TO

The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY the 19th of AUGUST.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1845.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of

"Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for further endowing the University of Durham.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided, such arrangements should be made with respect to the deanery and canonries in the cathedral church of Durham, and their revenues, as upon due inquiry and consideration of an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the dean and chapter of Durham to appropriate part of the property of their church to the establishment of an university in connexion therewith, for the advancement of learning;" and of the engagements entered into by William, late bishop of Durham, and the dean and chapter of Durham, should be determined on, with a view to maintaining the said university in a state of respectability and efficiency :

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fourth day of June, in year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and ratifying a scheme, prepared by us, it was ordered, among other things, that there should be founded, in the said university of Durham, eighteen fellowships, in addition to the six fellowships already founded therein by acts of the said dean and chapter, making twenty-four such fellowships in the whole; and that of the said eighteen fellowships, two should be founded on the twenty ninth day of September in the then present year, and the same number of fellowships on the like day in every succeeding year, until the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, inclusive, and that there should be paid to each of such twenty-four fellows the annual sum of one hundred and twenty pounds:

“ And it was by the same Order further ordered, that towards providing the fund for making such payment, and other payments therein mentioned or referred to, all the estate and interest then vested in us in all the lands, tenements and hereditaments formerly assigned to the dean of the said cathedral church and to the canon of the eleventh canonry founded therein (excepting certain tithes in the same Order specified) should be transferred to and vested in the warden, masters, and scholars of the said university; and that whenever it should be made to appear to us, by the said warden, masters and scholars, that, by reason of the foundation of such additional fellowships in successive years as aforesaid, the proceeds annually accruing to them from the said lands, tenements and hereditaments would be insufficient for defraying all the stipends, salaries and other payments charged thereon, we might propose the granting of such additional endowment to the said university as might thereupon appear to be necessary for making up this deficiency, either by transferring the estate and interest in any lands, tenements or hereditaments then belonging to any of the canonries in the said church which might have become vested in us, or by payments to be made by us out of any monies accruing to us by reason of the suspension of any such canonries:

“ And whereas it has been made to appear to us by the said warden, masters and scholars of the said university that, by such reason as aforesaid, the proceeds annually accruing to them from the lands, tenements and hereditaments so vested in them are insufficient, by the amount of ninety-

two pounds three shillings, to defray the payments charged thereon, for the current year, and that a further sum of two hundred and forty pounds will be required to make up the growing deficiency in each and every ensuing year, until the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine inclusive:

“ And whereas there remain to us certain annual proceeds, arising from the tithes so excepted as aforesaid, fully sufficient for the purposes hereinafter mentioned; now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that, in order to supply such deficiency as aforesaid, and until further and other arrangements for endowing the said university shall have been recommended and proposed by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, there shall be paid by us to the said warden, masters and scholars, in respect of such proceeds of tithes as aforesaid, on the twenty-ninth day of September next, the sum of ninety-two pounds three shillings; and on the like day in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six the sum of three hundred and thirty-two pounds three shillings; and on the like day in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven the sum of five hundred and seventy-two pounds three shillings; and on the like day in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight the sum of eight hundred and twelve pounds three shillings; and on the like day in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine the sum of one thousand and fifty-two pounds three shillings; and that until such further arrangements as aforesaid shall be made, such sum of one thousand and fifty-two pounds three shillings shall continue to be paid by us on the said twenty-ninth day of September in every successive year; provided always, that the said warden, masters and scholars shall not be entitled to receive such several additional payments as aforesaid, or any or either of the same, unless the several additional fellowships in the said recited Order mentioned shall be duly founded in the respective successive years, in conformity with the provisions of the said Order.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Shelton, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council, that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided :

"And whereas the said parish of Shelton is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter-mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Shelton, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, " The District of Hope."

