

panies' Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, as shall be necessary for effecting the purposes thereof.

Dated the 28th day of March 1846.

Fuller and Saltwell, Solicitors.
David Caldwell, Agent.

Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application has been made to Parliament in the present session, and is now pending, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and render more effectual some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from the town of Lancaster to the town of Preston, in the county palatine of Lancaster," to be called "the Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway;" an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway Company to raise a further sum of money, and to amend the Act relating to such railway;" and an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway."

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended by the said Bill to enable a general meeting of the Lancaster and Preston Junction Railway Company to elect directors of, and a clerk and treasurer to, the said Company, and to make other provisions for the appointment of directors of the said Company.—Dated this 27th day of March 1846.

Rob. Jackson, Lancaster,
Solicitor for the Bill.
