A 2

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 26th day of April 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend "and render more effectual an Act, passed in the "last session of Parliament, for building, and "promoting the building, of additional churches "in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An "Act for building, and promoting the building, of "additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional "churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, "for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for "building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Westbury, in the county of Wilts and diocese of Salisbury, it appears to them to be expedient, that particular districts should be assigned to the consecrated churches of Saint James at Bratton, and of the Holy Trinity at Dilton-marsh, both situate in the said parish, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual "an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, "for building, and promoting the building, of "additional churches in populous parishes;"

and that such districts should be named, respectively, "The Chapelry District of Bratton," and "The Chapelry District of Dilton's-marsh:"

"That the chapelry district of Bratton should consist of the easternmost part of the parish of Westbury, and be bounded, on the north, by the parish of Steeple Ashton; on the north east, east, and south east, by the parish of Edington; on the south by the parish of Bishopstrow; on the south west by the parish of Warminster; and on the west by the remaining part of the parish of Westbury, from which it is separated by the well known boundaries of the chapelry of Bratton, as shewn on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow:

"That the chapelry district of Dilton's-marsh should consist of the south westernmost part of the parish of Westbury, and be bounded, on the north, by the parish of North Bradley; on the north west by the parish of Beckington; on the west by the parishes of Standerwick and Berkley; on the south and south east by the parish of Upton Scudamore; and on the east and north east by the remaining part of the parish of Westbury, from which it is divided by an imaginary line proceeding along the turnpike road from Frome, between Charlot-house and Golden-grove, in a north easterly direction, as far as the bridge at Westbury Leigh; the boundary then proceeds, northerly, along the rivulet as far as Penleigh; and from thence, in a north westerly direction, along the middle of the road to Beckington, till it enters the parish of North Bradley, as shewn on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green:

"That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said two churches at Bratton and Dilton's-marsh aforesaid; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Ministers of such churches:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Lord Bishop of Salisbury has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Edward Lord Bishop of Salisbury has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignments be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.
