TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1846.

Admiralty, 21st September 1846.

DISPATCHES have been received at this Office, from Rear Admiral Inglefield, in the river Plate, addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, of which the following are copies :

Her Majesty's Ship Vernon, off
SIR, Monte Video, 17th June 1846.

ADVERTING to my letter, No. 94, of the 9th instant, I have now the satisfaction of forwarding to you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a copy of the report I have received from Captain Sir Charles Hotham, of Her Majesty's ship Gorgon, acquainting me with the successful passage of the convoy (of 110 vessels) under the protection of the English and French vessels of war, named in the margin,* past the batteries which General Rosas had caused to be erected on the heights of San Lorenzo, in the river Parana, for the express purpose of obstructing the progress of the convoy down the river.

Although this success, owing to the grounding of the British barque Caledonia, was not perfectly complete, yet I feel persuaded their Lordships will give the fullest credit to Captain Sir Charles Hotham, and his colleague, Admiral Tréhouart,

* English.—Gorgon, Firebrand, Dolphin, Fanny, Lizard, Harpy, Alecto.

French.—San Martin, Fulton, Gassendi, Coquette, Procida.

for the able and judicious manner in which their arrangements were made, and also to all the Officers, seamen, and royal marines serving under their orders, for the cool and steady manner in which this difficult service was performed, fortunately without a single casualty in any of the men of war or merchant vessels, a circumstance which, considering the strength of the position of the Buenos Ayrean batteries and continuous fire, cannot but be regarded as quite providential.

I trust their Lordships will permit me to call their attention to the names of the Officers whom Sir Charles Hotham especially brings under my notice, as having occupied situations more prominent than others.

Their Lordships will be gratified by learning, that the unanimity and good understanding which existed between Sir Charles Hotham and Admiral Tréhouart, and the respective vessels under their orders, from the commencement of the expedition, has continued, without intermission, to subsist between the two squadrons, a remark which, I am happy to be able to assert, is equally applicable to all occasions when English and French have been acting together, during the time I have had the honour to hold this command.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) S. H. INGLEFIELD, Rear
 Admiral and Commander in Chief.

The Secretary of the Admiralty.

Her Majesty's Ship Gorgon, Obligado,
SIR, 7th June 1846.

I HAVE the honour to inform you, that the convoy of merchant vessels of all nations, amounting to 110 in number, have passed the enemy's batteries and obstacles in the Parana, in comparative safety.

The severe treatment which Her Majesty's ships Alecto, Lizard, and Harpy experienced from the batteries and infantry stationed on the heights of San Lorenzo, in their respective passages up the Parana (as exemplified in my dispatch of the 20th ultimo), rendered it incumbent upon Admiral Tréhouart and myself to adopt every precaution which might tend to obviate disaster.

The heights or barrancas of San Lorenzo are sixty feet above the river, the face is nearly perpendicular, and the ground, from the edge of the cliff, recedes; a table land, of five or six miles in length, extends from one end to the other, presenting a dead level, with every facility for transporting artillery on travelling carriages to any required point.

At the north end of this barranca, the cliff projects and tends westerly, thus offering a salient point for a battery commanding from N. W. to S. E.

Half a mile to the southward, a position, nearly similar, had been selected for a second battery, and parapets, with embrazures, had been elected for single guns along the remainder of the barranca; the general breadth of the navigable channel is about three quarters of a mile, widening gradually from the north west entrance, with a current of three knots per hour running through.

It was obvious that the nicest gunnery could alone drive the enemy from their guns; the immense thickness of the embrazures and parapets protected them from a flanking fire, and such was the character of the ground that even with a spy glass nothing could be seen but the wheels of a carriage or muzzle of a gun.

Having carefully weighed these difficulties, Admiral Tréhouart and I decided upon the following plan of attack, as best suited to the protection of our convoy.

That the heavy steamers of both squadrons should anchor and engage the batteries during the time the convoy were passing, and that a masked rocket battery should be prepared on the island in front of the second battery, distant about one thousand two hundred yards: the convoy in the mean time passing at allotted distances under cover of the sailing ships and small steamers named in the margin.*

Accordingly, being favoured with a breeze from the northward, at 8:30 A. M., on the 4th instant, I made the general signal for the steamers, Gorgon, Firebrand, Alecto, Gassendi, and Fulton, to weigh. At 10:20 A. M. the Gorgon opened her fire; and the Firebrand and Gassendi, having reached their appointed station one thousand yards from the north battery, anchored in an enfilading position.

