

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches," beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Chiswick, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church or chapel, called Christ Church, at Turnham-green, in the said parish, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Christ Church," and should consist of the north western part of the parish of Chiswick, with boundaries as follow :

"The district is bounded on the north and north west by the parishes of Acton and Ealing; on the south west by the river Thames; and on the south and east by the remaining part of the parish of Chiswick, from which it is separated by an imaginary line, proceeding from the river Thames in a south easterly direction, along the middle of the lane leading to Furzedown-place; it then turns north easterly, up the middle of the lane, and, passing Furzedown-place, proceeds in a straight line into the road from Sutton, up the middle of which road it proceeds in a northerly direction as far as the foot-path leading from Sutton to Chiswick, by the side of the Horticultural-gardens, and proceeding in an easterly direction, along that path, till it enters the Duke of Devon-shire's private road, along the middle of which road it proceeds northerly, and enters the London road; it then turns eastwardly along the middle of the London-road as far as Fisher's-lane, up the middle of which lane it proceeds northerly to the point where the boundary of Chiswick and Acton parishes meet, as more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow:

"That banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized and performed in the said church called Christ Church; and that burials should also be performed, when a proper burial ground has been provided; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the present Vicar of Chiswick, during his incumbency of the vicarage of Chiswick; but, from and after his avoidance of the said vicarage, the said fees should be received by and belong to the Minister of the said church called Christ Church.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Charles James Lord Bishop of London has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.
