at the place of its address, the officer to whom it shall be addressed shall, in the execution of his duty, have removed from that place to any other place (whether at home or abroad), the letter shall be forwarded to the latter place, and shall not be charged with more than the postage which would have been payable for the letter in case the same had been delivered at the place to which it was originally addressed.

And we further direct, that, for the purposes and within the intent and meaning of a certain Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to alter certain rates of postage, and to amend, explain, and enlarge several provisions in an Act, made in the ninth year of the reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the revenue of the Post Office;" and of the said Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and of any Treasury Warrant or Warrants already or hereafter to be issued under or by virtue of the last-mentioned Act, the city of Quebec, in British North America, shall be considered, deemed, and taken to be situate on the sea, and the space between the said city and the mouth or entrance of the river Saint Lawrence shall be considered, deemed, and taken to be the sea, unless a contrary intention shall be expressly declared by any such warrant.

And whereas it is desirable to make further regulations in respect of the postage of letters and newspapers sent by the post from the United Kingdom, or any of the other places hereinafter mentioned, to Bombay, or Madras, or Calcutta, in the East Indies, and forwarded by packet boats or private ships to any place to the eastward of such port or place, or received by packet boats or private ships at Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta, from any place to the eastward of such port or place, and forwarded by the post to the United Kingdom, or any of the other places after mentioned; and also in respect of printed prices current and printed commercial lists sent between the United Kingdom and the East Indies via France:

Now we further direct, that on all letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom, or from Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian isles, France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, to Bombay, or Madras, or Calcutta, in the East Indies, and forwarded from such port or place of arrival by packet boats or private ships to any port or place situate or lying to the eastward of such port or place of arrival (Ceylon only excepted); and on all letters sent by packet boats or private ships to Bombay from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, or sent by packet boats or private ships to Madras from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Madras, or sent by packet boats or private ships to Calcutta from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Calcutta (Ceylon, in every case, only excepted); and from Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta, respectively, transmitted by the post to the United Kingdom, or to Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian isles, France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt; and on all letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, passing between any of the British colonies or any foreign country, and any port or place situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta (Ceylon only excepted), and sent via the United Kingdom and Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta (the conveyance between any such eastward port or place and Bombay, Madras or Calcutta being by packet boats, or private ships), there shall be charged and taken (in addition to all other rates of postage payable by law on such letters) one uniform rate of postage of four pence; and that on all letters transmitted and sent as hereinbefore in this clause mentioned, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and paid (in addition to all other rates of postage payable by law on such letters) progressive and additional rates of postage, each additional rate being estimated at four pence, according to the scale of weight and number of rates fixed and declared by the said Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty; but the additional rate of four pence hereinbefore mentioned is not to extend to the letters of soldiers or sailors in the service of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, provided such letters do not exceed half an ounce in weight, and are forwarded in conformity with the existing regulations; provided also, that such postage of four pence, and such progressive and additional postage on such letters sent from the United Kingdom, or posted in Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian isles, or in any British colony or foreign country, shall be prepaid at the time of posting the same, except as to letters addressed to the island of Hong Kong, in China, and forwarded via Southampton and the Mediterranean packet boats, on which letters the prepayment of such additional rates of postage shall be optional with the sender.

And we further direct, that on all printed British, foreign, and colonial newspapers transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom, or from Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian isles, France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, to Bombay, or Madras, or Calcutta, and forwarded from such port or place of arrival by packet boats or private ships to any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of such port or place of arrival (Ceylon only excepted); and on all such newspapers sent by packet boats or private ships to Bombay from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, or sent by packet boats or private ships to Madras from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Madras, or sent by packet boats or private ships to Calcutta from any ports or places lying to the eastward of Calcutta (Ceylon in every case only excepted); and from Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta, respectively, transmitted by the post to the United Kingdom, or to Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian isles, France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt; and on all printed colonial and foreign newspapers transmitted by the post between any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, and any port or place situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta (Ceylon only excepted), and sent via the United Kingdom, and Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta (the conveyance between any such eastward port or place and Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta being by packet boats or private ships), there shall be charged and taken, in addition to all other rates of postage payable by law on such respective newspapers, one uniform rate of postage of two pence; provided that such additional rate of two pence on newspapers sent to any port or place situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta shall be prepaid at the time of posting the same, except as to newspapers addressed to the said island of Hong Kong, and forwarded via Southampton and the Mediterranean packet boats, on which the prepayment of such additional rate of postage shall be optional with the sender.

And we further direct, that on every printed colonial newspaper sent by the post between any of Her Majesty's colonies and any foreign country through the United Kingdom and Holland, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of the rates of postage now payable thereon, one uniform rate of one penny, in addition to any foreign postage to which any such newspaper may be liable, and also in addition to any rate to which any such newspaper may be liable under the clause lastly hereinbefore contained.

