

but in each and every such case with the consent of the bishop of the diocese and of the trustees of the advowson of the vicarage of Leeds, a district for spiritual purposes, within such boundaries as by the like authority might be considered to be most suitable and convenient; and, for that purpose, to vary the boundaries of any district then subsisting; and the same Act contained a proviso for postponing the operation of any such scheme and Order in the case of a church or chapel then consecrated, till the next vacancy thereof, unless with the consent of the incumbent thereof then in possession :

“ And it was by the same Act provided and enacted, that a district should not be annexed under the foregoing provisions to any such church or chapel, unless or until the nave or body thereof should be or should have been made free for the use of the inhabitants of such district (subject to the order and disposal of the ordinary), nor unless or until a house of residence for the incumbent of such church or chapel should have been provided, or the means of providing the same should have been secured to the satisfaction of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and the bishop of the diocese :

“ And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the entire floor or body of the said church or chapel of Saint Saviour, in the said parish of Leeds, is entirely free, and the means of providing a house of residence for the incumbent of the said church have been secured to the satisfaction of ourselves and the Bishop of Ripon :

“ And whereas no ecclesiastical district has yet been legally assigned to the said church or chapel; and it has been represented to us, that it would be and it appears to us to be expedient, that a district, comprised within the boundaries hereinafter specified, should be forthwith set out and constituted and annexed to the said church or chapel :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and of the Reverend Richard Ward, Clerk, the present Incumbent of the said church or chapel of Saint Saviour, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, and also with the consent of the patrons of the church of Saint Peter, Leeds, in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common seal, that all that part of the parish of Leeds, particularly specified and described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be forthwith constituted and annexed to the said church or chapel of Saint Saviour, in the said parish of Leeds, so as fully to entitle the said church or chapel, and such district so annexed thereto, and the present and every future incumbent thereof, to all the benefits, rights, privileges, advantages, and attributes accruing and attaching thereto under the provisions of the same Act, and that the nave or body of the said church or chapel shall for ever hereafter be free for the use of the inhabitants of the said district (subject to the order and disposal of the ordinary); and the house of residence to be provided for the incumbent as aforesaid with its appurtenances, shall be and for ever remain the house of residence and vicarage of the incumbent and vicar of the same church or chapel, and of the parish and vicarage of Saint Saviour, in Leeds.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ All that part of the parish of Leeds, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line, commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of Richmond-road, opposite to the middle of Lower Richmond-street, and thence extending towards the north east, along the middle of such street, to the western boundary of a certain estate belonging to Richard Hutchinson, and thence along such boundary and along the boundary of an adjoining estate of the Trustees of Pious Uses, to the middle of a certain public footpath at the northern side of such last-mentioned estate, and thence towards the south east along such footpath to the middle of Upper Accommodation-road, and thence northward along the middle of such road, as far as the tunnel of the Leeds and Selby Railway, and thence eastward along the line of such tunnel and