" And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

" The district of HOPE, being—

" All that part of the parish of Shelton, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield, bounded on the north west, by the parish of Burslem and the district of Etruria, in the same county and diocese, on the east, by the township of Hanley, in the same county and diocese, and on the south, by an imaginary line extending eastward from Boothen-brook, along the middle of Mill-street, in the town of Shelton, as far as the middle of Marsh-street, and thence southward, along the middle of such last-mentioned street, to a point (marked a on the map or plan herewith) opposite to the middle of Brunswick-street, and thence eastward, along the middle of such last-mentioned street, as far as the boundary of the said township of Hanley."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbent and patron have respectively consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided:

"And whereas the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular parts of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described, neither of which parts at present contains within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be respectively constituted separate districts in manner hereinafter set forth:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all those parts of the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered, respectively, 1. and 2.,—all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, respectively, are delineated and set forth in the maps or plans hereunto also annexed, and respectively numbered in like manner,—shall be constituted separate districts for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be respectively named as follows; that is to say, the district numbered 1. in the said schedule shall be named, "The District of Northwood;" and the district numbered 2. therein shall be named, "The District of Wellington."

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorising the sale of certain property, lately belonging to the Precentor of the cathedral church of Wells, but now vested in us.

" Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, and other hereditaments, vested in us under certain acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter specified is so vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments, duly executed according to law ; provided always, that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments as aforesaid, be sold or conveyed except by a scheme prepared by us and laid before your Majesty in Council, and an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same :

" And whereas the tenement and premises described in the schedule hereto annexed (and which schedule we recommend and propose shall be deemed to be part of this scheme) formed a portion of the property and endowment of the office of precentor, otherwise called chaunter, of the said cathedral church of Wells, and is now vested in us by reason of the vacancy of the said office :

" And whereas we have contracted and agreed with Peter Lewis Parfitt, of Wells aforesaid, Clerk, for the sale to him, at or for the price or sum of two hundred and seventy pounds, of the said tenement and premises, subject nevertheless to the determination of a certain subsisting lease for lives :

" We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorised to sell and duly convey to the said Peter Lewis Parfitt, or as he shall direct or appoint, at and for the said price or sum of two hundred and seventy pounds, all our estate and interest in the said tenement and premises, according to the provisions of the said recited Act.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and

Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners " of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to regulate " the cathedral churches of Wales," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An " Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners " of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to regulate " the cathedral churches of Wales," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting the parish of Whitchurch, in the diocese of Llandaff, a perpetual curacy, and for endowing the church thereof.

" Whereas the rectorial tithes of the parishes of Llandaff and Whitchurch, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the said diocese of Llandaff, have heretofore been held and enjoyed in certain proportions by members of the chapter of the cathedral church of Llandaff; and the vicarial tithes of the said parishes form part of the corporate property of the said chapter; and the said chapter are charged with the cure of souls in and over the said parishes, but the spiritual duties thereof have heretofore been and now are performed by and between the two vicars choral, or minor canons, for the time being, of the said cathedral church, as curates of the said chapter :

And whereas it hath for a long series of years been the usage of the said chapter to appropriate the whole of the said vicarial tithes of both the said parishes to the senior of such vicars choral, or minor canons, as a remuneration for his whole duties, including his share of the said parochial duties; and to pay to the junior of such vicars choral, as his sole remuneration for the like duties, an annual stipend, now amounting to the sum of sixty-nine pounds six shillings and eight pence :

And whereas the Reverend Evan Price Thomas was, on the sixteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, appointed, and now is, the junior vicar choral or minor canon of the said cathedral church, and as such has performed, and now performs, such his share of the spiritual duties aforesaid :

And whereas by the secondly recited Act it is enacted, that it shall be lawful, if deemed expedient, by the authority therein mentioned, with the consent of the bishop of Llandaff for the time being, to declare and provide that the cure of souls in and over the respective parishes of Llandaff and Whitchurch, or either of them, shall be vested in one spiritual person as perpetual incumbent thereof, and that such bishop and his successors shall, from time to time, collate or nominate and licence, as the case may be, a spiritual person to be such incumbent; and also, with the like consent, and with the consent of the dean and chapter, to endow such parishes, or either of them, in such manner, and to such amount, as may appear expedient :

