AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act “ to amend and render more effectual an Act, “ passed in the last session of Parliament, for “ building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Stamfordham, in the county of Northumberland, and within the diocese of Durham, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should, under the provisions contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render “ more effectual an Act, passed in the last session “ of Parliament, for building, and promoting the “ building, of additional churches in populous “ parishes,” be assigned to the church called “ Trinity Church,” recently erected and consecrated at Matfen, in the said parish of Stamfordham, and that such district should consist of the westernmost part of the said parish, and be bounded as follows, that is to say :

“ On the north by the chapelry of Kirkheaton in the parish of Kirkharle; on the north west by the chapelry of Bingfield, in the parish of Saint John Lee; and on the south west by the chapelry of Halton, in the parish of Corbridge; on the south by the parish of Bywell Saint Peter; and on the east by the remaining part of the parish of Stamfordham, from which it is separated by proceeding from the said parish of Bywell Saint Peter, in a northerly direction, along the road and the eastern fence of the enclosures, marked on the tithe commutation map, Nos. 189, 178, and 177; it then proceeds easterly along the turnpike road to the south east corner of the enclosure, No. 159; from which point it proceeds in a northerly direction along the eastern fences of Nos. 159 and 149, to the southern fence of No. 136; along which fence it turns easterly, and then northerly along the eastern fence thereof, and of Nos. 137, 115, 103, and 114; it then crosses the road and proceeds northerly along the eastern fences of Nos. 70, 60, 41, 201, 23, and 8; from the north east corner of No. 8, it proceeds easterly along the southern fence of No. 98, and then northerly along the eastern fence thereof, and of No. 91; it then crosses the road to the south eastern corner of No. 81; and then proceeds northerly along the eastern fence, and of No. 62 to the road; it then takes a westerly direction along the road as far as the eastern fence of No. 35; at which point it proceeds northerly to its northern fence, and then turns westerly along that fence as far as the eastern fence of No. 31; from which it proceeds in a northerly direction along the eastern fences of Nos. 31, 16, and 15; then westerly along the northern fence of No. 15, as far as the eastern fence of No. 131; from which it proceeds northerly