The three remaining steamers, Gorgon, Fulton, and Alecto, proceeded past the batteries and anchored nine hundred yards from the barrancas abreast, and two thousand from the first battery.

On the first gun being fired from the Gorgon, the rocket party unmasked their battery, and opened a heavy and effective fire, which helped to divert the enemy's attention from the three steamers who were passing within grape and musket range.

At 10:40 A. M. the action had fairly commenced between the batteries, field pieces, infantry, and the steamers of the combined force, and the English rocket party; a channel five hundred yards wide was left between the steamers and the islands for the convoy.

At 11:50 A. M. the Dolphin, leading the convoy, passed the Gorgon, the respective divisions sailed by in their proper order, about twenty only remained, when I was sorry to see the British barque Caledonia, uninjured, and with the wind dead aft, run on shore on a small bank off the point of the second island. In so ill assorted and numerous a convoy of all sizes, badly equipped, and lumbered with enormous deck cargoes, I confess I calculated on the loss of some, but I had hoped to have been spared the pain of witnessing a fine English barque handled in a style by no means creditable to those on board, and grounded without any reason under the enemy's fire.

I immediately signalized Alecto and Lizard to proceed to her assistance. At 12:50, the convoy having all passed, I made the general signal to weigh.

The Caledonia still remaining immoveably fixed, she had beaten over one bank, and lay on her port side, with her bottom exposed to the enemy's fire, through which six or seven shot had already been put, and the Officers sent on that service being unanimously of opinion that she could not be got off without discharging her cargo, by my direction she was set on fire to prevent her falling into the enemy's hands, and two coasting vessels, similarly situated, were also destroyed.

This was the only drawback to a most satisfactory day; the arrangements answered even better than my colleague or myself had dared to anticipate. The enemy brought into play from sixteen to twenty guns; during five months they had prepared heated shot and studied every stratagem to secure themselves and punish us, instead of which we dismounted some of their guns, and drove them repeatedly from others.

We selected the steam force in consequence of the advantage which their pivot guns give, and it is difficult to imagine finer gunnery than they displayed. Marvellous to say, that although each of these vessels were hulled and hit repeatedly, and that more than three fourths of the convoy were severally struck, there is not a man killed or wounded amongst us. I have received every assistance and support from the Officers of this squadron, but some have occupied situations more prominent than others, and I feel it my duty to bring them to your notice.

The Officers in command of the rocket party were Lieutenant L. B. Mackinnon, Her Majesty's ship Alecto; First Lieutenant C. L. Barnard, royal marine artillery, Her Majesty's ship Firebrand; Mr. David Ham, gunner, Her Majesty's ship Alecto; the party were obliged to remain two days and nights concealed under the enemy's nose, and they, with the marine artillery and seamen, deserve credit for the discipline and skill with which they conducted their operations, and I consider that they rendered us most essential service. I have repeatedly derived advantage from the ability and zeal of Mr. Henry Baker, Master of this ship, during my absence from the Gorgon; he made a most excellent chart of the passage and channels near San Lorenzo, and he piloted this ship, leading the steam force past the batteries, much to my satisfaction.

Monsieur Mazères, Lieutenant commanding the French steamer Fulton, on seeing the disastrous state of the Caledonia, hastened to her assistance, and I hope this Officer will permit me to thank him for his uniform and effective co-operation.

In all my communications I have alluded to the great satisfaction I have derived in having Admiral Tréhouart as a colleague; during eight months we have acted together, and I make bold to say that more perfect harmony and unanimity has never existed than between the two Commanding Officers, to whom yourself and Admiral Lainé entrusted the direction of the service in the Parana. I have, &c.

Commander in Chief.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of August 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for altering the bounds of the districts of Pitsmoor and Wicker, in the county and diocese of York.