And whereas it appears to us and to the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Llandaff, to be expedient to carry into effect forthwith, with respect to the said parish of Whitchurch, so much of the last recited provision as can at present be effected consistently with the circumstances of the case, and the said bishop has expressed his intention to licence the said Evan Price Thomas to the said parish and church of Whitchurch, so soon as it shall have been established as a separate incumbency and endowed in manner hereinafter mentioned :

Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Edward Bishop of Llandaff, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, and also with the consent of the said dean and chapter of Llandaff, in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common or chapter seal, that, upon the first day of May next, the said parish of Whitchurch, and the church thereof, shall become and be a perpetual curacy, to all intents and purposes; and the cure of souls in and over the same parish shall be transferred from the said dean and chapter, and shall become and be vested in such one spiritual person as may, from time to time, be licenced to such perpetual curacy by the bishop of Llandaff for the time being, and every person so licenced shall become perpetual curate of Whitchurch aforesaid, to all intents and purposes; and that, until, upon the vacancy of the said senior vicarship choral or minor canonry, an arrangement shall have been made for the better endowment of such perpetual curacy, there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said firstly recited Act mentioned, to the perpetual curate thereof for the time being, the annual sum of eighty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, and that on the first day of May next there shall be payable three half-yearly payments of the sum last aforesaid; and that whenever a vacancy in the said perpetual curacy shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the next half-yearly payment shall be duly apportioned and paid between and to the perpetual curate making the vacancy or his representatives, and the succeeding perpetual curate.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the right of licensing a perpetual curate to the said perpetual curacy of Whitchurch shall be vested in and belong to the said Edward Bishop of Llandaff and his successors bishops of Llandaff for ever.

“ And we recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect the annual stipend so as aforesaid paid to the junior vicar choral of the said cathedral church, or pre-went us from recommending and proposing any other or further measure relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorising the sale of an episcopal house of residence belonging to the Bishop of Rochester.

"Whereas by the said recited Act it is enacted, that whenever it shall appear to be expedient to relieve any bishop, having more episcopal houses of residence than one, from any of such houses, it shall be lawful, with the consent, under the hand and episcopal seal of the bishop, to make such arrangements as may, by the authority hereinafter mentioned, be deemed most expedient for selling and conveying to such person, and for such consideration as may be approved by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, any episcopal house of residence then belonging to the see of such bishop; provided, always, that in any scheme which should be laid before your Majesty in Council by us under the said Act, recommending any arrangement for selling any episcopal residence, the grounds and reasons upon which we shall deem it expedient to offer such recommendation shall be particularly set forth:

"And whereas, in addition to the episcopal house of residence at Bromley, in the county of Kent, now and for many years past occupied by the bishop of Rochester for the time being, there is in the city of Rochester a certain house and premises belonging to the said see of Rochester, called the "Palace," but which is totally unfit, by reason of its small size, for an episcopal house of residence, and, by reason of the age thereof, is in need of frequent and considerable repairs:

"And whereas an offer for the purchase of the said house and premises, at the price of one thousand pounds, has been made by Robert Whiston, of Rochester aforesaid, Clerk, and that sum has been estimated by our surveyor to be the full value of the said house and premises:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Bishop of Rochester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the said bishop or his successors may be authorised and empowered to sell for such price or sum as aforesaid, and duly to convey to the said Robert Whiston, his heirs and assigns, all the right, title, and interest of him the said bishop and his successors, bishops of Rochester, in and to the said house and premises and every part thereof, and that the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the Bank of England to our credit, to an account intituled "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and shall be by us applied towards the permanent benefit of the said see of Rochester, in such manner as shall be hereafter recommended by us and approved by your Majesty in Council;

and that it shall not be incumbent on the purchaser taking such conveyance as aforesaid, after paying his purchase money to our credit as aforesaid, to look to the due application of such money.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one-thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect certain alterations in the several dioceses of Canterbury, London, Winchester, Chichester, Lincoln, and Rochester; and for providing a competent income and a fit house of residence for the Bishops of Rochester.

