

the deficiency, if any, shall be supplied in some mode conformable with the provisions of the said recited Acts.

“And whereas by the secondly recited Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful to direct that any house of residence purchased under the provisions thereof or of the therein recited Acts, the Act herein first-recited being one of such Acts, should be insured and kept insured by the bishop for the time being in the occupation thereof, at his own personal charge and expense, in such public office or offices of assurance from loss or damage by fire, and in such sum or sums as might be deemed fit, and that such house should be insured and kept insured accordingly; and that the receipt for every premium payable for such insurance should be delivered to us within fourteen days after such premium should become due: we therefore further recommend and propose, that the said last-mentioned house and premises shall be insured and kept insured by the said George bishop of Rochester and his successors bishops of Rochester, in the sum of ten thousand pounds, from loss or damage by fire, in the Sun Fire Office; and that the receipt for every premium payable for such insurance shall be delivered to us, through the hands of our treasurer for the time being, within fourteen days next after such premium shall have become due.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing, in accordance with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament, any further or other measures, relating to the matters herein contained or any of them, and especially for the creation and endowment of any new archdeaconry or archdeaconries or the alteration of the limits of any existing archdeaconry or deanry, or the re-arrangement of any deanries, which may be found necessary in consequence of the several alterations hereinbefore proposed to be made.”

And whereas due notice of the said scheme has been given in accordance with the provisions of the first-recited Act, and no objection has been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several dioceses of Canterbury, London, Winchester, Chichester, Lincoln, and Rochester.
