WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second session of Parliament held in the fifth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a prison at Pentonville," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to nominate and appoint any number of fit persons, not being less than seven or more than eleven, to be Commissioners for governing the said prison; now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to nominate and appoint Benjamin Hawes, Esq. M.P. and Joseph Henry Green, of Hadley, Esq. to be two of the Commissioners for governing the Pentonville Prison, in the room of James Archibald Lord Wharncliffe, deceased, and Charles Duke of Richmond, K.G. resigned; and they are hereby nominated and appointed such Commissioners accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 6th day of April 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting to Her Majesty, for a term to be limited, certain duties on sugar imported into the United Kingdom," it was enacted, that from and after the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, there should be charged, amongst other duties of Customs, the following (that is to say):

On sugar the growth and produce of China, Java, or Manilla, or of any foreign country the sugars of which Her Majesty in Council should have declared, or might thereafter declare, to be admissible as not being the produce of slave labour, and which should be imported into the United Kingdom, either from the country of its growth or from some British possession, having first been imported into such British possession from the country of its growth, the duties following (that is to say):

White-clayed sugar, or sugar rendered by any process equal in quality to white-clayed, not being refined, for every hundred weight . . . . . 1 8 0

Brown sugar, being Muscovado or clayed, or any other sugar, not being equal in quality to white-clayed, for every hundred weight 1 3 4 and so in proportion for any greater or less quantity than a hundred weight:

And by the said Act it was also enacted, that with regard to sugar the growth of any foreign country between which country and Her Majesty there was then subsisting any Treaty or Convention binding Her Majesty to grant to such country, either conditionally or unconditionally, the privileges of the most favoured nation, or to permit, either conditionally or unconditionally, the produce of such country to be imported into the United Kingdom at the same duties as are imposed upon the like produce of any country, it should be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare that, from and after a day to be named in such Order, brown, Muscovado, or clayed sugars (not being refined), the growth of such country, in case such Treaty should continue to subsist, should, if imported from such country, or from any British possession abroad, having been imported into such British possession from such country, be admitted to entry for consumption in the United Kingdom, at the aforesaid respective rates of duty of one pound eight shillings, and one pound three shillings and four pence per hundred weight, respectively, in like manner as sugars the growth and produce of China, Java, or Manilla:

And whereas a Treaty was, on the eighteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, concluded between His late Majesty King George the Fourth and the State of Colombia, containing, among other things, an agreement, that no higher or other duties should be imposed on the importation into the territories of His Britannic Majesty of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of Colombia than were or should be payable on the like articles, being the growth, produce, or manufacture of any other foreign country:

And whereas the Republic of New Granada was, at the time of the conclusion of the said Treaty, a part of the said State of Colombia:

And whereas the said Treaty was, at the time of the passing of the said Act, and still is subsisting between Her Majesty and the said Republic of New Granada, as having so been a part of the said State of Colombia as aforesaid:

And whereas application has been made on the part of the Government of the said Republic of New Granada, claiming under the said Treaty the admission of sugars, the growth of the dominions of the said Republic, at the said respective duties of one pound eight shillings and one pound three shillings and four pence per hundred weight :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that, from and after the first day of May next ensuing the date hereof, brown, Muscovado, or clayed sugars (not being refined), the growth of the dominions of the said Republic of New Granada, shall, if imported from the dominions of the said Republic, or from any British possession abroad, having been imported into such British possession from the said dominions, be admitted to entry for consumption into the United Kingdom at the aforesaid respective rates of duty of one pound eight shillings and one pound three shillings and four pence per hundred weight, respectively; subject, nevertheless, to the production of the like certificates, and the making of the like declaration, as are in the said Act required, with respect to sugars the growth of China, Java, or Manilla:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 6th day of April 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council, that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereinafter provided :

"And whereas the said parish of Newcastle-upon-Tyne is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Durham, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, "The District of Saint Paul, High Elswick."

