

perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion, and in such manner, as shall be approved by the like authority :

“ And whereas certain persons, being the committee of a fund, called “ The Church Extension Fund,” have contributed and transferred to our account and into our names, in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, a sufficient sum of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities to produce the annual sum of fifty pounds towards such permanent endowment as aforesaid of the district of Saint Peter, Cheltenham, so herein recommended to be constituted as aforesaid; and such committee have also contributed and have deposited with us a sum of two thousand pounds, upon trust, to be expended upon the building of a church or chapel within the limits of the same district, and it has been agreed by the said committee, that such such church or chapel, when erected and completed, shall be offered for approval by us, and for consecration as the church or chapel of the said district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof; and whereas also a sum of two hundred and forty pounds has been deposited with us by the said committee, upon trust, to be applied in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, as a permanent fund, towards the repairs and maintenance of the fabric of such church or chapel :

“ And whereas the said committee have, by an instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us the five several persons, hereinafter named and described, as trustees of the patronage in perpetuity of the said district and contemplated new parish, and of the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof; and have, in and by the same instrument, proposed that vacancies in the trusteeship of such patronage shall be filled up from time to time in manner hereinafter mentioned :

“ We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the patronage of the said district and new parish of Saint Peter, Cheltenham, and the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall be assigned in perpetuity to the Reverend Francis Close, perpetual curate of Cheltenham aforesaid, the Reverend John Browne, licensed curate of Trinity Church, in Cheltenham aforesaid, the Reverend Charles Bridges, vicar of Old Newton, in the county of Suffolk and diocese of Norwich, Percival White, of Clapham, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, and John Stuckey Reynolds, of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, as trustees duly nominated to us for that purpose, and that such patronage and right of nomination shall for ever thereafter be exercised by the same persons, or or the survivors or survivor of them, as such trustees, and by such future trustee or trustees, being a member or members of the United Church of England and Ireland, as shall from time to time be nominated by writing under the hands or hand of the trustees or trustee for the time being, or the major part of them, in the place and stead of any one or more of them who shall from time to time die, resign, or become incapable of acting; provided always, that the number of such trustees shall not at any time exceed five.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.
