

that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion, and in such manner, as shall be approved by the like authority :

“ And whereas certain persons have contributed certain sums of money towards providing a church or chapel within the limits of the district of Saint Philip, so herein recommended to be constituted; and it has been agreed by such persons that such church or chapel, when erected and completed, shall be offered for approval by us, and for consecration, as the church or chapel of the said district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof; and whereas a sum of one hundred and seventy-six pounds two shillings has been deposited with us, upon trust, to be applied in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, as a permanent fund, towards the repairs and maintenance of the fabric of such church :

“ And whereas the principal contributors towards the said church or chapel have, by an instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us the Incumbent of the said district of Saint George, as the patron of the said district of Saint Philip, for the first turn :

“ We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district of Saint Philip, and the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, for the first such nomination, be assigned to and vested in the Incumbent, for the time being, of the said district of Saint George.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.