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said

Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen, on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 6th day of April 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "church building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Droxford and Bishops Waltham, in the county of Southampton, and within the diocese of Winchester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite certain contiguous parts of the said parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Swanmore, in the said parish of Droxford, under the provisions of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "church building Acts;" and that such consolidated chapelry should be named, "The Consolidated Chapelry of Swanmore;" the same being bounded on the south west by the chapelry district of Shidfield; on the north west by a line drawn, in a north easterly direction, from the most northerly point (marked by a boundary stone) of the said chapelry district of Shidfield, across the said parish of Bishops Waltham, to the most westerly point of the said parish of Droxford, so as to include, within the said consolidated chapelry of Swanmore, that portion of the said parish of Bishops Waltham which lies on the south eastern side of the said line; and, from that point, the said consolidated chapelry of Swanmore is bounded by the said parish of Bishops Waltham to a little beyond the northern corner of Little Phrymph-copse, where the boundary of such parish diverges from the Dundridge road; on the north and north east the said consolidated chapelry is bounded by the remaining part of the said parish of Droxford, from which it is separated by proceeding in an easterly direction, in a straight line from the point last mentioned, to the house called Swanmore-farm, and, passing down a valley south easterly, crosses the lane at the foot of May-hill, and passes on towards the lane leading to Goodwin's-farm; it then proceeds south westerly, down the middle of that lane, towards the church at Swanmore, till it meets a footpath leading in a south easterly direction to the road which passes in front of Hill-place, along which footpath it then proceeds as far as the said road, and, crossing the same, continues in a straight line south easterly till it falls into the Droxford and Wickham road, at the intersection of that road with another road leading to Hambledon, southwards of St. Clair's-farm, along which latter road it proceeds as far as the river Drox; and on the south east the said consolidated chapelry is bounded by the said river Drox, which separates the said parish of Droxford from the parish of Somerton, as far as the said chapelry district of Shidfield, as the same is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green and red :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it has been mutually agreed between them and the Right Reverend Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester, who is, in right of his see, patron of the rectories or parish churches of the said parishes of Droxford and Bishops Waltham, that the right of presentation, nomination, and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to the said church and consolidated chapelry of Swanmore should belong to, be in, and be exercised (when occasion may require) by the rector for the time being of the said parish of Droxford :

" That the consent of the said Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign; in testimony whereof, the said Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester has signed and sealed this representation :

" Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed consolidation and assignment be accordingly made, and the agreement in respect of the right of presentation, nomination, and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate of the said church or consolidated chapelry be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Covesea Skerries Lighthouse and Beacon.

Edinburgh, April 10, 1846.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give notice, that a lighthouse, to be called the Covesea Skerries Lighthouse, has been built upon the point of Craighead; in the county of Elgin, the light of which will be exhibited on the night of the 15th of May 1846, and every night thereafter, from sun-set till sun-rise; and they farther give notice, that a beacon has been placed on that part of the Covesea Skerries, called Haliman's Scares, which lies off Craighead.

The following is a Specification of the Lighthouse, and the appearance of the Light, by Mr. Allan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners.

The lighthouse is situated in N. latitude  $57^{\circ} 43' 21''$  and W. longitude  $3^{\circ} 20' 14''$ . By compass it bears from Tarbetness Lighthouse S. E. by S.  $\frac{1}{4}$  S., distant  $16\frac{1}{2}$  miles; from Brough Head E. by S.  $\frac{1}{4}$  S., distant  $5\frac{1}{4}$  miles; from Stotfield Point W. N. W., distant 2 miles; from the Beacon on Haliman's Scares W. S. W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W., distant 1 mile; and from Scarnose N. W. by W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W., distant 16 miles.

The Covesea Skerries Light will be known to Mariners as a revolving light, which gradually attains its brightest state once every minute, and then as gradually declines, until, to a distant observer, it totally disappears. From W. by N.  $\frac{1}{4}$  N. to S. E. by E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. the light will be of the natural appearance; but from S. E. by E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. to S. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  S. it will be coloured red. The lantern, which is open from W. by N.  $\frac{1}{4}$  N. round to S. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  S. in a northerly direction, is elevated 160 feet above the level of the Sea; and the light will be seen at the distance of six leagues, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere; and, to a near observer, in favourable circumstances, the light will not wholly disappear between the intervals of greatest brightness.

The beacon on Haliman's Scares bears from the lighthouse E. N. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. It consists of frame work of iron, surmounted by a cylindrical cage and a cross, and rises to the height of about 48 feet above high water. There are steps leading from the rock to the cage, in which a temporary shelter may be found in the event of shipwreck on the rock.

The Commissioners hereby further give notice, that, by virtue of a warrant from the Queen in Council, dated 13th September 1845, the following tolls will be levied in respect of this light, viz.

"For every British vessel (the same not belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs, and successors, or being navigated wholly in ballast), and for every foreign vessel which, by any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, Convention, or Treaty, shall be privileged to enter the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, upon paying the same duties of tonnage as are paid by British vessels (the same not being vessels navigated wholly in ballast), which shall pass the said lighthouse upon the point of Covesea, or derive benefit thereby, the toll of one halfpenny per ton of the burden of every such vessel, for each time of passing the said lighthouse, or deriving benefit thereby; and double the said toll for every foreign vessel not so privileged."

C. Cunningham, Alex. Cunningham,
