FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1845.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of November 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the " state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for revising the fixed annual payment charged upon the see of Bath and Wells.

" Whereas, under the provisions of the said recited Act, we prepared and laid before His late Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, for charging upon the bishops of Bath and Wells the fixed annual payment to us of one thousand pounds towards the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, so as to leave to the bishop of Bath and Wells the average annual income of five thousand pounds, fixed by the said recited Act ; and the said scheme was ratified by an Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of the same month of June, and such Order was duly registered and gazetted.

" And whereas, in pursuance of the further provisions of the said recited Act, we did, at the expiration of the first seven years, reckoning from the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, that is to say, after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, obtain a new return of the revenues of the said see of Bath and Wells, and it appears upon such return, that, in order to preserve, as nearly as may be, to the bishop of Bath and Wells an amount of income equivalent to that which was determined in the first instance to be suitable to the circumstances of his bishoprick, the fixed annual payment aforesaid ought to be reduced to the sum of eight hundred pounds :

“ And whereas the said see of Bath and Wells became vacant on the twenty-second day of September last, and a new bishop thereof has not yet been fully appointed :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid to our credit into the Bank of England to an account intituled ‘ Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,’ by the bishop of Bath and Wells for the time being, instead of the fixed annual sum of one thousand pounds hereinbefore mentioned, the fixed annual sum of eight hundred pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the twenty-second day of March and the twenty-second day of September in each year, and that the first such half-yearly payment shall be made to us on the twenty-second day of March next, and that whenever a vacancy of the said see of Bath and Wells shall happen on any other day than either of the half-yearly days of payment aforesaid, then the next half-yearly payment shall be duly apportioned between and paid by the bishop making the vacancy, or his representative, and the bishop succeeding to the said see.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing further measures relating to the said see of Bath and Wells, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues;” and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

C. C. Greville

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of November 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of November one thousand eight-hundred and forty-five, in the words following, viz.

“ Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” continued by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “ An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches,” beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the parish of Saint Michael, Wendron, in the county of Cornwall and diocese of Exeter, it appears to them to be expedient, that the said parish should be divided into two distinct and separate parishes, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; and that the parishes should be named, respectively, "the Parish of Saint Michael, Wendron," and "the Parish of Helston;" and that the church at Helston should be and become the parish church of the said parish of Helston, and that the said parish of Helston should be bounded as follows, that is to say; on the south west and west, partly by the Looe-pool, and partly by the parish of Sithney, as far north as Coverack-bridge; on the north, north east, and east, by the remaining part of the parish of Wendron, from which it is separated by a line proceeding down the middle of the road leading, in a north easterly direction, from Coverack-bridge, till it reaches a point in the middle of the road leading from Helston to Wendron Church Town; it then turns, southerly, down the middle of the last-mentioned road towards Helston to a point opposite the middle of the lane leading from the same road to Roselidden; and thence proceeds, easterly, by the middle of the said lane till it reaches Trenethick-moor, at a place called "Rose in the Bush;" thence, southerly, by the middle of the road leading through and across the said moor up to Roselidden-gate, and from the said gate, easterly, by the middle of the road leading through the estate of Roselidden and Wheal Widden Mine to a point where the same road reaches a point in the middle of the lane called Mr. Rowe's-lane; and from the last-mentioned point it proceeds, southerly, by the middle of the same lane till it reaches the turnpike road leading from Helston to Falmouth; thence by the middle of the said turnpike road, in a north easterly direction, till it reaches a point opposite to the middle of Crasken-lane; thence, in a southerly and south easterly direction, by the middle of the said Crasken-lane to a point opposite to a certain stone post fixed in the ditch of the said lane, at the point of boundary between the estates called Crasken and Pencoose; thence, in a north easterly direction, by the hedge forming the boundary between the same estates till it reaches the stream of water running down Pollard Bottom; and thence, south easterly, by the centre of the said stream down the said bottom to the bridge over the said stream, at Millangoose; and from the said bridge in a straight line, south easterly, to the parish of Mawgan; and on the south east, and south, by the parish of Mawgan; all which said several boundaries are particularly marked and set forth in the plan hereto annexed, and the district or land within the same, forming the said parish of Helston, is thereon coloured green:

