FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1846.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of March 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of

"Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for completing the provision intended to be made for the cathedral church of Chester.

"Whereas, under certain provisions in the said Acts in that behalf contained, we prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, which scheme was duly ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, in the following year; and the said Order was duly gazetted :

"And whereas it was by the said scheme and Order provided and ordered, that there should be paid by us, to the treasurer of the said cathedral church of Chester, the annual sum of three thousand pounds, or such proportion thereof as should from year to year become available for that purpose, out of a fund created by means of annual charges upon certain deaneries and canonries in the said Acts mentioned :

" And whereas it was the intent and object of the said scheme and Order, amongst other things, to carry out the provisions of the same Acts for securing to the dean and canons of the said cathedral church of Chester, as nearly as might be, the minimum average annual incomes specified in the said first-recited Act; and the said dean and canons being, as recited in the said scheme, liable to keep residence according to the provisions of the said first-recited Act, were, therefore, reasonably entitled to the benefits of the said Acts :

" And whereas, by reason of the slow accretion of the fund aforesaid, the annual payment to the said treasurer has been, in every past year since the date of the said Order, considerably less than the full sum so directed to be paid to him by us, and may for some years to come still fall short of the same :

" And whereas it was by the said Acts enacted, that, for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments :

" And whereas the said dean and chapter are seised in fee of the several lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, which have been heretofore, from time to time, demised by leases for years, at small annual rents, and upon payment of fines; but the dean and chapter of the said church have declined to renew such leases :

" And whereas, according to the scope and tenor of the scheme and Order aforesaid, whereby the payment of the said annual sum of three thousand pounds stands limited to the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, it was understood and implied, that the dean and chapter of the said church would not renew the said leases; but it is urged by the said dean and chapter, that it was, on their part, expected, that the annual payments by us to them would more nearly secure to them, respectively, the minimum average annual incomes intended by the said Acts :

" And whereas it accordingly appears to us to be reasonable and expedient, that the following arrangement should be made; and we have satisfied ourselves, by due inquiry, that the value of the before-mentioned lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments is fully sufficient to reimburse the advances hereinafter recommended to be made by us to the said dean and chapter :

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that, notwithstanding any thing in the said scheme and Order contained, and without reference to the amount of the fund aforesaid, there shall be forthwith paid by us, to the treasurer of the said cathedral church of Chester, such sum of money as, together with the monies already paid by us to the said treasurer, under the provisions of the said Order, will make up a sum equal to the full annual sum of three thousand pounds for each and every of the four years ending on the fifteenth day of January now last past; and that there shall also be paid by us, to the treasurer of the same church for the time being, on the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and on the like day in every succeeding year, without regard to the limitation of time by the said scheme and Order fixed, the full annual sum of three thousand pounds.

" And we further recommend and propose, that such payment so recommended to be forthwith made by us as aforesaid shall be, in the first instance, charged with the payment of, and the treasurer of the said church shall accordingly pay thereout, all monies which shall be due and owing from the said dean and chapter at the time of his receipt thereof, and that he shall distribute and pay the remainder thereof, after the discharge of such debts, in the same proportions and to the same persons, or to the legal personal representatives of any who may be dead, as and to whom the same would, according to the provisions of the aforesaid scheme and Order, have been distributed and paid, if such remainder had been received on the fifteenth day of January in the several years one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and on the said fifteenth day of January last, in four several sums proportionate to the sums which on those four days respectively would have been required to make up each of the sums then actually paid by us to the treasurer of the said church to the full sum of three thousand pounds; and every such future annual payment to be made by us as aforesaid shall be in all respects subject to the provisions in the same scheme and Order in that behalf contained.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the consent in writing of the said dean and chapter of Chester hereon written, and under their corporate seal hereto affixed, that, in exchange for so much of all such money payments so recommended to be made by us as aforesaid as shall exceed the amount of monies paid and from time to time payable by us to the treasurer of the said church according to the provisions of the scheme and Order aforesaid, and in order to secure to ourselves and our successors the repayment of such excess with reasonable interest thereon, and also for the further purposes hereinafter mentioned, all those the lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid so described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and all estate and interest therein (subject only to the now-subsisting leases thereof), shall upon and from the day upon which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and such Order so published, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become and be absolutely seised and possessed of the same in fee.