“ Whereas it was by the said first-recited Act provided, that the diocese of Canterbury should consist of the county of Kent (except the city and deanry of Rochester, and the parishes in the same Act and hereinafter proposed to be included in the diocese of London), and of the parishes of Croydon and Addington, and of the district of Lambeth Palace, in the county of Surrey; and that the diocese of London should consist of the city of London and of the county of Middlesex, and of certain parishes in the county of Essex, all in the present diocese of London, of certain other parishes in the counties of Kent and Surrey, then and now in the diocese of Rochester, of the borough of Southwark, and of certain other parishes in the said county of Surrey, then and now in the diocese of Winchester, and of certain other parishes in the same county, then and now in the peculiar jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, all which several parishes are in the same Act, and hereinafter particularly named, together with all extra-parochial places locally situate within the limits of such several parishes, except the aforesaid district of Lambeth Palace; and that the diocese of Rochester should consist of the city and deanry of Rochester; of the county of Essex (except the parishes so as aforesaid proposed to be left in the diocese of London), and of the whole county of Hertford; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes and districts; and that a fit residence should be provided for the Bishops of Rochester, and that for that purpose sanction should be given for the purchase of houses or lands, or for the sale of lands belonging to the see; and that archidiaconal power should be given to the Dean of Rochester within that part of Kent which would remain in the diocese of Rochester, and that the limits of the other existing deanries and archdeacons should be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra-parochial place should be within a rural deanry, and every such deanry within an archdeaconry, and that no archdeaconry should extend beyond the limits of one diocese; and that all the archdeacons of England should be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate; and that it should be competent to us to propose, in any scheme prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council under the provisions of the same Act, that all parishes, churches, or chapelries locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same were locally situate, should be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which the same were locally situate:

