TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1846.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 19th day of May 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Calverley, in the west riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided:

"And whereas the said parish of Calverley is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Calverley, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, "The District of Saint Paul, Pudsey."

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen, on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"The district of SAINT PAUL'S RUDSEY, being a part of the township of Pudsey, in the parish of Calverley, in the west riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line, commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) at the north eastern corner of Owl Cotes Wood, and on the northern boundary of the said township, and thence extending southward along the eastern boundary of such wood as far as its junction with Dan Wood, and thence towards the south east along the north eastern boundary of such last-mentioned wood as far as a certain field or close (marked b as aforesaid) called Middle Pasture Close, the property of the representatives of the late Thomas Thornhill, and thence towards the north east along the north western boundary fence of such field or close, to the south western corner of another field or close (marked c as aforesaid) called Low Pasture Close, the property of the representatives of the late Thomas Thornhill aforesaid, and thence towards the south east along the south western boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close to its junction with another field or close (marked d as aforesaid) called Far Shaw Close, the property of John Varley, and thence along the western and south western boundary fences of such last-mentioned field or close as far as another field or close (marked e as aforesaid) called Great Four Days Work Close, the property of John Varley aforesaid, and thence first towards the south east along the south western and south eastern boundary fences of such last-mentioned field or close, to the south western corner of another field or close (marked f as aforesaid) called Shaws, also the property of the said John Varley, and thence eastward along the southern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close, to a certain rivulet or stream of water which flows along the east side of the said last-mentioned field or close, and thence southward along the middle of such rivulet or stream of water to another field or close (marked g as aforesaid) called Toadhole, the property of Samuel Sharp, and thence towards the north east along the north western boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close, to the boundary fence of another field or close (marked h as aforesaid) called Far Hinchliff, the property of Frederick Stowe, and thence southward along the western and eastward along the southern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close, to the south western corner of another field or close (marked i as aforesaid) called Middle Hinchliff Close, also the property of the said Frederick Stowe, and thence eastward along the southern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close, and of another field or close (marked j as aforesaid) adjoining thereto, called Near Hinchliff Close, the property of John Vickers, to the middle of Richardshaw Lane, and thence southward along the middle of such lane to a point (marked k as aforesaid) opposite to the south western corner of another field or close (marked l as aforesaid) called Whinny Dole, the property of Joshua Sharp, and thence, first eastward along the southern and then northward along the eastern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close, to its junction with another field or close (marked m as aforesaid) called Small Close, the property of the said Joshua Sharp, and thence continuing northward along the eastern and westward along the northern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close, as far as the south eastern corner of another field or close (marked n as aforesaid) called Richardshaw Height Close, the property of Samuel Scarth, and thence northward along the eastern and westward along the northern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close, as far as the south eastern corner of another field or close (marked o as aforesaid) called Great Close, also the property of the said Samuel Scarth, and thence northward along the eastern boundary fences of such last-mentioned field or close, and of another field or close (marked p as aforesaid) adjoining thereto, also the property of the said Samuel Scarth, as far as the south western corner of another field or close (marked q as aforesaid) called Top Close, the property of Timothy Ingham, and thence eastward along the southern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close, and the southern boundary fence of another field or close (marked r as aforesaid) adjoining thereto, called Upperwood, the property of James Watkinson, as far as the south eastern corner of such last-mentioned field or close, and thence northward along the eastern boundary fence of the said last-mentioned field or close as far a certain old lane called or known by the name of Green-lane, and thence in the same direction, crossing such lane, as far as the southern boundary fences of two fields or closes (marked s and t as aforesaid) called respectively the Old Tenter Close, and Clover Close, the property of Richard Wainman, situate on the northern side of such last-mentioned lane, and thence eastward along the southern boundary fences of such two last-mentioned fields or closes, to the south western corner of another field or close (marked u as aforesaid) called Wood Close, the property of Elizabeth Pawson, and thence in the same direction along the southern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close, and of three other fields or closes (marked respectively v, w, and x as aforesaid) called respectively Feather Close, Croft Close, and Pick Hill, also the property of the said Elizabeth Pawson, to the north western corner of another field or close (marked y as aforesaid) called Well Close, also the property of the said Elizabeth Pawson, and thence southward along the western and eastward along the southern boundary fence of such last-mentioned field or close as far as the northern boundary of the said township of Pudsey, and thence westward along such boundary to the point where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the parish, and of the church or chapel of the chapelry, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbents and patrons have respectively consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by our Order in Council of this day's date, we were graciously pleased, for the reasons therein contained, to annul the Royal Proclamation of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, of the third day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, directing that distribution should be made of the net proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy, of captures and seizures under the several Acts passed relating to the revenues of customs, and to trade and navigation, for the abolition of the slave trade, and for the capture and destruction of piratical vessels, and of the rewards conferred for the same, according to the scheme therein set forth; and it is expedient that provision should be made by us for the future distribution of such proceeds or rewards; we do make known to all our loving subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this our Proclamation, by and with the advice and consent of our Privy Council, that our royal will and pleasure is, and we do hereby direct, that the distribution of such proceeds and rewards shall be made in the following manner, viz.