“ And whereas it is by the said Acts, and by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘An Act for enabling ecclesiastical corporations aggregate and sole to grant leases for long terms of years,’ in substance provided, that the maximum average annual income of any dean or canon of a cathedral church in England shall be two thousand pounds and one thousand pounds respectively; and that the several deans and canons shall, up to such several amounts but not beyond them, have the benefit of any improvement of the corporate property of their respective chapters, and that the surplus, if any, shall be applicable to the purposes of the Acts herein first recited; we further recommend and propose, that so soon as we shall have received out of the rents, profits, and net proceeds of the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, over and above such annual sum of three thousand pounds so to be paid by us to the said treasurer from and after the fifteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, sufficient monies to repay to us and our successors the whole of such excess of payments as aforesaid, together with all costs, charges, and expenses to be incurred by us in and about the premises, with interest upon such excess of payment, costs, charges, and expenses, at the rate of three pounds ten shillings for every one hundred pounds by the year, calculated yearly, we shall, subject to the proviso in that behalf hereinafter contained, from time to time, and on the like day of payment as aforesaid, in every year, pay over the remainder of such net proceeds to the treasurer for the time being of the same church, to be divided by him, from time to time as he receives the same, amongst the dean and canons of such church, in the proportion of two-seventh shares to the dean and one-seventh share to each of the canons, unless or until a vacancy shall have occurred in any one of the five canonries now existing, and then in the proportion of one-third share to the dean and one-sixth share to each of the canons; and, in either case, so as to secure, to any member of the chapter who may have resigned, and to the representatives of any who may have died between the days of payment, a proportionate part of any such share or shares as aforesaid; provided always, that between the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and the fifteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, a new calculation shall be made by us, founded upon such information as we may require from the said dean and chapter, respecting their then average annual revenues; and the monies so as last aforesaid to be paid by us to such treasurer shall then be limited to such an annual amount as not to raise the respective incomes of the dean and canons of Chester above the maximum sums so named for them respectively in the said first-recited Act.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the surplus, if any, of such net proceeds shall be carried over by us to the fund aforesaid, for the purposes of the said Acts.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing contained herein, or in the said scheme and Order, or in any Order of your Majesty in Council, for ratifying this scheme, shall prevent us, at any time or times hereafter, from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, or any other Act of Parliament; and especially for the re-transfer of the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or any part or parts thereof, to the said dean and chapter, in fee, subject to any conditions and regulations which the circumstances of the case may render expedient.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 18th day of March 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Kingsclere, in the county of Southampton, and within the diocese of Winchester, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," be assigned to the church, called Saint Paul's Church, recently erected and consecrated at Woodlands, in the said parish of Kingsclere; and that such district should be called, "The Chapelry District of Woodlands," with boundaries as follow, that is to say:

"The boundary of the chapelry district of Woodlands commences on the Kingsclere side of the foot bridge crossing the stream which divides

Kingsclere from Ecchenswell, which foot bridge is situated a little to the south of Beenham Court Farm, and forms part of the public footpath leading from the north part of Ecchenswell to Slades-green; the boundary follows this footpath eastward across the several fields or parcels of ground called Brook Meadow, Lower Eight Acres, Ash Meadow, Home Meadow, over Slades-green, to the public road from Kingsclere to Newbury; it then crosses the said road, and, taking the east side of it for a few yards, turns off to the east, following another public footpath, over East Croft Meadow and East Croft Lower Ground, to the lane leading from East Croft Barn to Holdrip-hill; the boundary then turns southward, along the east side of a lane, called Cats-lane, and of a private road through Cats-green, until the same lane or road turns eastward, following the same, in an easterly direction, by Spradburys to Waite's Farm, the boundary includes that farm-house and buildings in the district; and following the east side of the lane in front of that farm-house, to the south, as far as the bottom of the hill; then turns off to the east, following the north side of the old lane through the stream of water to Summerhurst-green, the boundary follows the north side of this green to a stile at the corner of a hedgerow called Watchbury's; then passing over that stile it follows the public footpath leading across the several fields or parcels of ground called Watchbury's, Sandilands, Seven Acres, Ailey Lands, and Ailey Lands Meadow, to the foot of Kettles-hill, on the turnpike road from Kingsclere to Aldermaston; at this place the boundary crosses the said road, and follows the east side of it about fifty yards, southwards, to a private road and public footpath turning off to the east; the boundary then follows this road and footpath, along the east side of Norley Plantation, Norley Ground, and Summers Croft, to a stile at the north corner of Clinkers Coppice; then following the east side of the said coppice, and the south side of a wood called Withy Bed, it proceeds along the northern sides of Sandford Wood, Brocks Coppice, and Wolverton-common, to the south eastern extremity of this portion of the parish of Kingsclere, at that part of the road from Wolverton to Exelsford where the parishes of Kingsclere and Wolverton meet, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink:

“ That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said church; and that the fees arising therefrom should be paid and belong to the Minister of such church for the time being :

“ That the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester (within whose diocese the said parish of Kingsclere is situate) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore stated; in testimony whereof, the said Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester has signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.
