AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the police courts in the metropolis," it was, amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to alter the number of the police courts; and to order such changes to be made of the places in which they should be holden within the Metropolitan Police District as should be found expedient, and every such court should thenceforth be holden in the place in or to which it should be so ordered to be established or removed:

And whereas also by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the powers of justices within the Metropolitan Police District," it was, amongst other things, enacted, "that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute within the Metropolitan Police District so many police court divisions as to her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and, from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such police court divisions, and to assign a division to each of the police courts already established, and to establish a police court for such of the other divisions."

BOW-STREET POLICE COURT.

Her Majesty, therefore, is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the space included within the following boundary, the same being within the Metropolitan Police District (that is to say), from the boundary of the city of London, at the Temple-stairs, on the river Thames, in a line running along the said boundary as far as Holborn-hill; thence westward along Holborn, including both sides thereof to King-street; thence northward along the centre thereof, and of Southampton-row and Woburn-place to the New-road; thence westward along the centre thereof to Tottenham-court-road; thence southward along the centre thereof, and of High-street, Great and Little Saint Andrew-streets, and Saint Martin's-lane to Trafalgar-square; thence westward, including the said square, to Pall-mall, and along the centre thereof, and of Cleveland-row to the boundary of the Green-park; thence along the boundary thereof, and of Saint James's-park (including Buckingham Palace and grounds) to Storey's-gate; thence along the centre of Great George-street and Bridge-street to the river Thames, on the north side of Westminster-bridge; and thence along the said river to the Temple-stairs aforesaid, shall, from and after the twentieth day of December instant, constitute a police court division, and be assigned to the police court called Bow-street Police Court.
