AT the Court at Windsor, the 23d day of December 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff.

“ Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same;

and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council, that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided :

“ And whereas the said parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter-mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Llandaff, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Skewen.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ All that part of the parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, comprised within the hamlets of Coedffranc and Dyffryn Clydach.”

to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and whereas such incumbent and patron have respectively consented to the said scheme :

“ Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An “ Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners “ of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” it is enacted, that with respect to any parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two or more incumbents, each having a mediety or portion of the benefice, a plan may be framed by the bishop of the diocese, with the consent of the patron, and so as not to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent, for constituting any of such portions separate benefices, and for making such other arrangements as he may judge likely to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in such parishes; and any such plan may be carried into effect by the authority in the said Act provided:

“ And whereas the parish of Bampton, in the county and diocese of Oxford, is a parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge thereof are divided among three incumbents, each having a portion of the benefice within the intent and meaning of the said Act, there being three vicars separately instituted, each to a portion of the said benefice, such three portions being respectively commonly designated by the names of the first portion, the second portion, and the third portion; and the spiritual charge of the said parish is divided between and among the said three portionists, so as to be a charge upon them jointly and equally:

“ And whereas the said parish of Bampton comprises the township and hamlets following; that is to say, the township of Bampton, with the hamlet of Weald, containing together a population of 1604; the hamlet of Lew, containing a population of 195; the hamlets of Aston and Cote, containing together a population of 727; the parochial chapelry of New and Old Shifford, with the hamlets of Brighthampton and Chimney, containing together a population of 228; the aggregate population of the whole parish (according to the last census) being 2754:

“ And whereas the profits of the said benefice are now divided and enjoyed among and by the said three portionists, in manner following; that is to say;

“ The incumbent of the first portion enjoys separately a house of residence, with its appurtenances and glebe land allotted to that portion under an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third; the incumbent of the second portion has a house of residence, with its appurtenances and glebe land allotted to that portion under the same Act; and the incumbent of the third portion has a house of residence, with its appurtenances and glebe land allotted to that portion under the same Act; the said houses of residence being all situated in the said township of Bampton, and the said glebe lands in the same township, and in the said hamlets of Weald and Lew:

“ And whereas the residue of the profits and emoluments arising from the said benefice, consisting of tithes and corn rent, is divided equally among the said three portionists in a certain order and course, so that their incomes arising therefrom are nearly equal:

“ And whereas the emoluments derived from the several sources before mentioned are estimated to be of the net yearly amounts following; that is to say;

The glebe of the first portion	£.
The glebe of the second portion.....	262
The glebe of the third portion	210
Tithes in the parish of Clanfield	228
Tithes in the hamlets of Aston and Cote.....	90
Tithes in the hamlet of Brighthampton	400
Tithes in the hamlet of Shifford.....	100
Tithes in the hamlet of Chimney.....	92
Corn rent arising in the lands of Haddon	85
	80

£1547

And the yearly tenths, pensions, synodals, and other ecclesiastical charges payable out of the said benefice, including an annual pension of ten pounds to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Exeter, who are the patrons of the said parish and benefice, are paid by the said three portionists in equal shares:

“ And whereas, besides the parish church of Bampton, situate in the said township of Bampton, which affords accommodation for one thousand one hundred persons, there is a newly-erected and consecrated chapel in the said hamlet of Lew affording accommodation for one hundred and sixty persons, a newly-erected and consecrated chapel in the hamlet of Aston affording accommodation for five hundred persons, and an ancient chapel at Shifford affording accommodation for one hundred and sixty persons:

“ And whereas, upon the separation of the said three portions of the said vicarage, as is hereinafter mentioned, it is proposed to provide a more conveniently situated house of residence for the intended new vicarage of Bampton Aston than that now belonging to the said third portion, by mortgage, under the provisions contained in the Acts in that behalf made and enacted, subject nevertheless to the further provision relating thereto hereinafter contained:

“ And whereas it appears to me to be expedient, and likely to promote the efficient discharge of the pastoral duties in the said parish of Bampton, that each of the said three portions of the said parish and benefice should be constituted a separate vicarage and benefice, in conformity with the provisions of the said first-recited Act, and that the most convenient division and arrangement of the said parish and benefice for such purpose would be such as is hereinafter mentioned:

“ Now, therefore, I, Richard Bishop of Oxford, with the consent of the said dean and chapter of Exeter, in testimony whereof they have hereunto set their common seal, do hereby recommend and propose, that upon the next avoidance of the said first portion, and upon the consent in writing, under the hand and seal of the then incumbents of the said second and third portions, or either of them who shall then survive and continue incumbent, or at any previous time upon the like consent of the incumbents for the time being of all the said three portions, or of such of them as are or is now existing, the said three several portions shall respectively become and be separate benefices and vicarages in manner following; that is to say, the said first portion shall become a separate benefice and vicarage by the name of ‘The Vicarage of Bampton Proper,’ and shall comprise and consist of the said township of Bampton and hamlet of Weald, which lie contiguous to each other, having distinct and known boundaries, and having for its church the present parish church of Bampton, and for the house of residence of its vicar, the house of residence now belonging to the incumbent of the said first portion:

