TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1846.

Foreign-Office, May 5, 1846.

IT is hereby notified, that the Right Honourable the Earl of Aberdeen, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received a dispatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, dated the 24th of April last, in which he incloses the copy of a note from the Spanish Minister for Foreign Affairs, communicating to him an Edict, issued by the Captain General of Galicia, and approved by the Queen of Spain, by which the coast of Galicia has been placed in a state of blockade.

The tenor of the Edict is as follows:

" Don Juan de Villalonga, Captain General of Galicia, &c. &c. &c. the district of this Captain Generalship having been declared in a state of siege by my edict of the 4th instant, and it being known that the rebels have extended the insurrection to the province of Pontevedra, and the port of Vigo, I have deemed it expedient to determine as follows:

" Article 1st. The whole coast of Galicia, comprehended between the river of Rivadeo and that of La Guardia, is hereby declared in a state of blockade, to the effect that any vessel which may appear suspicious, and be found within the aforesaid limits, carrying provisions, arms, or men, or doing any other service whatsoever in behalf of the insurgents, may be pursued and captured. The vessels captured under such circumstances shall be comprised in the 3d article of my aforesaid Edict of the 4th instant. Should they hoist foreign colours, they shall also be detained and searched according to international law, and their masters and crews shall be punished, if found guilty.

" Article 2d. The blockade of the coast in general is to be understood as more strictly circumscribed to the port of Vigo and its river, and the entry of any vessels whatsoever into those places is severely prohibited, as long as the insurrection has not disappeared therefrom.

" Article 3d. The English steamers shall touch only at this port of Corunna, for the object for which they are established by their Government. The vessels subject to quarantine shall also come to undergo it in this port, for which purpose the Board of Health shall adopt the proper measures, in conformity with the civil and naval authorities. The merchant and coasting vessels will be allowed to put into any other ports of the coast, taking previous information, if possible, that they are not occupied by insurgents.

" Article 4th. The Commanders of the cruizers, destined to the service of blockade, are charged with the fulfilment of the preceding measures, and will be made responsible for any omission or neglect of so important a duty.

" And, in order that it may be made known to all authorities, corporations, and individuals whom it may concern, for the strict fulfilment of this Edict, I command it to be published as an addition to the aforesaid one of the 4th instant.

" (Signed) JUAN DE VILLALONGA,
Captain General.

' Corunna, 15th April 1846."

By order,

John Latham, Secretary.

Buckinghamshire and Oxford and Bletchley Junction Railway Company.

Offices of the Company, 29, Great George-street, Westminster.

IN pursuance of the Sessional Orders of both Houses of Parliament, notice is hereby given, that a Special General Meeting of the Scripholders of this Company, that is to say, of the Holders of Scrip, or of Bankers' Receipts for Scrip, of the Company will be held, on Saturday the 9th day of May next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the London and Birmingham Railway Station, in Euston-square, London, for the purpose of approving (or otherwise) the following Bills now before Parliament, viz.

A Bill for making a railway from the London and Birmingham Railway, at Aldbury, in the county of Hertford, to Banbury, in the county of Oxford (Tring to Banbury).

A Bill for making a railway from Oxford to the London and Birmingham Railway, at Bletchley, in the county of Buckingham (Oxford to Bletchley).

The Sessional Orders, before referred to, require that one third of the capital proposed to be raised by the Bill shall be represented at the Meeting by persons producing thereat Scrip or Bankers

Receipts for the same, and the Holders of such Scrip or Receipts are therefore requested to attend accordingly.

The Directors take this opportunity of announcing, that both the above Bills have been read a second time; the latter is now in Committee, and wholly unopposed; the Committee on the former Bill is not at present named.

The Secretary will afford such information and assistance to the Shareholders as they may desire, with reference to their Scrip or Receipts, and the production thereof, and the voting thereon at the Meeting. Communications may be addressed to him at the Company's Office, No. 29, Great George-street, Westminster.

As no party will be entitled to vote at the Meeting until his or her name and address, and the denoting numbers of all the Scrip or Receipts are first recorded, Shareholders are particularly requested, with a view to the convenience of the Meeting, either to send their Scrip or Receipts to the Secretary, or to any of the Committee of Management, at the Offices of the Company, or to furnish a statement of the denoting numbers of the Scrip or Receipts to the Secretary forthwith, as otherwise the proceedings of the Meeting will be greatly delayed by the necessary preliminary investigations.—Dated 29th April 1846.
