

in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Wolverton, in the county of Buckingham, and within the diocese of Oxford, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," be assigned to the church, called Saint George's Church, recently erected and consecrated, and situate upon the confines of the station belonging to the London and Birmingham Railway Company, in the said parish of Wolverton, and that such district should comprize all the land, houses, and ground constituting such station, and situate within the limits thereof, and also the said church, and the burial ground and parsonage-house and grounds belonging to the Minister of that church; and that such district should be named, "The Chapelry District of Saint George, Wolverton," with boundaries as follow :

"On or towards the north and east by the Grand Junction Canal; and on or towards the south and west by land belonging to the Trustees of the Radcliffe Charity Estate, as such district is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

"That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said church, called Saint George's Church; and that all the fees arising therefrom should be paid and should belong to the Minister for the time being of such church :

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel Bishop of Oxford has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Samuel Bishop of Oxford has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 19th day of February 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the first year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England or Wales shall petition His Majesty to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any such charter, if he shall think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council, to grant the same, to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough, within the district to be set forth in such charter, all the powers and provisions of the Act of the fifth and sixth William the Fourth, cap. 76, for regulating corporations, whether such town or borough be or be not a corporate town or borough, or be or be not named in either of the schedules to the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by His Privy