“ The said second portion shall become, in like manner, a separate benefice and vicarage by the name of ‘The Vicarage of Bampton Lew,’ and shall comprise and consist of the said hamlet of Lew, having a distinct and known boundary, and having for its church the present chapel of Lew aforesaid, and for the house of residence of its vicar the house of residence now belonging to the incumbent of the said second portion:

“ And the said third portion shall become, in the same manner, a separate benefice and vicarage by the name of ‘The Vicarage of Bampton Aston,’ and shall comprise all the remaining portion of the said parish, consisting of the said parochial chapelry of New and Old Shifford, and the hamlets of Aston, Cote, Brighthampton, and Chimney, and having distinct and known boundaries, and having for its churches the chapels of Aston and Shifford, and for its house of residence the house now belonging to the said third portion, until a more convenient residence shall have been provided as aforesaid.

“ And whereas, having reference to the relative parochial charge of the said three vicarages, when so constituted as aforesaid, it appears to me just that the endowments of the said parish and benefice should be divided amongst the incumbents of such vicarages in the manner and proportion hereinafter mentioned: I therefore further recommend and propose, with the like consents, testified as aforesaid, that there be assigned to the Vicar of Bampton Proper, and his successors in perpetuity, the glebe lands at present belonging to the said first and second portions, together with all tithes and tithe rent-charges and income arising from tithes of or within the hamlet of Chimney, and the yearly sum of seventy pounds, part of the said corn rent of Haddon, subject to the appropriation of the yearly sum of sixty pounds, part of the said seventy pounds, towards the liquidation of the charge for building the house of residence for the Vicar of Bampton Aston, and subject also to the payment of the whole of the said pension of ten pounds to the said dean and chapter of Exeter:

“ And that there be assigned to the Vicar of Bampton Lew, and his successors in perpetuity, the glebe lands at present belonging to the said third portion, and all tithes, tithe rent-charges, and income arising from tithes of or within the said parish of Clanfield:

“ And further, that there be assigned to the Vicar of Bampton Aston, and his successors in perpetuity, all tithes, tithe rent-charges, and income arising from tithes of or within the said hamlets of Aston, Cote, and Brighthampton, and chapelry of New and Old Shifford, together with the remaining ten pounds, part of the said corn rent of Haddon.

“ And I further recommend and propose, that the vicar of the said vicarage of Bampton Proper shall bear and pay the tenths and all other ecclesiastical charges now appertaining to the vicar of the said first portion, and also such burden of repair of the chancel of the parish church of Bampton as by law may belong to the vicars of the said three portions; that the vicar of the said vicarage of Bampton Lew shall bear and pay the tenths and all other ecclesiastical charges now appertaining to the vicar of the said second portion, except such burden of repairs of the chancel of Bampton church; and that the vicar of the said vicarage of Bampton Aston shall bear and pay the tenths and all other ecclesiastical charges now appertaining to the vicar of the said third portion, except such burden of repair of chancel as aforesaid.

“ And further, that the income of the said third portion, until the severance of the said benefices shall come into operation as aforesaid, and that after such severance the income of the said vicarage of Bampton Aston, together with the said yearly sum of sixty pounds, part of the said seventy pounds assigned to the vicarage of Bampton Proper, may and shall be charged with the repayment of all money to be borrowed by mortgage under the provisions of the Act or Acts of Parliament hereinbefore referred to, and that the said yearly sum of sixty pounds shall be the primary fund for that purpose, and, subject to such charge, shall revert to the said vicarage of Bampton Proper.

“ And I further recommend and propose, that upon the taking effect of such severance as aforesaid, the Reverend Dacres Adams, the present incumbent of the said second portion, or if he shall not then be the incumbent of such portion, then the Reverend Ralph Barnes, the present incumbent of the said third portion, or if he shall not then be the incumbent of such portion, then the incumbent for the time being of the said second portion, shall become and be the vicar of the new vicarage of Bampton Proper; and the said Ralph Barnes, or the incumbent for the time being of the said third portion, shall become and be the vicar of the new vicarage of Bampton Aston; and the said new vicarage of Bampton Lew shall be the vicarage void.

“ In witness whereof I, the said bishop, have hereunto set my hand and seal, this twentieth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five. R. OXFORD.”

And whereas due notice of the said scheme has been given in accordance with the provisions of the said recited Act, and no objection has been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.