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the whole of the glebe land lies within, and that it will be expedient that the same should remain with and belong to, the said parish of Saint Michael, Wendron; and that the whole of the tithes or moduses (if any), arising within and belonging to the present parish of Saint Michael, Wendron, and which have been commuted at the annual sum of eight hundred and sixty pounds, should be apportioned as follows, that is to say; so much thereof as arise within the proposed new parish of Helston, and which have been commuted at the sum of three hundred and four pounds thirteen shillings and three pence, should, together with the tithes or moduses (if any) arising within and belonging to the borough of Helston, and which have been commuted at the further annual sum of one hundred and thirty-five pounds, belong to the Vicar of the said new parish of Helston; and so much of the first-mentioned tithes or moduses as arise within the remaining part of the parish of Saint Michael, Wendron, and which are commuted at the sum of five hundred and fifty-five pounds six shillings and nine pence, should belong to the Vicar of the said parish of Saint Michael, Wendron:

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the estimated amount of the relative proportions of tithes or moduses belonging or accruing to the Vicars of each of the said parishes will be five hundred and fifty-five pounds six shillings and nine pence to the Vicar of the said parish of Saint Michael, Wendron, and four hundred and thirty-nine pounds thirteen shillings and three pence to the Vicar of the said new parish of Helston:

"That it is estimated that the annual amount of fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues, which will accrue to the Vicar of the said new parish of Helston, will amount to about thirty pounds, and of those which will arise in the parish of Saint Michael, Wendron, to about twenty-five pounds: .

"That the consents of the Right Reverend Henry Lord Bishop of Exeter, and of "the Visitors of the foundation of John Michel, Esq. in the Queen's College, in Oxford," who are the patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Michael, Wendron, have been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony whereof, the said Henry Lord Bishop of Exeter has signed and sealed, and the said Visitors have sealed, this present instrument :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-stated circumstances, and to pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the apportionment of tithes or moduses, fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of November 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the "British possessions abroad," after reciting, that, by the law of navigation, foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions in Asia, Africa, or America, from the countries to which they belong, goods, the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever; and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions, it is enacted, that the privileges thereby granted to foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless Her Majesty, by Her Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such foreign country :

And whereas the said conditions have not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of France; but, nevertheless, Her Majesty and divers of Her royal predecessors have, from time to time, by divers Orders in Council, granted certain of the privileges aforesaid to the ships of France, in respect of certain of Her Majesty's possessions, in such Orders particularly mentioned :

And whereas the said Orders in Council do not, nor doth any of them, extend to Her Majesty's island of Saint Helena :

And whereas it is expedient that the same privileges should be granted to French vessels, trading with the said island, as to French vessels trading with such other of Her Majesty's possessions as aforesaid :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful for French ships to import into the said island of Saint Helena, from the dominions of France, such goods, being the produce of those dominions, and to export from the said island to any foreign country such goods as they are permitted to import or to export, respectively, into or from Her Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and America, under or by virtue of a certain Order in Council, issued by His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and bearing date the first day June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, or any other Order now in force :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them respectively may appertain.

Wm. E. Bathurst.

Amalgamation of the Chelmsford and Bury and Essex and Suffolk Railway Companies.

Company's Office, 61, Moorgate-Street,
December 2, 1845.

THE Committees of Management of the above Companies have great pleasure in informing their respective Shareholders, that all difficulties having been at length surmounted the Companies are now amalgamated, the separate Committees of Management being combined in one Board. Both lines were substantially the same, and the junction now happily completed, while it obviates mutual opposition and establishes friendly relations with all existing lines in the three Eastern Counties, enables the amalgamated Company to deposit the ten per cent. required by the Standing Orders of the House of Lords, and to reserve a considerable balance without any further call upon the Shareholders, and justifies the most confident assurance of obtaining their Act without serious Parliamentary opposition.

The Chairman of the Essex and Suffolk and the Deputy Chairman of the Chelmsford and Bury are respectively nominated the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the united Company, and John Miller, Esq. F.R.S.E. is appointed Engineer.

The necessary arrangements respecting the shares in both Companies will be made with the least practicable delay, and on terms of perfect equality, and due notice will be given thereof. Meanwhile it will be satisfactory to the Shareholders to be informed, that upwards of eighty thousand pounds is, and has for some time been, invested at interest, upon proper securities.

Two sets of plans and sections having been deposited with the Board of Trade and the respective Clerks of the Peace for Essex, Suffolk, and Norfolk, the landowners on the line, and all others locally interested, are especially requested to observe, that one set only will be carried before Parliament, namely, that entitled "Chelmsford and Bury Railway," and bearing the name of John Miller, Esq. as Engineer.