and shall (except the several parishes and places hereinafter proposed to be transferred to the diocese of London) be included in and form part of the said diocese of Canterbury, and, until further or other Order of your Majesty in Council, be included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Maidstone; and the several parishes of Charlton, Lee, Lewisham, Greenwich, Woolwich, Eltham, Plumstead, and Saint Nicholas Deptford, in the county of Kent, and Saint Paul Deptford, in the counties of Kent and Surrey, all now in the said diocese and archdeaconry of Rochester, and the several parishes of Saint Mary Newington, Barnes, Putney, Mortlake, and Wimbledon, in the said county of Surrey, and in the peculiar jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese of Rochester, and from the said peculiar jurisdiction respectively, and shall be included in and form part of the said diocese of London, and, until further or other Order as aforesaid, be included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Middlesex; and the whole county of Essex now in the said diocese of London (except the parishes of Barking, Great Ilford, East Ham, West Ham, Little Ilford, Low Layton, Walthamstow, Wanstead, Woodford, and Chingford, which ten last-mentioned parishes shall remain in the same diocese, and shall, until further or other Order as aforesaid, be included in and form part of the archdeaconry of London); and the whole county of Hertford, now partly in the same diocese and partly in the said diocese of Lincoln, shall be detached and dis severed from the said two last-mentioned dioceses, and shall be included in and form part of the said diocese of Rochester; and so much and such parts of that portion of the said county of Essex so as aforesaid proposed to be transferred to the said diocese of Rochester, as now form part of the said archdeaconry of Middlesex, shall be detached from the same archdeaconry, and shall, until further or other Order as aforesaid, be included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Colchester so far as applies to the deanry of Heddingham, and in and of the archdeaconry of Essex so far as applies to the deanries of Harlow and Dunmow; and so much and such parts of the said county of Hertford as now form part of the said archdeaconry of Middlesex, and all parishes and places in the same county, over which the jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Huntingdon at present extends, shall be transferred to and included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Saint Albans; and all parishes and places in the county of Buckingham, over which the jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Saint Albans at present extends, shall be transferred to and included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Buckingham; and the parish of Addington, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, shall be detached and dis severed from the same diocese, and shall, together with the parish of Croydon in the same county and in the peculiar jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, be included in and form part of the diocese of Canterbury, and both the said last-mentioned parishes shall be included in and form part of the said archdeaconry of Maidstone; and that, from and after the next avoidance of the see of Winchester, the borough of Southwark, and the parishes of Christchurch Southwark, Battersea, Bermondsey, Camberwell, Clapham, Lambeth, Rotherhithe, Streatham, Tooting Graveney, Wandsworth, and Merton, in the said county of Surrey and diocese of Winchester, shall be detached and dis severed from the same diocese, and shall be included in and form part of the said diocese of London, and, until further or other Order as aforesaid, be included in and form part of the said archdeaconry of Middlesex.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, upon and after the same first day of January, all parishes and places locally situate within the limits of the said several dioceses of Canterbury, London, Winchester, Chichester, Lincoln, and Rochester, and of the several archdeaconries thereof respectively, and all churches and chapels, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects, locally situate within the limits of such parishes and places respectively, shall, notwithstanding any peculiar jurisdiction or exemption from jurisdiction, which any of such parishes, places, churches, chapels, or clergy may now possess or be subject to, or claim to possess or be subject to, be respectively under and subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the bishops of the said several dioceses, and of the archdeacons of the several archdeaconries of such several dioceses, within the limits of which several dioceses and archdeaconries they shall respectively be so locally situate, and to no other ecclesiastical jurisdiction whatsoever; except the cathedral churches of and within the said several dioceses, and the royal residences and the churches or chapels founded therein or annexed thereto, including the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster, which shall respectively be subject to the jurisdiction and visitation, if any, to which they are now, by law respectively subject, and to none other; and, with the like exceptions, all and each of such parishes, places, churches, and chapels, so possessing or being subject to or claiming to possess or be subject to any such peculiar jurisdiction or exemption from jurisdiction, shall severally and respectively be included in and form part of the dioceses and archdeaconries respectively within the limits of which they shall respectively be so locally situate.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the several archdeacons of Essex, Colchester, and Saint Albans shall, upon the same first day of January, be transferred from the said Bishop of London and his successors, and shall be vested in the said Bishop of Rochester and his successors for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, upon the now next avoidance of the archdeaconry of Rochester, the said archdeaconry shall be suppressed, and the canonry in the cathedral church of Rochester annexed thereto shall become and be subject to the provisions respecting the endowment of archdeaconries by the annexation of canonries thereto, contained in an Act, passed in session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act “ to carry into effect, with certain modifications, “ the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;” and the then dean of Rochester, if the deanery of the cathedral church of Rochester shall have become previously vacant, and if otherwise the next succeeding dean of Rochester, and every future dean of Rochester, for the time being, shall have the full and exclusive jurisdiction and authority of an archdeacon, within and over the whole city and deanery of Rochester, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, and the rural dean and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects locally situate within the limits of the said city and deanery.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that if the said archdeaconry of Rochester shall become vacant before the same first day of January, or before a vacancy shall have occurred in the said deanery of the cathedral church of Rochester, it shall be competent to us to recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council some temporary arrangement, respecting the archidiaconal jurisdiction to be exercised within and over the whole of the existing archdeaconry of Rochester,—or within and over such portion thereof as is herein proposed to be, upon and after the same first day of January, transferred to the said diocese of Canterbury and archdeaconry of Maidstone,—or within and over the said city and deanery of Rochester, as the case may be.

“ And whereas it was by the said first-recited Act provided, that, out of the fund accruing from payments to be made to us from the revenues of the larger sees, fixed annual payments should be made by us, in such instances and to such amount as should upon due inquiry and consideration be determined on, so that the average annual income of the bishops of the smaller bishopricks respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds ;

“ And whereas upon due inquiry and consideration we have satisfied ourselves, that the present average annual income of the said see of Rochester does not exceed the sum of one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds ; and the said George Bishop of Rochester has declared to us his intention, not to continue to hold any other preferment besides the bishoprick of Rochester, after the thirty-first day of December next ; and we are of opinion that the average annual income of the bishops of Rochester ought to be five thousand pounds :

