AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of January 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act

"populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Breage, otherwise Saint Breage, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as hereinafter provided:

“ And whereas the said parish of Breage, otherwise Saint Breage, is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Breage, otherwise Saint Breage, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Godolphin.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of GODOLPHIN, being—

“ All that part of the parish of Breage, otherwise Saint Breage, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter, situate on the southern side of an imaginary line, the direction of which is described as follows, that is to say; the said imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of the high road from Helston to Godolphin, where such road crosses the eastern boundary of the said parish at or near the village of Sithney Water, and thence extending westward along the middle of the same road to a point (marked b as aforesaid) at a distance of one hundred yards, or thereabouts, from Wheal Vor Mine smelting house, and thence towards the south west, along the middle of a certain lane or road leading to Carleen, and across the road from Breage Church Town to Hale, and thence to the hamlet of Chytodden, leaving such hamlet on the north, and thence towards the south west, along the middle of another lane or bridle path (marked as aforesaid) to the entrance to a certain farm called Chynoweth, and thence towards the south west along the middle of another lane or bridle path leading to the top of Tregonning-hill, as far as the western boundary of the said parish."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and no objections have been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, and other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is so vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso, that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed except by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same :

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Windsor, the 23d day of December 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes;" and of a previous Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes;" and of a previous Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of certain property lately belonging the prebend of Corringham-cum-Stow, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and for augmenting the vicarage of Gainsborough.

"Whereas it is by the first-recited Act enacted, that all the same, and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, and other hereditaments vested in us under or by virtue of the several hereinbefore-recited Acts, and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any such lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso, that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments should be sold, transferred, or conveyed except by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same:

"And whereas it is by the secondly-recited Act, amongst other things, enacted, that, except as therein otherwise specified, all the monies and revenues to be paid to us, and the rents and profits of the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments vested, and to be vested, in us by and under the authority of the now reciting Act, together with all accumulations of interest produced by and arising therefrom, should be from time to time carried over by us to a common fund, and, by payments or investments made out of such fund, or, if in case it be deemed more expedient, by means of an actual conveyance and assignment of such lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of a portion thereof, additional provision should be made, by the authority thereafter provided, for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance was most required, in such manner as should by the like authority be deemed most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church:

"And whereas we have entered into an agreement for the sale of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, described in the schedule hereunder written, and formerly belonging to and forming part of the endowment of the prebend of Corringham-cum-Stow, but now vested in us under the provisions of the secondly-recited Act, to the purchaser, and for the price or consideration hereinafter mentioned:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the first-recited Act, to the Right Honourable Sir John Beckett, of Somerby-park, near Gainsborough, in the county of Lincoln, Baronet, for the price or consideration of the surrender and conveyance by him to us of his leasehold interest of other parts of the property lately belonging to the same prebend, and of certain freehold land contiguous thereto, of which he is now the owner in fee simple, all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments described in the schedule hereunder written, the sum of sixty-four pounds being also paid by us to the said Sir John Beckett.

"And whereas the said prebend was, before the passing of the secondly-recited Act, annexed to the vicarage of Gainsborough, in the diocese of Lincoln; and it is in our opinion reasonable and expedient to make better provision for the cure of souls therein in manner hereinafter mentioned:

"We further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the Vicar of Gainsborough for the time being, the annual sum of fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, the first such half-yearly payment to be made on the first day of May next; and that there shall be forthwith paid by us to the present Vicar an amount calculated, at the same rate by the year, from the date of his induction into the said vicarage to the first day of November last; and that, in case of a vacancy hereafter occurring in the said vicarage on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November respectively, the then next half-yearly payment shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the vicar making the vacancy, or his personal representatives, and his successor.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for authorizing the sale of certain property lately belonging to the prebend of Sacrista, in the collegiate church of Southwell.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, and other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is so vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act; be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso, that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed except by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same:

" And whereas the lands and hereditaments, described in the schedule hereunder written, lately formed a portion of the property and endowment of the said prebend of Sacrista, but are now vested in us by reason of the vacancy of the said prebend:

" And whereas we have contracted and agreed for the sale of the said lands and hereditaments, subject to the determination of a certain lease for lives, to the purchaser and for the price hereinafter mentioned:

" We humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said recited Act, to John Barrow, of Southwell, in the county of Nottingham, Esquire, his heirs or assigns, or as he or they shall direct and appoint, at and for the price or sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds sixteen shillings and six pence, all our estate and interest in the lands and hereditaments so described in the said schedule hereunder written.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Vice Chancellor Knight Bruce.—Saturday the 31st day of January, in the ninth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1846, between John Griffin, plaintiff; Thomas Gascoyne and James Griffin, defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Osborne, of Counsel for the plaintiff, the plaintiff filed his bill in this Court against the defendants, and took out process of subpoena against the defendant, James Griffin, on the 22d day of January instant, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's bill; that it appears by the affidavit of Henry Legge, that the defendant, James Griffin, has been within the jurisdiction of the Court within two years before the subpoena issued, and that, upon enquiring at his usual place of abode, there being no other place where, at the time when the subpoena was issued, he might probably have been met with, he could not be found so as to be served with process, and that there is just ground to believe that the said defendant is gone out of this realm or otherwise absconded to avoid being served with process; it is thereupon ordered, that the defendant, James Griffin, do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 28th day of February next; and it is ordered, that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with the notice pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette of Tuesday or Friday next, and in two newspapers published in the town of Cambridge on or before the 10th day of February next.