And we direct, that every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

And we further direct, that on every printed price current, and every printed commercial list sent by the post between the United Kingdom and the East Indies, via France, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of three pence, provided that such rate of postage on printed prices current and printed commercial lists sent from the United Kingdom shall be prepaid at the time of posting the same.

And we further direct, that no printed newspaper, either alone or together, with a supplement or addition, or any separate printed supplement or addition to a newspaper, or any printed prices current or commercial list, shall be conveyed by the post under the regulations of this present

Warrant, unless the same shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the sides, and that there be no word or communication printed on the paper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, or any writing or marks upon it, or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent, nor any paper or thing enclosed in or with the same.

And we further direct, that the several and respective rates of postage chargeable under this Warrant shall be charged in sterling money.

And we further direct, that every seaman employed abroad in the service of the East India Company may, whilst such seaman shall be actually employed in the service of such Company, both send and receive letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight by the post, on his own private concerns, at a postage of one penny for each letter; but we declare, that the letters of officers commissioned by the said Company, or warrant officers, or midshipmen, or masters' mates, in the service of the said Company, are not included in this present provision.

And, with respect to letters sent by any such seaman, the following conditions shall be observed (that is to say), the postage of each letter (unless sent from parts beyond the seas, as hereinafter mentioned), shall be paid, or, if posted within the United Kingdom, be duly and properly stamped on being put into a post office established under the authority of the Postmaster-General, and upon such letter shall be superscribed the name of the writer, and his class or description in the vessel to which he shall belong; and upon every such letter there shall be written, in the handwriting of, and signed by, the officer having at the time the command of the vessel to which the seaman belongs, the name of such officer, and the name of such vessel.

And with respect to letters received by the post by any such seaman, the following conditions shall be observed; the postage of each letter (unless sent from parts beyond the seas as hereinafter mentioned) shall be paid, or (if posted within the United Kingdom) be duly and properly stamped upon putting it into a post office established under the authority of the Postmaster-General; and it shall be directed to such seaman, specifying on the superscription thereof the vessel to which he shall belong, and the Deputy-Postmaster of the place to which such letter shall be sent to be delivered shall not deliver such letter to any person except to the seaman to whom it shall be directed, or to some person appointed to receive the same, by writing, under the hand of the officer in command; and whenever the letters sent or received by any such seaman shall be sent from parts beyond the seas, without the said postage of one penny being prepaid, every such letter shall be charged to the party receiving the same with a rate of two pence; and any letters received by the post under this warrant by any such seaman, which may have been redirected, shall not be charged any postage on or in respect of such redirection.

And we further declare, that any such seaman may both send and receive letters, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, by private ships, between the United Kingdom and places beyond the seas, or between places beyond the seas, on their own private concerns, at the like postage for each letter, and subject to the like conditions and regulations, in all respects, as are hereinbefore mentioned in respect of letters sent and received by any such seaman by the post; but whenever the letters sent or received by any such seaman shall be conveyed, or be intended to be conveyed, by private ships, the gratuities payable by law to the masters of such vessels, in respect of such letters, shall, in all cases, be paid to the post office, in addition to such postage.

And we further declare, that the said privilege shall not extend to any foreign rates of postage to which any such letters may be liable, all which foreign rates shall be chargeable and payable as if no such privilege had been granted.

And we further direct, that all British and colonial newspapers, sent by the post, addressed to any commissioned or noncommissioned officer employed in Her Majesty's navy, or in Her Majesty's regular forces, fencible regiments, artillery, or marines, or to any sailor, soldier, or marine, whilst such commissioned or noncommissioned officer, sailor, soldier, or marine shall be actually employed in Her Majesty's service, in any foreign country, or on any foreign or colonial station, may be forwarded thither by packet boat, whether redirected or not, free of postage.

And whereas by the said Act, of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty, it is enacted, that all post letters shall be posted, forwarded, conveyed, and delivered under and subject to all such orders, directions, and regulations, and under and subject to all such conditions, limitations, and restrictions as to form, size, dimensions, enclosures, or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct:

Now we, the undersigned, do hereby declare our consent, and do hereby direct, that no letter or packet shall be forwarded, conveyed, or delivered by the post, either within the United Kingdom or any of Her Majesty's colonies, containing any of the following enclosures, that is to say; any glass or glass bottle; any razor, scissors, knife, fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument; any leeches, game, fish, flesh, fruit, vegetables, or other perishable substance; any bladder or other vessel containing liquid, or any article, matter, or thing whatsoever which might, by pressure or otherwise, be rendered injurious either to the officers of the post office, or to the contents of the mail bags.