“ We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that, from and after the last-mentioned day and upon the said bishop ceasing to hold any other preferment as aforesaid, the average annual income of the bishop of Rochester for the time being shall be raised to the sum of five thousand pounds, as near as may be ; and that to this end there shall be paid by us to the said George Bishop of Rochester, and his successors bishops of Rochester for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of three thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments ; the first of such payment to be made on the first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six ; and that whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Rochester shall happen on any other day than the first day of January or the first day of July, the next half-yearly payment shall be duly apportioned and paid between and to the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the said see :

“ And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes ; and the amount of the demands upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees ; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof : we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year, calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December respectively, it shall appear to us that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sum so payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Rochester for the time being, and from any sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid during such half year, and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and any such other scheme, as the future annual average incomes of the said sees respectively ; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us or by our treasurer to the bishop to be affected thereby within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, such bishop shall have no immediate claim to any greater sum than the residue of such his half-yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year applicable to the purposes aforesaid shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorised and bound to divide the surplus, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been so made, or their representatives, and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

“ And whereas we have, in conjunction with the said George Bishop of Rochester, contracted for the purchase, at and for the price or sum of twenty-four thousand seven hundred pounds, of an estate situate partly in the parish of Danbury and partly in the parish of Sandon, in the county of Essex, with a house, offices, and out-buildings thereon and forming part of the said estate, which will, according to our foregoing recommendations, be within the diocese of Rochester, and will afford a fit and convenient residence for the bishops of the said see: we therefore, further recommend and propose, that the said George Bishop of Rochester, or his successor bishop of Rochester, may be authorised and empowered to purchase and take a conveyance of the said estate to him and his successors bishops of Rochester for ever, at and for the price or sum aforesaid, and that the said amount of purchase money, and also such further sum of money, if any, as may be deemed necessary by us for putting the said house and premises in complete tenantable condition, shall be raised and paid in manner hereinafter mentioned.

And whereas the house of residence heretofore and now occupied by the said bishop of Rochester, in the parish of Bromley, in the said county of Kent, will no longer be situate within the limits of the said diocese of Rochester, and it will therefore be necessary to dispose thereof; and in order to complete the purchase aforesaid, it will be necessary at the same time to dispose of other property belonging to the same see in the same parish;

we therefore further recommend and propose, that the said bishop or his successors may be authorised and empowered, with our consent signified under our common seal in the case of each particular sale, to sell and dispose of, in such manner and for such prices and sums respectively as shall upon due inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, and duly to convey to the purchaser or respective purchasers thereof, all the right, title, and interest of him the said bishop and his successors bishops of Rochester in and to all or any of the manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments belonging to the said see of Rochester, situate within the said parish of Bromley; and that the proceeds of every such sale shall from time to time be paid by each purchaser into the Bank of England, to our credit, to an account intituled “ Account with “ the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” to be by us applied as hereinafter recommended and proposed; and that any such purchaser, taking a conveyance with our consent signified as aforesaid, after paying his purchase money to our credit as aforesaid, shall not be responsible for, or be bound to look to, the due application of such money; and that the proceeds of every such sale shall and may, from time to time, be applied by us, at such times and in such manner as we shall deem expedient, in or towards payment of the purchase money for the estate so contracted for as aforesaid, and of the cost of so putting the house and premises thereon in tenantable condition, and of the costs, charges, and expenses of and attending such purchase and such sales as aforesaid respectively; and that the balance, if any, shall be vested in and applied by us for the purposes, or the deficiency, if any, shall be supplied in some mode conformable with the provisions of the said recited Acts.

