TUESDAY, MARCH 31, 1846.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of March 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for augmenting the incomes of the respective archdeacons of Bristol, Cleveland, and Suffolk.

" Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds; provided that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, or as to any archdeacon then existing within the diocese in which his archdeaconry was situate before the passing of the same Act, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence which are enacted, with respect to incumbents of benefices, by the Act relating to pluralities and the residence of the clergy, in the same Act mentioned, and it was by the said recited Act further enacted, that, upon any endowment of an archdeaconry being made under the provisions thereof, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage) belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment might, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of any archdeacon in possession at the time of the passing of the same Act, and by the authority therein provided, be vested in us for the purposes of the same Act :

" And whereas by an Order of His late Majesty in Council, dated the fifth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, ratifying a scheme duly prepared by us, under the provisions of the Act in that behalf, the new archdeaconry of Bristol was duly founded in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol :

“ And whereas the Venerable Thomas Thorp was thereupon duly collated to the same archdeaconry, and has since been and now is archdeacon thereof, and has become resident within the said diocese :

“ And whereas the Venerable Edward Churton has recently been collated to the said archdeaconry of Cleveland, and the Venerable Thomas Johnson Ormerod to the said archdeaconry of Suffolk; and both the said archdeacons are now resident within the respective dioceses of York and Norwich :

“ And whereas, from fees and other emoluments, the average annual incomes of the said three several archdeaconries do not exceed the following sums respectively, that is to say, the said archdeaconry of Bristol the sum of seventy pounds, the said archdeaconry of Cleveland the sum of thirty pounds, and the said archdeaconry of Suffolk the sum of one hundred pounds :

“ And whereas the said archdeaconry of Suffolk is endowed with a certain mansion or messuage at Ipswich, now demised upon a lease for lives :

“ And whereas, at the time of the passing of the said recited Act, the Venerable Henry Denny Berners was archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Suffolk :

“ We, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York, of the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and Edward Bishop of Norwich, and of the said Henry Denny Berners and the said Thomas Johnson Ormerod, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that the said three several archdeaconries shall be endowed in manner following, and that there shall be paid by us to the said Thomas Thorp, Edward Churton, and Thomas Johnson Ormerod, and their respective successors in the said several archdeaconries, so long as they shall respectively remain such archdeacons, and shall continue entitled to hold their respective endowments or augmentations according to the provisions of the said recited Act in that behalf, the several annual sums following, that is to say to the archdeacon of Bristol the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds, to the archdeacon of Cleveland the sum of one hundred and seventy pounds, and to the archdeacon of Suffolk the sum of one hundred pounds, on the first day of January in every year; and every such whole yearly payment shall be made only on production to us of sufficient evidence that the archdeacon, claiming the same, continued so entitled during the preceding year; and that whenever a vacancy in any of the said archdeaconries shall happen on any other day than the first day of January, the then next yearly payment shall be duly apportioned and paid between and to the archdeacon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the archdeacon succeeding to the archdeaconry so becoming vacant.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that all lands, tenements, and hereditaments whatsoever, including the mansion or messuage aforesaid, at any time heretofore annexed to, and now forming part of, the endowment of the said archdeaconry of Suffolk, shall forthwith be disannexed therefrom, and shall become and be absolutely transferred to and vested in us for the purposes of the said recited Act.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several Registrars of the dioceses of York, of Gloucester and Bristol at Bristol and at Gloucester, and of Norwich.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the
18th day of March 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled: "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for adding to, altering, and improving the episcopal house of residence of the see of Oxford.

"Whereas it is by the first recited Act enacted, that, for the purpose of providing the bishop of any diocese with a more suitable residence than that which at the time of passing the same Act belonged to his see, sanction be given where it may be necessary for the borrowing by any bishop of a sum not exceeding two years income of his see, upon such terms as shall appear to be proper:

"And whereas it is by the said secondly recited Act enacted, that whenever it shall appear to be expedient to add to, alter, or improve any episcopal house of residence, it shall be lawful, by the authority provided in the first recited Act, with the consent under the hand and episcopal seal of the bishop, to make such arrangements as may by such authority be deemed most expedient for adding to, altering, or improving any episcopal house of residence, and that so much of the said first recited Act, as relates to the providing of any bishop with a more suitable and convenient residence, shall be extended so as to include and apply to the purposes of the said secondly recited Act; and that in case such a deficiency would be created in the average annual income of any bishop appointed after the passing of the said first recited Act, by the effecting of any mortgage or other arrangement under either of the said recited Acts, so as to reduce such income below the average annual income of such bishop named in the said first recited Act, it shall be lawful by the authority aforesaid, out of any moneys from time to time standing to the credit and account of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, being part of payments from the larger sees, respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, if it shall be deemed fit, and if such moneys, after duly considering all the claims thereon, shall appear to be sufficient for such purpose to make any arrangement for preventing such deficiency which by the like authority shall be deemed expedient:

"And whereas it has been deemed expedient, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel Bishop of Oxford, in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand and episcopal seal, to effect certain additions, alterations, and improvements in the episcopal house of residence belonging to the see of Oxford, situate at Cuddesden, in the county of Oxford, according to certain plans and specifications which have been approved by us under our common seal, the expence of which additions, alterations, and improvements has been estimated at the sum of three thousand five hundred pounds:

"And whereas a deficiency would be created in the average annual income of the Bishop of Oxford if a sum sufficient to defray such expences were to be raised by mortgage of the lands belonging to the said see under the power for that purpose contained in the said first recited Act.

