THE following Address of Congratulation to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, on the occasion of the Birth of a second Prince, having been transmitted for presentation, the same was presented accordingly; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of Glamorgan, at a County Meeting convened for this purpose, respectfully desire to express to your Royal Highness our cordial congratulations on the birth of a second Prince to the Throne of these realms.

We view, with peculiar interest, this accession to the Royal House as another pledge for the long continuance among us of a race illustrious in itself, and rendered dear to us all by the practice of every public and every private virtue.
