

by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of DANE BRIDGE, being—

“ All those parts of the parish of Davenham and the chapelry of Witton, in the parish of Great Budworth, in the county and diocese of Chester, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the centre of the bridge over the river Dane called ‘ Dane Bridge,’ and thence extending first northward along the middle of High-street, in the township of Northwich, in the said chapelry of Witton, as far as the canal connecting the river Weaver with the said river Dane, and thence towards the south east, along the south western bank of the said canal, as far as the boundary between the said parish of Davenham and chapelry of Witton, near the western end of the street or road called Church-walk, and thence first eastward along such boundary, as far as Briery Eye Meadow, and thence westward along the northern boundary or fence of such meadow, and continuing in a straight direction as far as the said river Dane, and thence southward along the western bank of such river as far as the southern fence or boundary of a certain garden and premises (marked b as aforesaid) belonging to Mr. Joseph Dunn, and adjoining the high road to Middlewich, and thence westward along such fence or boundary as far as the middle of the said high road, and thence southward along the middle of the same high road to a point (marked c as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of Dock-lane, and thence towards the south west, along the middle of such lane, as far as a certain ditch (marked d as aforesaid) running into the said river Weaver, and thence towards the north west along the middle of such ditch as far as the eastern bank of such last-mentioned river, and thence northward along the said eastern bank of the said river Weaver as far as the said river Dane, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned river to the point where the said imaginary line commenced.”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the parishes, and to the incumbent and to the patron of the church or chapel of the chapelry, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and no objections have been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the