“ And whereas we deem it fit that, out of the moneys standing to our credit and account, being part of payments from the larger sees, respectively, towards the augmentations of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, provision should be made for preventing such deficiency, and, after duly considering all the claims on the said moneys, we find that they will be sufficient for the purpose:

“ And whereas it has been agreed between us and the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford, that the said additions, alterations, and improvements shall be made and completed according to the said specifications and plans, and to the satisfaction of an architect, to be named by us, and within a time to be limited in a contract to be made for that purpose, and that all costs, charges, and expenses in and about the completion thereof and incidental thereto, over and above the said sum of three thousand five hundred pounds, shall be defrayed by the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford, his executors or administrators:

Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that, upon an agreement in writing, to the effect hereinbefore mentioned, with such conditions and covenants as may appear necessary for fully carrying into effect the arrangement aforesaid, being executed by the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford and by us, and also upon a contract or contracts in writing for making and completing the said additions, alterations, and improvements, containing all usual and proper covenants, conditions, stipulations, and agreements, together with a bond, in such form and penalty as shall appear to us to be fit and proper, being duly executed by the person or persons employed to complete such additions, alterations, and improvements, there shall be applied and paid by us, out of such moneys so standing as aforesaid to our credit and account, to such persons, at such times, and in such manner, as in and by the said agreement and contract shall be provided, such sum or sums of money not exceeding the sum of three thousand five hundred pounds in the whole, as may be necessary for completing the said additions, alterations, and improvements.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the said agreement shall contain a covenant on the part of the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford for assuring, and keeping assured, such house of residence from loss or damage by fire during the the progress of the said additions and alterations in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster, to be approved by us, in the sum of five thousand five hundred pounds in the whole; and that, on or before the day upon which the policy of assurance last effected under such agreement shall expire, the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford, or his successor, shall, at his and their own personal charge and expense, in like manner, assure such house and premises from like loss or damage; and that he, and every future Bishop of Oxford, shall, from time to time, so assure, and keep assured, the said house and premises in the same sum; and shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such assurance shall have become due and payable, deliver and hand over to us the receipt for such premium; and that, in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house and premises, any and every sum of money receivable under such policy of assurance shall be paid to and deposited with us by the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford, and his successors, bishops of Oxford, in trust, to be applied, and the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereon, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said house and premises, or of such part thereof as may have so suffered loss or damage, in such manner as shall appear to us, with the concurrence of the Bishop of Oxford for the time being to be fit and proper.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or any of them.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and

Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, under and by virtue and in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions," a petition has been presented to Her Majesty's Attorney General by the above-named Thomas Griffiths, praying that he may be at liberty to enter, with the Clerk of the Letters Patent of England, a disclaimer and memorandum of alteration as to parts of the title and specification of his above-mentioned letters patent, in the following manner, or to the following purport or effect (that is to say);

A disclaimer of the words "or plated," and also of the words "or any other metal or metals," in the said title.

A disclaimer of the words "and other articles hereinafter mentioned," which occur at the commencement of the describing part of the specification, immediately after the words "my improvement in tea kettles."

A disclaimer of the words "or article," being the eleventh and twelfth words further on in the same sentence, in the said specification.

A disclaimer of the words "of rolled copper plate, copper tinned or plated, or iron plate," which occur soon afterwards in the said specification, there being one hundred and twenty words, or thereabouts, between them and the said words "or article," lastly disclaimed.

A disclaimer of the words "and other articles," which form part of a sentence further on in the said specification, commencing, "and respecting the other mode hereinbefore mentioned of manufacturing tea kettles and other articles according to my said improvement, by making the body of the tea kettle out of two pieces of metal," and so forth.

A disclaimer of the words "and plate of other rolled and laminated metals," and also of the words "such as brass," which respectively occur in the following sentence further on in the said specification, "and also the aforesaid mode of making such articles in two halves by so stamping and burnishing is applicable to rolled iron plate, and plate of other rolled and laminated metals which are of a less ductile quality than copper, such as brass," and so forth.

An alteration in the title of the said invention, by adding the word "certain," after the word "and," and before the words "other articles."

An alteration in the said title, by adding the more limited words "iron plate or tin plate," after the words "iron tinned," and in lieu of the more capacious words "or any other metal or metals," hereinbefore disclaimed.

An alteration in the specification of the said invention, by inserting the words "several of them," between the sixteenth and seventeenth words of the following sentence therein, "all which articles have been hitherto usually made out of a great number of pieces, and with a greater number and extent of brazed joints than are required according to my said improvement."

An alteration in the said specification, by inserting the words "and tin plate," in lieu of the words "and plate of other rolled and laminated metals," sixthly hereinbefore disclaimed.

An alteration in the said specification, by adding the words "or of tin plate," between the twenty-second and twenty-third words of the following sentence therein, "the lids for tea kettles or saucepans may be made of iron, or of iron tinned, in the mode hereinbefore described, as well as of copper."

An alteration in the said specification, in the claiming part thereof at the conclusion, by adding the words "or tin plate," immediately before the words "with fewer pieces and fewer seams than heretofore required."—Dated the 16th day of March 1846.