“ And whereas by the secondly recited Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful to direct that any house of residence purchased under the provisions thereof or of the therein recited Acts, the Act herein first-recited being one of such Acts, should be insured and kept insured by the bishop for the time being in the occupation thereof, at his own personal charge and expense, in such public office or offices of assurance from loss or damage by fire, and in such sum or sums as might be deemed fit, and that such house should be insured and kept insured accordingly;

and that the receipt for every premium payable for such insurance should be delivered to us within fourteen days after such premium should become due: we therefore further recommend and propose, that the said last-mentioned house and premises shall be insured and kept insured by the said George bishop of Rochester and his successors bishops of Rochester, in the sum of ten thousand pounds, from loss or damage by fire, in the Sun Fire Office; and that the receipt for every premium payable for such insurance shall be delivered to us, through the hands of our treasurer for the time being, within fourteen days next after such premium shall have become due.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing, in accordance with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament, any further or other measures, relating to the matters herein contained or any of them, and especially for the creation and endowment of any new archdeaconry or archdeaconries or the alteration of the limits of any existing archdeaconry or deanry, or the re-arrangement of any deanries, which may be found necessary in consequence of the several alterations hereinbefore proposed to be made.”

And whereas due notice of the said scheme has been given in accordance with the provisions of the first-recited Act, and no objection has been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several dioceses of Canterbury, London, Winchester, Chichester, Lincoln, and Rochester.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council:

WHEREAS under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend "and render more effectual an Act, passed in the "last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of addition churches in "populous parishes," a district was, by virtue of and in conformity to an Order in Council, dated the third day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, duly assigned to Saint Jude's church, at Manningham, in the parish of Bradford, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon; and whereas the said Order in Council did not direct that marriages should be performed in the said church:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, under the provisions of a certain Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, a district was, by virtue of, and in conformity to, an Order in Council of your Majesty, dated the third day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, duly assigned to Saint Jude's church, at Manningham, in the parish of Bradford, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon :

"That the said Order in Council did not direct that marriages should be performed in the said church, your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the said district, it appears to them to be expedient, that banns of marriage should hereafter be published, and that marriages should hereafter be performed in the said church of Saint Jude, and that a supplemental Order for that purpose should be made pursuant to the provisions of the fourth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels;" and that the fees and emoluments arising from the publication of banns of marriage and the performance of marriages in the said church should belong and be paid to the vicar of the said parish of Bradford for the time being :

"Therefore your Majesty's said Commissioners humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the performance of marriages, and the fees arising therefrom, be accordingly carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, viz.

No. 20499.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of June 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws respecting the office of county coroner," it is enacted, that, when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts, for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it should be lawful for the said justices, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying, that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof should be given to the coroner or coroners of such county as hereinafter provided; and it is thereby further enacted, that the clerk of the peace should give notice of any such resolution to every coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition would be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices should confer with every such coroner who should attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose, touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of inhabitants, the nature of their employment, and such other circumstances as should appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of that Act; and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, should be certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition should be agreed to, and the clerk of the peace for such county should forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every coroner for such county; and it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition which might be presented to Her by any coroner of the same county, concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it should seem fit to Her Majesty, to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorising the election of an additional coroner above the number of those who had been theretofore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county should be divided into such and so many districts, for the purposes of that Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within such district the court for the election of coroner for such district should be holden, as hereinafter provided; and every such Order should be published in the London Gazette :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Oxford, in general quarter sessions assembled, at Oxford, in and for the said county, on Monday the thirtieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, did resolve, that a humble petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying for such division or alteration as hereinafter mentioned, and did adjourn the further consideration thereof to the adjournment of the general quarter sessions of the peace, held at the County-hall, at Oxford, in and for the said county of Oxford, on Saturday the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, due notice thereof having been given to all the coroners of the said county; and two of the justices attending such adjourned sessions did thereby certify, under their hands and seals, that such petition was agreed to :

And whereas the said justices have since presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing

