TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 1845.

Cambridge-House, June 23, 1845.

HIS Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge has been pleased to appoint the Reverend William Collett, B.A. to be one of His Chaplains in Ordinary.

Whitehall, June 18, 1845.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of John late Baron Carbery, of Carbery, in the county of Cork, in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland (which happened on or about the 12th day of May last), the title and dignity of Baron Carbery devolved upon George-Patrick now Baron Carbery, eldest son and heir of the late Percy Evans-Freke, Esq. whilst living the next brother of the said John late Baron Carbery, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the younger brothers and sister of the said George-Patrick now Baron Carbery cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their late father, the said Percy Evans-Freke, had survived his elder brother, the said John Baron Carbery, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Carbery, Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that Percy-Augustus Evans-Freke, a Lieutenant and Captain in the Grenadier Guards, Fenton-John Evans-Freke, a Captain in the 2d Regiment of Life Guards, William-Charles Evans-Freke, of Glaston-house, in the county of Rutland, Esq. and Jane-Grace-Dorothea, wife of the Reverend Charles-Brodrick Barnard, commonly called the Honourable and Reverend Charles Brodrick Barnard, younger sons and daughter of the said Percy Evans-Freke, and brothers and sister of the said George-Patrick now Baron Carbery, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same titles, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father, the said Percy Evans-Freke, had survived his brother, John late Baron Carbery, and had thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Baron Carbery:

And Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 23, 1845.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Sir Edward Chetham, of Forton-lodge, near Gosport, in the county of Southampton, Knt. Rear Admiral of the Blue Squadron of Her Majesty's Fleet, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, fourth but now eldest surviving son and heir of Thomas Chetham, formerly of Mellor-hall, in the county of Derby, and late of Russell-place, in the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. by Anne his wife, who was the youngest daughter of Edward Strode, of Southill-house, in the parish of West Cranmere, in the county of Somerset, Esq. formerly a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army, and sister of John Strode, late of Southill-house aforesaid, Esq. a Lieutenant Colonel in the Somerset Militia, all deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of his said maternal uncle, John Strode, take and henceforth use the surname of Strode, in addition to and after that of Chetham, and also bear the arms of Strode, quarterly with those of Chetham; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

MARINE BARRACK CANTEEN AT CHATHAM.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, June 18, 1845.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, on Friday the 27th instant, at one o'clock, the Canteen in the above Barrack will be let, from the 30th of June instant, to the 1st of January 1847, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

No person but of unexceptionable character, or who will not undertake, bonâ fide, to reside in or occupy the Canteen, and conduct the business thereof in his own person, will be approved; and two sureties will be required for the regular payment of the rent, and of all sums which may become due in respect to the said Canteen, and for the due performance of the several conditions and stipulations of the indenture of lease. The Revenue or other licences to be paid by the tenant.

The person whose proposal shall be accepted and his sureties must execute an indenture of lease and covenants relating thereto, the particulars whereof may be known by applying to this Office, or to the Barrack-Master at Chatham.

The Christian and surnames of two respectable persons, with their professions and places of abode, who will join the tenant in executing the indenture of lease as his sureties, must be inserted in the proposals. The tenant is to pay half the value of the stamps on the indenture of lease upon executing the same; and it is to be understood, that the said Commissioners will not undertake to procure the tenant a licence.

A printed form of the tender and conditions may be had at this Office, or on application to the said Barrack-Master. No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

As the person becoming tenant of the Canteen will be bound to the strict performance of the covenants of the indenture of lease, and to the full payment of the rent and privilege of sale to the troops, without any remission or reduction under any circumstances whatever, he is hereby cautioned to make himself fully acquainted with the conditions of letting, prior to his making a proposal.

The rent of the Canteen as a tenement or dwelling is to be proposed at the sum stated below, therefore the biddings will be upon what is offered for every ten men per month, exclusive of sergeants, occupying the barrack, the number being ascertained from the Barrack-Master's Returns, made up at twelve o'clock at noon on the first day of every month, and no changes in the occupation of the barrack which may take place in the progress of the month, either for or against the tenant, will be taken into account. No less number than ten will be charged against the tenant, nor will any odd number be calculated; thus, if the barrack should be occupied by 148 men on the first day of the month, only 140 will be calculated for that month. The bidders are also desired to introduce no fractional parts of a penny in their offers, as they will not be noticed, nor will any tenders be noticed except such as are strictly according to the form furnished.
