“That Daniel Price, Esquire, of Talley, in the said county of Carmarthen, is the coroner acting in and for the said eastern or Llandilo district ; and that George Thomas, junior, Esquire, of the county of the borough of Carmarthen, is the coroner acting in and for the said western or St. Clears district :

“And, therefore, praying, that the eastern district of the said county be assigned to the said Daniel Price ; and the said western or Saint Clears district of the said county to the said George Thomas :

“And they further humbly recommend, that the court for the election of coroner of the eastern district of the said county be held at Llandilo, in the said county ; and the court for the election of coroner of the western district of the said county be held at Saint Clears, in the said county.”

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the eastern district of such county be assigned to the said Daniel Price, and the western or St. Clears district of the said county to the said George Thomas :

And it is hereby further declared, ordered, directed, and determined, that the courts to be holden for the purpose of the election of any coroner of any one or more of the said districts respectively, when and as often as the same shall become necessary under the provisions of the said recited Act, shall be as follows, that is to say, for the eastern district of the said county to be holden at Llandilo aforesaid, and the poll to be taken there, and for the western district of the said county to be holden at St. Clears aforesaid, and the poll to be taken there :

And it is hereby also further declared, ordered, and directed, that this Order shall be published in the London Gazette. Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 6th day of July 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the first year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to amend an Act for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England or Wales shall petition His Majesty to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any such charter, if he shall think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council, to grant the same, to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough, within the district to be set forth in such charter, all the powers and provisions of the Act of the fifth and sixth William the Fourth, cap. 76, for regulating corporations, whether such town or borough be or be not a corporate town or borough, or be or be not named in either of the schedules to the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by His Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered :

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the borough of Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying, that a charter of incorporation may be granted to the said borough; Her Majesty was this day pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said petition be taken into consideration, by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on Tuesday the eleventh day of August next.
