

And that in the event of any difficulty arising in respect to the regulations hereby proposed, or any case should occur not herein provided for, or not sufficiently provided for, we are pleased to authorize the Lord High Admiral, or our Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, to issue such directions thereupon as may appear just and expedient; and that such directions shall be considered final, and have the same force and effect as if specially provided for in our Royal Proclamation.

Provided always, that the distribution hereinbefore proposed to be made, or directed to be made, shall not be construed to affect any captures, seizures, &c. made within three calendar months from the day of our Royal Proclamation, nor any captures, seizures, &c. which shall be made after that day, and which shall be condemned or adjudged in any of our Courts of Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Mixed Commission, before notice of our Royal Proclamation shall have been received by the Vice Admiralty Court, or Court of Mixed Commission, in which such condemnation or adjudication shall pass; and we do hereby further direct, that the proceeds of all such captures, seizures, &c. made within three months from the day of the date of this our Royal Proclamation, or which shall be made after the date of this our Royal Proclamation, and which shall be condemned or adjudged in any of our Courts of Vice Admiralty, or any Court of Mixed Commission, antecedent to the notice of this our Royal Proclamation having been received in such Courts, together with all rewards aforesaid, shall continue to be distributed in the proportions and manner directed in and by His said late Majesty's said Royal Proclamation, dated the third day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

Given at our Court, at Buckingham-Palace, this nineteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and in the ninth year of our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Edinburgh, beg to approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt congratulations on the birth of the Infant Princess. By your many public and private virtues, your Royal Highness has secured the esteem and attachment of all classes of Her Majesty's subjects.

That Her Majesty and your Royal Highness may long enjoy the domestic happiness which has adorned your auspicious Union, and may see your illustrious Offspring flourishing around you, eminent for every virtue, and crowned with every blessing, is the prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, your Royal Highness's most obedient humble servants, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Edinburgh.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council, and the seal of the city affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, the 2d day of June 1846.

Adam Black, Lord Provost.