That flag officers or officer, commodores of the first class, and captains of the fleet, shall have one sixteenth of the net proceeds arising from prizes captured from the enemy, and from all other captures, seizures, head moneys, grants, and bounties as aforesaid, made by the ships and vessels under his or their command, save and except in the cases herein-after submitted.

That when two flag officers shall be serving together, the chief shall have two thirds of the said one sixteenth, and the other officer shall have the remaining third part

That when there be more than two flag officers, the chief shall receive one half of the said one sixteenth, and the remaining half shall be divided equally amongst the junior flag officers, commodores of the first class, and captains of the fleet.

That no flag officer, or commodore of the first class, or captain of the fleet, not actually present at the capture or destruction of any piratical vessel or privateers belonging to the enemy, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any head money or bounty granted in respect of the crews of such piratical ships, vessels, or boats.

That no flag officer as aforesaid shall share in any remuneration or reward conferred or awarded as salvage, unless he shall have been actually on board the ship or vessel to which the award shall be made, or have personally aided or assisted in the transaction at the time the service was rendered.

That no flag officer commanding in the ports of the United Kingdom shall share in the proceeds of prizes captured from the enemy, nor in other captures or seizures as aforesaid, made by ships or vessels which may sail from such ports by order of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, nor in the rewards, &c. conferred for the same.

That when ships or vessels under the command of several flag officers which belong to separate stations shall happen to be joint captors, each flag officer, under whose orders each ship or vessel may be, shall receive a portion of the flag share of one sixteenth of the net proceeds in proportion to the number of officers and men present under the command of each such flag officer; and the same regulation as to the apportionment of the flag share is to be observed when ships or vessels under orders from the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, shall be joint captors with ships or vessels under a flag or flags.

And we do hereby further direct, that the following regulations be observed in respect to the distribution of the remaining portion of the net proceeds of prizes, captures, seizures, and rewards before mentioned (after the deduction of the flag share of one sixteenth), or of the whole amount of such net proceeds in the cases herein-before provided, where no flag officer shall be entitled to share.

First, that the officers and men composing the complements of our ships and vessels be distributed into thirteen classes, and that each officer and man and boy who shall have been actually on board at the time of any such capture, seizure, &c. as aforesaid, shall receive such number or portion of shares as are expressed to each class respectively in the following table :

First class—Commodores of the second class, captains, field officers of marines or land forces above the rank of major, when doing duty as field officers above the rank of major, one hundred shares.

Second class—*Commanders, medical inspectors of hospitals and fleets, field officers of marines or land forces of the rank of major, when doing duty as such, fifty shares.

Third class—Secretaries to flag officers commanding in chief, deputy medical inspectors of hospitals and fleets, †sea lieutenants, †masters, captains of marines or of marine artillery, or of land forces, when doing duty as such, whether having higher brevet rank or not, ten shares each.

Fourth class—Chaplains, secretaries to junior flag officers and commodores of the first class, surgeons, paymasters and pursers, naval instructors, mates, lieutenants of marines, of marine artillery, or of land forces when doing duty as such, second masters, assistant surgeons, five shares each.

