TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1844.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December 1844,

PRESENT;

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for relieving the present canons of the cathedral church of Peterborough from the performance of additional duty by reason of the suspension of canonries in the said cathedral church.

"Whereas it was, by the said Act, enacted, that, out of the proceeds of the suspended canonries in any chapter, provision might, from time to time, be made by the authority therein provided; for relieving the then existing canons of such Chapter from the performance of any additional duty by reason of such suspension, by the employment of substitutes to be approved by the respective bishops:

"And whereas application has been made to us by the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Peterborough to make provision for a substitute or substitutes, to be employed and approved according to the said Act, to perform the duties which, by reason of the present suspension of one canonry, and the future suspension of one other canonry, in the said church, would otherwise be imposed upon the remaining canons:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the said Dean and Chapter be empowered, from time to time, to appoint a substitute of substitutes, to be approved by the Bishop of Peterborough for the time being, to perform the duties of a canon in residence, for such calendar month or months in this present and each succeeding year, as shall remain unprovided for after the periods of statutable and customary residence by all the existing canons shall have been fixed.

"And we further recommend and propose, that, until the said Chapter shall consist exclusively of canons to be appointed after the passing of the said recited Act, it shall be lawful for the treasurer or other officer, for the time being, of the said Dean and Chapter to retain, out of the moneys payable to us as such proceeds as aforesaid, in each year, the sum of fifty pounds for every calendar month to be so provided for as aforesaid, and to pay the same to the person or persons so appointed and approved, in such proportions, if more than one person, as shall be equal to the period of residence and duty by each of them actually kept and performed.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting

"the office of county coroner," it is enacted, that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county, that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it should be lawful for the said justices, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve, that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof should be given to the coroner or coroners of such county as thereafter provided:

And it is thereby further enacted, that the clerk of the peace should give notice of any such resolution to every coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition would be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices should confer with every such coroner who should attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose, touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and such other circumstances as should appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of that Act, and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, should be certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition should be agreed to, and the clerk of the peace for such county should forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every coroner for such county:

And it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration every such petition, and also any petition which might be presented to her by any coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it should seem fit to Her Majesty, to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorising the election of an additional coroner above the number of those who had been customarily elected to such county, to order that such county should be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of that Act as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the court for the election of coroner for such district should be holden as thereafter provided, and every such order should be published in the London Gazette: and whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Montgomery, assembled in quarter sessions on the seventeenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, did resolve, that an humble petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying for such division or alteration as thereafter mentioned, and did adjourn the further consideration thereof until an adjourned quarter sessions, holden on the twenty-sixth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-four: and whereas the said justices did, on the thirty-first day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, present their petition to Her Majesty, representing that heretofore two coroners have been elected for the county of Montgomery, and that the county has been customarily divided into two districts, for the purpose of holding inquests during the space of seven years before the passing of an Act of Parliament, in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of county coroner:"

Within which, Charles Milward Dovaston Humphreys, Esq. customarily acted as coroner:

That the said Charles Milward Dovaston Humphreys is now lately deceased, that is to say, on the thirteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-four:

That Her Majesty's justices, being desirous of removing the difficulties and the inconveniences hitherto felt in holding inquests within the said larger district, by availing themselves of the aforesaid Act, and being assembled in quarter sessions on the seventeenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, did resolve, that an humble petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that Her Majesty would be graciously pleased to direct that the county of Montgomery be divided into three districts, for the purposes of the aforesaid Act; and that the further consideration of the said petition should be adjourned to the twenty-sixth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-four (to which day the said quarter sessions were also adjourned):

That, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, the clerk of the peace, by the direction of the court, caused a notice to be served on the said

Hugh Lloyd, Esq. coroner of the said lesser district of the county, on the twenty-second day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, a copy of which is here inserted:

"To Hugh Lloyd, Esq. one of the coroners of the county of Montgomery:

"I, the undersigned, Joseph Jones, clerk of the peace for the county of Montgomery, do hereby give you notice, that at the last quarter sessions held for this county, on the seventeenth day of the present month of October, the justices at that sessions resolved, that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that the county of Montgomery may be divided into three districts, for the purposes of the Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, 'to amend the laws respecting the office of county coroner;' and that the said petition will be taken into further consideration by the justices of the county, at an adjourned quarter sessions to be held at the Town-hall, in Welshpool, on Saturday the twenty-sixth day of the present month of October, at the hour of two in the afternoon, at which time and place your attendance is required. Dated this nineteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-four. Joseph Jones."

That the said notices, together with the said coroner's acknowledgement of the same, were duly laid before the said Court, at the said adjourned sessions, holden on the said twenty-sixth day of October:

That at the said adjourned sessions Her Majesty's justices took the matter into their further consideration, and having carefully examined the districts heretofore customarily made in the said county, and having regard to the inconveniences of holding inquests within the larger districts thereof, did resolve:

That it would be advisable and expedient that the county of Montgomery should be divided into three districts; and therefore praying that Her Majesty would be graciously pleased to direct that the said county be divided into three districts, for the purposes of the said Act:

That the lesser of the districts, customarily used, as aforesaid, for the space of seven years before the passing of the said Act, within which the said Hugh Lloyd, Esq. has acted as coroner, be constituted a district, for the purposes of the said Act, by the name of "The Machynlleth District," and be assigned to the said Hugh Lloyd, Esq. and that the place of election of coroner for the said district be at Machynlleth:

That the said district be styled, the "Newtown District," and that the place of election of a coroner within the said district be at Newtown:

That the other of the said districts comprise the hundreds of Course, with a population of 2322
 Deuther 2426
 Llanfyllin 8188
 Mathrafal (except Caercinion feechn) 6117
 Pool borough 6185
 Pool hundred 3729

Making a total of ... 28967

Whereof the population is principally agricultural:

That this district be styled, the "Welshpool District," and that the place of election of a coroner within the said district be Welshpool:

They also humbly submitted to Her Majesty, that the means of communication within the said districts of Newtown and Welshpool are easy and convenient to their respective inhabitants; and they further humbly submitted to Her Majesty the proposed districts as coroners' districts, having adapted the ancient boundaries of hundreds as being well known boundaries, and usually adhered to in discharging the public business of the county:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that such county shall be divided into three districts for the purposes of the said Act, to be called by the several and respective names following, that is to say, "the Machynlleth District," "the Newtown District," and "the Welshpool District;" and it is hereby further declared, ordered, directed, and determined, that the courts to be holden for the purpose of the election of any coroner, if any one or more of the said districts, respectively, when and as the same shall become necessary under the provisions of the said recited Act, shall be as follows, that is to say, for the Machynlleth district at Machynlleth, for the Newtown district at Newtown, and for the Welshpool district at Welshpool; and it is hereby further declared, ordered, and directed, that this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.
