

hereby ordered, that the same be taken into consideration, by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on Monday the tenth day of March next.

C. C. Greville.

[The following Order in Council is substituted for the Order in Council, of the same date, published in the Gazette of the 31st December 1844.]

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the cathedral churches of Wales," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for dividing and re-arranging the rural deanries within the archdeaconry of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas, by the first recited Act, it is enacted, that in any case in which it shall appear upon the representation of the bishop of the diocese to be proper to divide any archdeaconry or rural deanry on account of the magnitude thereof, or of any other peculiar circumstances connected therewith, such archdeaconry or rural deanry may, by the authority therein provided, be divided into two or more portions, and each of such portions may be constituted a separate archdeaconry or rural deanry, as the case may be, and a district assigned thereto; provided always, that no such division shall be made without the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal :

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend William Bishop of Saint Asaph, that the rural deanries of Marchia, Rhos, Tegengle, and Bromfield, comprising the whole of the said archdeaconry of Saint Asaph, are now inconveniently large, and it appears to the said bishop and to us to be expedient and proper that such deanries should be divided as hereinafter mentioned :

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said William Bishop of Saint Asaph, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that each of the said rural deanries of Marchia, Rhos, Tegengle, and Bromfield (upon the next avoidance thereof respectively, or at any previous time, upon the consent in writing of the rural deans thereof respectively, such consent to be published in the London Gazette, and to take effect on the fourteenth day next after such publication, unless such avoidance as aforesaid shall sooner happen) shall be divided into the several portions mentioned and set forth and set under the names of such deanries respectively in the schedule hereunto annexed, and that each of such portions shall be constituted a new rural deanry, and that such new rural deanries shall be named as the same are respectively named in the said schedule, and that each of such newly constituted deanries shall respectively consist of and contain the several parishes, districts, and churches mentioned and set forth and set against and under the name of each of such newly constituted deanries as the same are respectively set forth in the said schedule.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure,