* But when a commander is not in company with a captain he is to receive seventy-five shares.

† But lieutenants or masters in command of vessels of war, and masters of the fleet, are to receive twenty shares each, instead of ten.

Fifth class—Gunners, boatswains, carpenters, first engineers, clerks in charge, clerks (passed), four and a half shares each.

Sixth class—Midshipmen, master's assistants, second and third class engineers, clerks, naval cadets, clerks assistant, three shares each.

Seventh class—Ship's cooks, admiral's coxswains, leading stokers, masters at arms, seaman's schoolmaster, sailmakers, ropemakers, gunner's mates, boatswain's mates, carpenter's mates, caulkers, blacksmiths, serjeants of marines, serjeants of marine artillery, serjeants of land forces when doing duty as such, two and a half shares each.

Eighth class—Ship's corporals, captain's coxswains, quarter masters, captains of the fore-castle, captains of the main top, captains of the fore top, captains of the hold, coxswains of the launch, corporals of marines, and of land forces when doing duty as such, corporals and bombardiers of marine artillery, head kroomen, pilots, two shares each.

Ninth class—Sailmaker's mates, coopers, armourers, caulker's mates, captains of the mast, captains of the after-guard, captains of the mizen top, yeoman of signals, coxswain of pinnace, second head kroomen, paymaster and purser's steward, one and a half shares each.

Tenth class—Able seamen, musicians, stokers and coal trimmers, carpenter's crew, sailmaker's crew, coopers crew, painters, yeoman of store rooms, flag officer's stewards, flag officer's cooks, flag officer's domestics, captain's steward, captain's cook, subordinate officer's steward, subordinate officer's cook, sick berth attendant, privates and fifiers of marines and land forces when doing duty as such, gunners of marine artillery, ordinary seamen, one share each.

Eleventh class—Paymaster and purser's steward's mates, cook's mates, barbers, landmen, kroomen, three fourths of a share each.

Twelfth class—Boys of first class, half a share each.

Thirteenth class—Boys of second class, three eighths of a share each.

Seamen gunners to share in all captures, rewards, &c. as aforesaid, in the class immediately above that of the class in which their rating is mentioned.

That in all cases in which supernumeraries, whether officers or men, shall be ordered to do duty on board any of our ships by the Lord High Admiral, or by our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, or by other proper authority (the orders of the captain or commander, if no senior be present, to be deemed sufficient authority), they shall share according to the class of the ranks or ratings which they hold in the service, if not ordered to do duty in a higher capacity. All persons borne on board our ships merely as passengers, whether officers or others, and who may be present and not decline to render general assistance in any action that may occur in making any capture or seizure, shall be entitled to share in the eleventh class if above the age of twenty, and in the thirteenth if below that age.

And that in the event of any difficulty arising in respect to the regulations hereby proposed, or any case should occur not herein provided for, or not sufficiently provided for, we are pleased to authorize the Lord High Admiral, or our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, to issue such directions thereupon as may appear just and expedient; and that such directions shall be considered final, and have the same force and effect as if specially provided for in our Royal Proclamation.

Provided always, that the distribution hereinbefore proposed to be made, or directed to be made, shall not be construed to affect any captures, seizures, &c. made within three calendar months from the day of our Royal Proclamation, nor any captures, seizures, &c. which shall be made after that day, and which shall be condemned or adjudged in any of our Courts of Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Mixed Commission, before notice of our Royal Proclamation shall have been received by the Vice Admiralty Court, or Court of Mixed Commission, in which such condemnation or adjudication shall pass; and we do hereby further direct, that the proceeds of all such captures, seizures, &c. made within three months from the day of the date of this our Royal Proclamation, or which shall be made after the date of this our Royal Proclamation, and which shall be condemned or adjudged in any of our Courts of Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Mixed Commission, antecedent to the notice of this our Royal Proclamation having been received in such Courts, together with all rewards aforesaid, shall continue to be distributed in the proportions and manner directed in and by His said late Majesty's said Royal Proclamation, dated the third day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

Given at our Court, at Buckingham-Palace, this nineteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and in the ninth year of our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,