"Whereas it is by the secondly-recited Act enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority provided in the first-recited Act, at any time or times within twelve months after the date of the licence of the minister first licensed to any separate district, constituted under the provisions of the same Act, to alter the bounds of such district, although any alteration be not required with a view to the constituting of another separate district; provided always, that the scheme for making any such alteration shall be subject to all the provisions relating to schemes for constituting separate districts under the said first-recited Act; and that any portion of any such separate district, which by any such alteration as aforesaid shall become detached or excluded therefrom, shall, to all intents and purposes, again belong to, and form part of, the parish, chapelry, or district out of which such portion was taken, upon such separate district being originally constituted, or to and of any new district, as shall be determined by the like authority:

"And whereas the said districts of Pitsmoor and Wicker were duly constituted out of the chapelry of Attercliffe, in the parish of Sheffield, in the said county and diocese of York, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, by a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and since duly gazetted:

" And whereas it has since been represented to us, and appears to us to be expedient, that the bounds of such districts should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned :

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the imaginary line forming the boundary between the said districts of Pitsmoor and Wicker shall be altered as follows ; that is to say, instead of extending along the whole length of Rock-street, as appears by the said scheme, such imaginary line shall only extend along the middle of such street to a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) opposite to the middle of Marcus-street, and thence towards the north west along the middle of such last-mentioned street, as far as Fox-street, and thence towards the south west along the middle of such last-mentioned street, as far as a certain street or road called Pye-bank, and thence towards the south east along the middle of such street or road, and of Bridge Houses, to the Iron Bridge over the river Dun.

" And we further recommend and propose, that the portion of the said district of Pitsmoor, which, by reason of such alteration as aforesaid, shall become detached and excluded therefrom, shall, to all intents and purposes, belong to, and form part of, the said district of Wicker.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas due notice of the said scheme has been given in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, and no objections have been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette; pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of August 1846,

PRESENT

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

" Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council, that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided :

“ And whereas the said parish of Manchester is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bird Bishop of Chester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Manchester, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Saint Mark, Hulme.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

" The district of SAINT MARK, HULME, being—

" All that part of the township of Hulme, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of the Chester-road, and opposite to the middle of Great Jackson-street, and thence extending towards the north east along the middle of such road as far as the bridge over the river Medlock at Knott-mill, and thence eastward along the middle of such river as far as the western boundary of the township of Chorlton-upon-Medlock, and thence southward along such western boundary as far as the middle of George-street, and thence towards the south west along the middle of such last-mentioned street, as far as the middle of Great Jackson-street aforesaid, and thence towards the north west along the middle of such last-mentioned street to the point where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and patrons of the churches of the parish and chapelry out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of Her said Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act for making better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes;" and whereas one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and no objections have been made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting three separate districts for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for

“And whereas the said parish of Stoke Damerel is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular parts of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described, neither of which parts at present contains within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be respectively constituted separate districts in manner hereinafter set forth:

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all those parts of the said parish of Stoke Damerel, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered respectively 1., 2., and 3.,—all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof respectively, are delineated and set forth in the maps or plans hereunto also annexed, and respectively numbered in like manner,—shall be constituted separate districts for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be respectively named as follows, that is to say; the district, numbered 1. in the said schedule, shall be named, “The District of Saint Paul, Devonport;” the district, numbered 2. therein, shall be named, “The District of Saint Mary, Devonport;” and the district, numbered 3. therein, shall be named, “The District of Saint Stephen, Devonport.”

“And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of each of the districts so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within either of such districts, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to the minister for the time being of such district the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within either of such districts shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said respective sums of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of either of such districts or new parishes shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

" No. 1.—The district of SAINT PAUL, DEVONPORT, being—

" All that part of the parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, bounded as follows; that is to say, on the north partly by the district of Saint James, Devonport, in the said diocese, and partly by the fortifications; on the east by the same fortifications; on the south partly by the northern wall of Her Majesty's dockyard and partly by an imaginary line extending eastward from the north eastern angle of such dockyard along the middle of Boot-lane as far as the middle of King-street, and thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned street to a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed and numbered 1.) opposite to the middle of Princes-street, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned street to the middle of Tavistock-lane, and thence southward along the middle of such lane to a point (marked b as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of Cherry Garden-street, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned street across Saint Aubyn-street to a point (marked c as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of a certain lane leading into Fore-street, and thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned lane as far as the middle of Fore-street aforesaid, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned street as far as the fortifications aforesaid; and on the west by the Hamoaze.