"That, it having seemed expedient to the justices at large of the said county of Oxford, that the county should be divided into four districts for the purposes of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of county coroner," it was resolved by the said justices in quarter session assembled, that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying, that such division be made, and that thereupon the justices adjourned the further consideration of such petition until the said first day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, notice thereof having, in the interval, been given to the several coroners of the said county, three out of the four of whom on the said day personally attended the meeting of the justices for that purpose, who conferred with the said coroners touching the said petition; and, therefore, having due regard to the size and nature of each district, the number of its inhabitants, the nature of their employments and other circumstances, humbly praying, that the said county may be divided into the four following districts, and representing that as the said county is almost entirely an agricultural one, having, beyond that circumstance, no peculiarity in it, the reason upon which the subjoined division is founded, has been confined to its equality in area and population as far as practicable; and that in endeavouring to arrive at such equality, consideration has been had to the fact, that the University of Oxford, the parliamentary borough of Oxford, the borough of New Woodstock (as prior to the Boundaries Act, third of William the Fourth, cap. 64), the municipal borough of Banbury, and the corporate town of Henley-upon-Thames, within the said county, severally have coroners of their own to the exclusion of the county coroners.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels of less burthen than sixty tons are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the amendment of the law respecting pilots and pilotage, and also for the better preservation of floating lights, buoys, and beacons," it is enacted, that the several Acts therein recited, and all and every the clauses, provisions, powers, penalties, forfeitures, matters, and things relating as well to pilots appointed by the Corporation of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, as to pilots of the Fellowship of Dover, Deal, or the Isle of Thanet, and to the pilotage by and regulation of all such pilots as aforesaid, and also as to the conduct of all persons in matters of pilotage within the jurisdiction of the said Corporation of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond and the liberty of the Cinque Ports, which are contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament theretofore made, shall be repealed :

“ And by the said Act now in recital it is enacted, that the master of any ship or vessel, not exceeding the burthen of sixty tons, and having a British register, may lawfully pilot his own ship, so long as he shall pilot the same without the aid of any unlicenced pilot, or other persons than the ordinary crew of the ship :

And by the said Act now in recital it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to permit and authorise ships and vessels, not exceeding the burthen of sixty tons, and not having a British register, to be piloted and conducted without having a duly licenced pilot on board, upon the same terms and conditions as are by the said Act imposed on British ships and vessels not exceeding the like burthen :

And by the said Act now in recital it is likewise enacted, that nothing therein contained shall extend to the taking away, abridging, defeating, or interrupting of any grants, liberties, franchises, or privileges theretofore granted by any charters or Acts of Parliament to the pilots of the Trinity-house of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, or the Trinity-house of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or to alter or repeal any provisions contained in any Act of Parliament relating to the pilots of any ports or districts in relation to which particular provision shall have been made in any Act of Parliament as to the pilots or pilotage, or to the pilotage within the limits prescribed by any Act of Parliament relating to pilotage for such ports, or to the burthen of vessels navigating to or from such ports :

And whereas Her Majesty is desirous of placing vessels belonging to the kingdom of the Two Sicilies, being under sixty tons burthen, when coming from, or departing for, any port of the said kingdom, or when coming from, or departing for, any other place in ballast, upon the same footing, with regard to exemption from pilotage, as vessels of like burthen having a British register, and for that purpose to exercise the powers, so vested in Her as hereinbefore is mentioned, in manner hereinafter expressed :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts respectively, and of every other power authorising Her Majesty in that behalf, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, as respects the ports and places following, namely,

The port of Kingston-upon-Hull,

The port of Newcastle-upon-Tyne,

And the ports or places being members thereof respectively,

And all other ports and places in respect of which the power by virtue of the said first hereinbefore recited Act is still subsisting, all vessels belonging to the kingdom of the Two Sicilies arriving from, or departing for, any part of the said kingdom, if laden, or arriving from, or departing for, any place, if in ballast, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter into, or clear out from, any of the ports or places above named or described, shall be exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port or place in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding :

And it is hereby further ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, as respects all other ports and places in the United Kingdom, all such vessels as aforesaid, so arriving or departing as aforesaid, and being under the burthen of sixty tons, which shall enter or clear out of any of such other ports or places, may be, and they are hereby authorised and permitted to be, piloted and conducted without having a duly licenced pilot on board, upon the same terms and conditions as by the said secondly hereinbefore recited Act are imposed upon British ships and vessels not exceeding the like burthen :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.
