Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1845.

At the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December 1844.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division, in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare, that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division, into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Northumberland, at a general quarter sessions of the peace, holden at Alnwick, in and for the said county, on the sixteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Belford, situate within the said northern division, may be a polling place for that division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said place named in the said petition, namely, the town of Belford, shall be a polling place for the northern division of the said county of Northumberland; and, further, that the justices of the peace for the said county of Northumberland, assembled at the general quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said northern division of the said county of Northumberland into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

JAS. TAYLER, Witness.
WM. F. KIRKLAND, Witness.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Child versus Downes, with the approbation of Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Saracen's Head Inn, at Chelmsford, in the county of Essex, on Friday the 31st day of January 1845, at three of the clock in the afternoon;

A freehold and part copyhold estate, consisting of an excellent corn farm, containing about 190 acres of sound arable and pasture land, with commodious homesteads, and several cottages, situate in the parishes of Barnston, Dunmow, and Great Waltham, in the county of Essex, late the property of Mr. Richard Barnard and Francis Hay Child, Esq. both deceased.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Mr. Robert Bartlett, Solicitor, Chelmsford; of Mr. Thomas Wright Nelson, Solicitor, 62, Cheapside, London; of Messrs. Baker and Son, Auctioneers, Writtle and Chelmsford; and at the place of sale.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Woodrooffe against Cox, the creditors of Jane Woodrooffe, late of Brunswick-place North, Brighton, in the county of Sussex, Widow (who died in the month of February 1842), are, on or before the 10th day of February 1845, to come in and prove their debts before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

GEORGE MATTHAMS' Assignment.

NOTICE is hereby given, that George Matthams, of the Green Man Public-house, in the parish of Great Waltham, in the county of Essex, Innkeeper, by an indenture, dated the 7th day of January 1845, assigned all his personal estate, credits, and effects whatsoever unto John Robinson, of the parish of Great Waltham aforesaid, Farmer, and George Porter and Edward Butler (carrying on business by the style and firm of Messrs. Porter and Butler), of Chelmsford, in the county of Essex. Wine and Spirit Merchants, as trustees, upon trust, for the benefit of themselves and all other the creditors of the said George Matthams who should execute the said deed within two calendar months from the date thereof; and that the said deed was executed by the said George Matthams, John Robinson, George Porter, and Edward Butler, respectively, on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and the execution thereof by the said George Matthams, John Robinson, George Porter, and Edward Butler, was at the same time attested by, George John Durrant, of Chelmsford aforesaid, Solicitor; and the said indenture of assignment now lies at my office for execution by the creditors of the said George Matthams; and all debtors to the estate of the said George Matthams are requested to pay forthwith the amount of their debts to the said trustees, any or either of them, or to the undersigned.—Dated this 7th day of January 1845.

GEORGE JOHN DURRANT, Solicitor to the said Trustees.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Robert Storr, of Grantham, in the county of Lincoln, Printer, hath by indenture, bearing date the 31st day of December last, conveyed all his real estate, and assigned all his personal estate and effects unto John Rippin, of Little Gonerby, in the parish of Grantham aforesaid, Gentleman, and George Kewney, of Grantham aforesaid, Gentleman, in the manner and upon the trusts therein mentioned, for the equal benefit of such of the creditors of the said Robert Storr as should execute the same indenture on or before the 1st day of March then next ensuing; which said indenture was duly executed by the said Robert Storr, John Rippin, and George Kewney, on the day of the date thereof, and is attested by Robert Azlack White, of Grantham aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and John Marshall, Clerk to Messrs. White, Kewney, and White; and the said indenture now lies at the office of the said Messrs. White, Kewney, and White, in Grantham aforesaid, for the inspection of and execution by the creditors of the said Robert Storr; and such of them as do not execute the same, within the space or time aforesaid, will be excluded all benefit arising therefrom.—Grantham, 7th January 1845.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Fox, late of Gwersyllt, in the parish of Gresford, in the county of Denbigh, Iron Master, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignee of his estate and effects, on Tuesday the 4th day of February 1845, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the Wynnstay Arms Hotel, in the town of Wrexham, in the said county of Denbigh, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee defending a certain action commenced against him for the recovery of certain rent claimed in respect of certain premises lately occupied by the said bankrupt, and, in case it may be considered expedient to defend the same, to guarantee and indemnify the said assignee from all costs or other liability in respect of the said action, which the net estate of the said bankrupt may not be found sufficient to pay; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Hugh Daniel Watkins and James Innes, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Lead Merchants and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, at the offices of Mr. Goulden, Solicitor, Savings' Bank-buildings, King-street, in Manchester aforesaid, on Monday the 3d day of February next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of either, wholly or partly, by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, the whole or any part or parts of the real leasehold and personal estate of the said bankrupts, or any equity of redemption therein, and either together or in parcels, at one time and place, or at several times and places, and either wholly or partly for ready money or on credit, to any person or persons; and in case of any sale or sales upon credit, to the same being made at the entire risk of the said bankrupts' estate, without the said assignees taking any security for the purchase money, or any part thereof, and without their being answerable for any loss to arise thereby; and also to the said assignees buying in at any public sale or sales, at the risk of the said bankrupts' estate, as they may think proper, and reselling the same without being answerable for any loss which may occur thereby; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees postponing any such sale or sales as they may think proper, and setting and letting, or concurring with any mortgagee in setting and letting, all or any part of the real or leasehold estate of the said bankrupts, upon such terms, and in such manner, as to the said assignees shall seem most advantageous; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees settling and adjusting with any mortgagee or mortgagees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, legal or equitable, the amount due to such mortgagee or mortgagees, and to the said assignees concurring with any such mortgagees in any sale of such estate and effects in like manner, and with like authorities as aforesaid; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and keeping down, out of the said bankrupts' estate, the interest upon such mortgages; also to or from the assignees releasing, assigning, and conveying to any such mortgagees, upon such terms as they may think best, the equity of redemption in all or any part of the mortgaged premises who may be desirous of becoming the purchaser thereof; also to sanction, allow, and confirm any sale or sales by the said assignees to the said bankrupts, or either of them, made or to be made by private treaty, or upon a valuation to be taken thereof, and for ready money or upon credit, and with or without security, as the assignees may think proper, of the household furniture of the said bankrupts, or either of them, without the said assignees becoming liable for any loss which may happen thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding any debt or debts owing to the said bankrupts' estate, and taking any less sum in discharge than the full amount thereof; and referring to arbitration any dispute or difference which may arise between them and any person or persons, relating to the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending all such actions and other proceedings, at law or in equity, which may be, or which they may deem necessary, for the protection, getting in, or defending the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them, or any part thereof; and to sanction and confirm the proceedings of the said assignees, and generally to authorize and empower them to take such other steps or proceedings in the management and winding up of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, as to the said assignees may seem expedient and proper; and on other special affairs.

Declaration of Dividend under a Fiat, dated 28th October 1842, against William Hopper, of Great Queen-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the parish of Saint Giles in the Fields, in the county of Middlesex. Carpet Warehouseman.
