FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1846.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 12, 1846.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee, at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 18th of February next, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 12, 1846.

Very considerable inconvenience having been experienced at Her Majesty's Levees, in consequence of printed cards being used by those Gentlemen whose names are to be announced to the Queen, it is particularly requested, that in every case written cards only be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, according to the Regulations announced in the Gazette, to which it is most essential to adhere in every respect.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Presence-chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Monday previous to the Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen, who are to be presented at the Levee, will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.