And we further direct, that the several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this Warrant, except so far as respects the letters hereinbefore made liable to the additional rate of four pence, and the newspapers hereinbefore made liable to the additional rate of two pence, shall come into operation on the 1st day of January 1845; and, as to such last-mentioned letters and newspapers, this Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of March 1845.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

*Church Commissioners' Office,
November 26, 1844.*

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning a consolidated district, formed from contiguous parts of the parishes of Keighley and Bingley, in the county of York, under the 6th section of the 59th George 3, cap. 134, to Saint John's Chapel, near Paper Mill Bridge, in the said parish of Keighley:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d of May 1844, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches or parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," reciting that a considerable population is frequently collected together at the extremities of, and locally situate in, parishes or extra parochial places contiguous to each other, at a distance from the respective churches or chapels of such respective parishes or extra parochial places, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with such consent as is required by the said recited Act in the case of district parishes, to unite and consolidate any such contiguous parts of such parishes and extra parochial places into a separate and distinct district for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to cause such district to be named, ascertained, and marked out by described bounds, and such name, and the description of such bounds, when approved by His Majesty in Council, to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese to which such district shall belong, under the provisions of this Act; and to make grants or loans for or towards the building of, or to build, any chapel or chapels, with or without cemeteries, in and for the use of the inhabitants of any such district, in such manner, and under such regulations as may, in the judgment of the Commissioners, appear from the circumstances to be most expedient, and to constitute any such district a consolidated chapelry; and every such chapelry shall be under the superintendence of such spiritual person as shall be appointed under the provisions of this Act to serve any such chapel, and such spiritual person shall have cure of souls in such district; and the right of presentation and appointment of such spiritual person shall thenceforth belong to such person or persons, and be exercised in such manner as may be agreed by the several patrons of the churches or chapels of such parishes and extra parochial places respectively, with the approbation of the Commissioners; and banns of marriage may be published, and marriages, christenings, churchings, and burials may be solemnized and performed in any such chapel, immediately and at all times after the consecration thereof, and the pew rents in such chapel shall be fixed, and salaries to the minister and clerk assigned therefrom, in such manner as is directed in the said recited Act, or in this Act, concerning pew rents and salaries in separate or distinct parishes; and all fees and offerings which may arise and accrue within such chapelry, according to such table of fees as the Commissioners shall make, with the approbation of the bishop, may be demanded, received, sued for, prosecuted, and recovered by the spiritual person having cure of souls therein, and by the clerk and sexton of such chapelries, in like manner as if every such chapelry was a distinct parish; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required in every such case, to ascertain and make compensation, in manner directed in like cases under the said recited Act, for any loss which may be sustained by the incumbent of any contiguous parish or extra parochial place, which shall form part of any such district, by reason of any fees, oblations, and offerings being transferred to the spiritual person serving any such chapel; and all such chapelries shall be deemed to be benefices, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop and archdeacon within whose diocese and archdeaconry the altar of such chapel shall be locally situate, and to all the laws in force concerning presentation and appointment to benefices and churches, and lapse, and all other laws relating to the holding of benefices and churches; and it is thereby further enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Keighley, in the county of York, and diocese of Ripon, contained a population of thirteen thousand four hundred and twelve persons, and the adjoining parish of Bingley, in the same county and diocese, contained a population of eleven thousand eight hundred and sixty persons:

"That the parish church of Keighley affords accommodation to eight hundred and eighteen persons, and that of Bingley to five hundred persons:

"That there is a consecrated chapel, called Saint John's Chapel, near Paper Mill Bridge (at the extremity of and situate in the said parish of Keighley, near to where it adjoins the said parish of Bingley), which affords accommodation to seven hundred and fifty persons, including four hundred and fifty free seats appropriated to the use of the poor:

"That the said chapel is distant one mile from the parish church of Keighley, and four miles from the parish church of Bingley, which are the places nearest to the said chapel appropriated to the celebration of divine service according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland:

"That the extremities of the said parishes of Keighley and Bingley, which lie contiguous to each other at Paper Mill Bridge aforesaid, contain an estimated population of two thousand seven hundred persons:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances above mentioned, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate the said contiguous parts of the said parishes of Keighley and Bingley into a separate and distinct district to be assigned to the said chapel at Paper Mill Bridge, for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to constitute such district a consolidated chapel, under the provisions of the sixth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving such chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the said district attached to such chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein; and that such district should be named, "The Consolidated Chapelry District of Ingrow with Hainworth," and consist of parts of the parishes of Keighley and Bingley, with boundaries as follow, that is say:

