AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of January 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act

"to make better provision for the spiritual care of "populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Yeovil, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as hereinafter provided:

“ And whereas the said parish of Yeovil is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Richard Bishop of Bath and Wells, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Yeovil, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Hendford.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority:

“ And whereas a church or chapel has been erected within the said district of Hendford, herein recommended to be constituted, and such church or chapel has been offered for approval by us, and for consecration, as the church or chapel of the said district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof: and whereas also a sum of two hundred and eighty pounds has been deposited with us, upon trust to be applied, in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, as a permanent fund, towards the repairs and maintenance of the fabric of the said church or chapel:

“And whereas the principal contributors towards the said church or chapel have, by an instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us William Phelps, of Montacute, in the said county of Somerset, Esquire, as the patron of the said district and contemplated new parish for the first and second turns:

“We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, as the case may be, shall, for the first and second nominations only, be assigned to and vested in the said William Phelps his heirs and assigns.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“SCHEDULE,

“The district of HENDFORD, being—

“All that part of the parish of Yeovil, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, situate on the southern side of an imaginary line extending eastward from the western boundary of the said parish along the middle of Huish-lane, across Hendford-street, along the middle of the street called ‘the Borough,’ through the market place and along the middle of Middle-street, and of the Sherborne turnpike road, as far as the eastern boundary of the said parish of Yeovil.”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbent and patron have respectively consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"And whereas the said parishes of Saint Catherine, Saint John the Baptist, and Saint Mary de Lode, are respectively of great extent, and contain a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of each of such parishes hereinafter mentioned, neither of which parts at present contains within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be together constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Catherine, and also all that part of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, and also all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary de Lode, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be together constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “The District of Saint Mark, Gloucester.”

“And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion, and in such manner, as shall be approved by the like authority:

“And whereas certain persons have contributed and deposited with us a sum of two thousand and seventy pounds, upon trust, to be expended upon the building of a church or chapel within the limits of the district of Saint Mark, Gloucester, so herein recommended to be constituted as aforesaid; and it has been agreed by such persons that such church or chapel, when erected and completed, shall be offered for approval by us, and for consecration, as the church or chapel of the said district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof :

“ And whereas also a sum of two hundred and ten pounds has been deposited with us, by the same persons, upon trust, to be applied in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, as a permanent fund, towards the repairs and maintenance of the fabric of such church or chapel :

“ And whereas certain of the principal contributors towards the said intended church or chapel have, by an instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol for the time being, as the patron in perpetuity of the said district and contemplated new parish, and of the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof :

“ We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the patronage of the said district and new parish of Saint Mark, Gloucester, and the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall be wholly assigned to, and absolutely vested in, the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors, bishops of Gloucester and Bristol for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of SAINT MARK, GLOUCESTER, being—

