

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns of marriage, and of the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

At the Court at Windsor, the 23d day of December 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of

"additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches," beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Alston otherwise Alstone-moor, in the county of Cumberland, and within the diocese of Durham, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the church recently erected and consecrated, and called Saint John's Church, situate at Nenthead, in the said parish of Alston otherwise Alstone-moor, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Nenthead," and be bounded as follows, that is to say:

"The district is bounded on the north east by the county of Northumberland; on the east by the county of Durham; and on the remaining part by the said parish of Alston otherwise Alstone-moor, from which it is divided by proceeding from Nagg's Head, in a north westerly direction, along the ridge of Middle-fell, as far as a rivulet, called Hudgill-burn, and following the course of that rivulet, north easterly, till it falls into the river Nent; it then proceeds, north westerly, down that river, as far as a bridge across the river Nent, called Foresheel-bridge; and thence up the road leading by Foresheel-grains to Moap or Mohope, in the parish of Allendale, in the county of Northumberland, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow:

"That baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said church; and that the fees arising therefrom should be paid to and belong to the Minister thereof for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Durham has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the fifty-ninth