"The boundary commences at Woodhouse-bridge, and proceeds in a northerly direction, along the road to Keighley and Halifax, as far as the plot of ground numbered in the plan 1133, along the south eastern and northern fence of which it proceeds to number 1131, and proceeds, in a northerly direction, along the eastern fences of numbers 1131, 1136, 1207, to 1209; then turning westward, along the northern fences of 1209 and 1210, till it enters Exley Head-road, along the middle of which road it proceeds westerly till it reaches the plot number 1111; it then proceeds, in a northerly, north westerly, and westerly direction, along the eastern and north eastern fences of plots numbers 1111, 1106, 1236, 1237, 1268, 1269, 1277, 1278, 1276, 1284, 1287, to 1292; it then proceeds, in a south westerly direction, along the north westerly fences of numbers 1292 and 1294, to 1316; it then proceeds, in a north westerly and south westerly direction, along the north easterly and north westerly fences of numbers 1316, 1331, 1333, 1335, 1336, to number 1544; then, in a westerly direction, along the southern fences of 1544 and 1545, as far as Oakworth liberty; it then proceeds, in a south westerly direction, along the fence of that liberty and the small stream, to its junction with South Beck, along which river it proceeds westerly as far as a small stream, forming the eastern boundary of the township of Haworth, in the parish of Bradford; the boundary then enters the parish of Bingley, and proceeds, in a southerly direction, down the said stream, till it meets the south western fence of Lees-moor, along which fence it proceeds, in a south easterly and easterly direction, to certain posts on Hainworth-moor, and following such posts till it is met by a stone fence, along which fence it proceeds, in a north easterly direction, to a stream at the west of Longlee; it then proceeds, in a north westerly direction, along that stream, to its junction with the Beck river; and from thence, in a westerly direction, to Woodhouse-bridge, where the boundary commenced, as is shewn on the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink and yellow:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Ripon has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed consolidation and assignment be accordingly made and carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Enfield-Chase Road.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to extend the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the first year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for maintaining the road from Enfield-chase, in the county of Middlesex, to Lemsford-mill, in the county of Hertford," or to repeal the said Act, or certain parts thereof, and to grant further and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof; which road passes from, in, or through or into the several parishes following, that is to say; South Mimms, in the county of Middlesex; and North Mimms and Hatfield otherwise Bishops Hatfield, in the county of Hertford.

And it is also intended, by the said Bill or Bills, or in some Bill to be introduced into Parliament in the next session, to obtain powers to change, alter, and divert the said existing line of turnpike road at or from a point between the sixteenth and seventeenth mile stones on the said road (as the distance is marked thereon from London), to the town of Hatfield; and which said new line or portion of road will pass through the said parishes of North Mimms and Hatfield otherwise Bishops Hatfield, or one of them, in the said county of Hertford.

And it is also intended to take powers, by the said Bill or Bills, or in some Bill to be introduced into Parliament in the next session, so soon as the said new line or portion of road shall be completed and opened to the public, to stop up and do away, in whole or in part, with the said portion of the said existing turnpike road, for which the said intended new piece of road shall be substituted as aforesaid.

And it is further intended, by the said Bill or Bills, or in some Bill to be introduced into Parliament in the next session, to take powers to alter the existing rates, tolls, and duties authorized to be taken by the said Act, and to levy other tolls on the roads already maintained under the powers of the said Act, and also to levy tolls on or in respect of such new piece of road.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said new intended line or portion of road, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Hertford, at Saint Albans, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, as relates to each parish in or through which any part of such new line or portion of road is intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the respective residences of such parish clerks.

By order of the Trustees,

Longmore and Swarder, Solicitors, Hertford.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for the division of the parish and vicarage of Bradford, in the county of York, within the diocese of Ripon, in the said county, into separate districts, parishes, or vicarages, for ecclesiastical purposes, and for facilitating and aiding the endowment of such separate parishes or vicarages out of the proceeds of the said present vicarage, and for providing one or more parsonage house or houses for the incumbents of such separate parishes or vicarages, or some of them; and for extending to the said Act the provisions of the several Acts for promoting the building of additional churches, and for raising money by pew rents, and for applying to the purposes of the said new parishes or vicarages any rates or other monies now leviable in respect of the said vicarage of Bradford; and, in the said Act, powers will be contained for selling all or parts of the glebe lands belonging to the said vicarage, and for granting leases thereof for long terms of years, and for applying the money produced by such sales and leases, or any part thereof, towards the augmentation of the said new parishes or vicarages, and for providing for the patronage of such new parishes or vicarages; and for varying or extinguishing all existing rights and privileges, in relation to the said vicarage, which would impede or interfere with the execution of the purposes aforesaid.—Dated the twenty-first day of November 1844.