“ All that part of the parish of Saint Catherine, and also all that part of the parish of Saint John the Baptist, and also all that part of the parish of Saint Mary de Lode, in the city and county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line, commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of the turnpike road from Gloucester to Worcester where such road crosses the southern boundary of the district of Saint Matthew, Twigworth, in the said diocese, and thence extending eastward along such boundary to the north eastern corner of a certain field called “ Sandy’s Ground,” now or lately belonging to the Reverend Thomas Beale, and thence southward along the eastern fence of such field, and westward along the southern fence thereof, to the north eastern corner of another field, enclosed from a certain larger field called “ Great Pedmarsh Field,” also now or late belonging to the Reverend Thomas Beale aforesaid, and thence southward nearly in a straight direction along the eastern fence of such field, and part of the boundary between the said parishes of Saint Catherine and Saint Mary de Lode, to the north western corner of a certain field called “ Pedmarsh Ground,” belonging to John Heath, and thence in the same direction along the western fence of such field and part of the eastern boundary of the said parish of Saint Catherine, and westward along part of the southern boundary of such parish, to a point (marked b as aforesaid) opposite to the north eastern corner of Wheeler’s Nursery-ground, and thence southward along the eastern fence thereof and part of the eastern boundary of the said parish of Saint Mary de Lode, as far as the boundary of the said parish of Saint John the Baptist, and thence continuing southward and nearly in a straight direction along a certain fence to the house at the north eastern corner of Sherborne-street, and thence towards the south east, along the north eastern wall of such house and the north eastern wall or fence of the garden belonging thereto, as far as the wall or fence between the gardens and premises belonging to the houses in Sherborne-street aforesaid, and the gardens and premises belonging to the houses in Oxford-street and Alvin-street, and thence towards the south west along such last-mentioned wall or fence, and the fence and wall between the gardens and premises numbered 15 and 16 in Alvin-street aforesaid, as far as the middle of such street, and thence towards the north west along the middle of the same street as far as the middle of Worcester-street, and thence northward along the middle of such street and the turnpike road from Gloucester to Worcester aforesaid to the point where the said imaginary line commenced.”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the parishes out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and whereas one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and no objections have made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the two several registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and Gloucester.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Clifton Campville, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient, that the said parish should, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," be divided into two distinct and separate parishes; that one of such parishes should be named, "The Parish of Clifton Campville;" and that the other should be named, "The Parish of Harlaston;"

and that the consecrated chapel at Harlaston should be and become the parish church of the said parish of Harlaston, and that such parish should be bounded as follows, that is to say :

"On the north and north east by the river Mease; on the south east by the township of Haunton, in the said parish of Clifton Campville; on the south west by the parish of Tamworth; and on the west and north west by the parish of Elford, and the extra-parochial liberty of Haselour, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured red :

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it will be expedient that the whole of the glebe land situate, lying, and being in the township of Clifton Campville with Haunton should remain with and belong to the said parish of Clifton Campville; that the whole of the tithes or moduses (if any) arising or accruing within and belonging to the said township of Clifton Campville with Haunton, which have been commuted at the annual sum of six hundred and ninety-three pounds eighteen shillings, should, together with the whole of the tithes or moduses (if any) arising or accruing within and belonging to the township of Chilcote, which have been commuted at the annual sum of two hundred and fifty-eight pounds, remain with and belong to the rector of the said parish of Clifton Campville; that the whole of the glebe land situate, lying, and being within the township of Harlaston should belong to the said new parish of Harlaston; and that the whole of the tithes or moduses (if any) arising or accruing within and belonging to the said township of Harlaston, which have been commuted at the annual sum of three hundred and seventy pounds, should belong to the rector of the said new parish of Harlaston :

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the estimated amount of the relative proportions of tithes or moduses belonging or accruing to the rectors of each of the said parishes will be nine hundred and fifty-one pounds eighteen shillings to the rector of the said parish of Clifton Campville, and three hundred and seventy pounds to the rector of the said new parish of Harlaston :

"That it is estimated that the annual amount of fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiasticadues which will arise and accrue to the rector of the said parish of Clifton Campville will be about two pounds ten shillings; and that the annual amount of those which will arise and accrue to the rector of the said new parish of Harlaston will be about ten shillings :

“ And your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that two cottages, situate in the said parish of Clifton Campville, the annual rents whereof form part of the endowments attached to the rectory of such last-named parish, should remain with and belong to the rector of the said parish of Clifton Campville for the time being; and that the two cottages, situate within the said new parish of Harlaston, and also the farm house, likewise situate in such new parish, which also now forms part of the endowments of the rectory of Clifton Campville, should be attached and belong to the new rectory of Harlaston, as an additional endowment for the rector thereof for the time being :

“ That the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield, and also the consent of Henry John Pye, of Clifton-hall, in the said county of Stafford, Esq. the patron of the rectory and parish church of the said parish of Clifton Campville, have been severally obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section and Act; in testimony whereof, the said John Bishop of Lichfield and the said Henry John Pye have respectively signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of glebe land, tithes, or moduses, fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues, and of certain endowments therein mentioned, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.
