“ Your Majesty’s Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it has been mutually agreed between the patrons of the parish churches of the said parishes of Broad Hinton and Cliffe Pypard, with the approbation of your Majesty’s said Commissioners, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of

Salisbury, in whose diocese the said two parishes are situate, that the right of presentation, nomination, and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to the said church of Christ Church and consolidated chapelry of Broad-town should, for one turn only, be vested in, belong to, and be exercised by the said Edward Bishop of Salisbury; and that, for ever afterwards, the same right of presentation, nomination, and appointment should be vested in, belong to, and be exercised by the vicars or incumbents for the time of the said parishes of Broad Hinton and Cliffe Pypard alternately, the vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Broad Hinton having the first or prior turn of presentation:

“ That the consents of the said Edward Bishop of Salisbury, as bishop of the diocese in which the said parishes are situate, and of the Reverend George Ernest Howman, Master of Saint Nicholas-hospital, at Salisbury, the patron (in right of his office as master of the said hospital) of the parish church of the said parish of Broad Hinton, and of Horatio Nelson Goddard, of Cliffe Pypard aforesaid, Esq. the patron of the parish church of the said parish of Cliffe Pypard, have been severally obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section before mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said Edward Bishop of Salisbury, George Ernest Howman, and Horatio Nelson Goddard, have respectively signed and sealed this representation:

“ Your Majesty’s said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed consolidation and assignment be accordingly made, and the agreement, in respect of the right of presentation, nomination, and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to the said church and consolidated chapelry, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.
