

"ing, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," as enlarged and extended by the twelfth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual the church building Acts," be divided off from the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, and formed into a district parish, to be assigned to the church called Saint James's Church, recently erected and consecrated, and situate at Norlands, in the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington; and that such district parish should be named, "The District Parish of Saint James, Norlands," and be bounded as follows, that is to say:

"On the west by the parish of Hammersmith; on the south by the chapelry district of Saint Barnabas, in the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, from which it is separated by proceeding from the said parish of Hammersmith, in an easterly direction, along the middle of the Uxbridge-road to a point opposite to Norlands or Greener-lane; and on the east and north by the district parish of Saint John, Notting-hill, from which latter parish it is divided by proceeding from the said Uxbridge-road, up the middle of the said Norlands or Greener-lane, as far as the house now occupied by William Sherman, the property of Benjamin Edward Hall, Esq. whence it proceeds in an easterly direction, along the south side of the said house, until it reaches the old open sewer and a wooden fence forming the western boundary of the estate of James Weller Ladbrooke, Esq. called the Kensington-park Estate, and the south western boundary of the estate of St. Quinton, Esq. and then proceeds in a north westerly direction, along the south western side of the said fence, till it reaches the said parish of Hammersmith, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon tinted blue:

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the said Act and section firstly hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Charles James Lord Bishop of London has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
