

Llandegla; on the west and south by the parish of Ruabon; and on the east by the townships of Esclusham below and Bersham; and on the north east by the township of Brymbo, as is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green:

“That baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel at Brymbo; and that marriages, churchings, baptisms, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel at Minera; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the respective Ministers of the said chapels:

“That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Saint Asaph has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignments be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the solemnization of marriages, churchings, baptisms, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