" No. 2.—The district of SAINT MARY, DEVONPORT, being—

" All that part of the said parish of Stoke Damerel bounded as follows; that is to say, on the north by the said district of Saint Paul, Devonport; on the east partly by such last-mentioned district and partly by an imaginary line extending westward along the middle of Cherry Garden-street aforesaid as far as the middle of Catherine-street, and thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned street and of James-street to a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed and numbered 2.) opposite to the middle of James-street East, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned street as far as the middle of Monument or Windmill-street, and thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned street as far as the middle of Mount-street, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned street to a point (marked b on the last-mentioned map or plan) opposite to the middle of Fort-street, and thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned street as far as the middle of Prospect-row; on the south by an imaginary line extending westward along the middle of Prospect-row aforesaid as far as the middle of James-street, and thence southward along such street and in a straight direction to the south eastern angle of the dockyard aforesaid.

" No. 3.—The district of SAINT STEPHEN, DEVONPORT, being—

" All that part of the said parish of Stoke Damerel bounded as follows; that is to say, on the north by an imaginary line extending eastward from the eastern boundary of the said district of Saint Mary, Devonport, along the middle of Mount-street aforesaid to a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed and numbered 3.) opposite to the middle of George-lane, and thence northward along the middle of such lane to a point (marked b on the last-mentioned map or plan) opposite to the middle of Ker-street, and thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned street to a point (marked c on such last-mentioned map or plan) opposite to the middle of the street or road called the Back of George-street; on the east by an imaginary line extending southward along the middle of such street or road; on the south by an imaginary line extending eastward along the middle of Prospect-row, and continuing in a straight direction as far as George-lane aforesaid, and thence towards the north west along the middle of such lane to a point (marked d on the last-mentioned map or plan) opposite to the south western corner of the garden belonging to the house numbered 40 and 44, in George-street, and thence eastward along the southern boundary of such garden and house as far as the middle of George-street aforesaid, and thence southward along the middle of such street to the southern end thereof, and thence eastward along the southern boundary of the house and premises being the last on the eastern side of such street, as far as the middle of the said street or road called the Back of George-street; and on the west by the said district of Saint Mary, Devonport."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the church of the parish out of which it is intended that the districts therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and certain observations and objections offered by the said incumbent, have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with the said scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding such observations and objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

No. 20643.

B

Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 27th day of August 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England did, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," prepare and lay before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of December now last past, "for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Yeovil, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells," and an Order was made by Her Majesty in Council, on the twenty-first day of January also now last past, for ratifying such scheme :

"And whereas it has since been discovered, that a portion of the parish of Kingston, otherwise Pitney, in the said county and diocese, was included within the boundaries of the said district, as set forth in the schedule to the said scheme, and by reason of that fact not being known to the said Commissioners at the time of preparing and passing the scheme, the draft thereof was not delivered or transmitted, as the Act requires, to the incumbent or patrons of the said parish of Kingston, otherwise Pitney, and the said scheme and the Order for ratifying the same are consequently null and void :

"And whereas the said Commissioners have, in pursuance of the said Act, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council another scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act " to make better provision for the spiritual care " of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parishes of Yeovil and Kingston, otherwise Pitney, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

" Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the mean time, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided:

" And whereas the said parishes of Yeovil and Kingston, otherwise Pitney, are respectively of great extent, and contain a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular parts of such parishes hereinafter mentioned, such parts not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be together constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Richard Bishop of Bath and Wells, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Yeovil, and also all that part of the said parish of Kingston, otherwise Pitney, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be together constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, " The District of Hendford."

" And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner, as shall be approved by the like authority :

“ And whereas a church or chapel has been erected within the said district of Hendford, herein recommended to be constituted, and such church or chapel has been offered for approval by us, and for consecration, as the church or chapel of the said district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof; and whereas also a sum of two hundred and eighty pounds has been deposited with us, upon trust to be applied, in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient, as a permanent fund, towards the repairs and maintenance of the fabric of the said church or chapel:

“ And whereas the principal contributors towards the said church or chapel have, by an instrument in writing under their hands, nominated to us William Phelps, of Montacute, in the said county of Somerset, Esquire, as the patron of the said district and contemplated new parish for the first and second turns:

“ We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, as the case may be, shall, for the first and second nominations only, be assigned to and vested in the said William Phelps, his heirs and assigns.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of HENDFORD being—

“ All that part of the parish of Yeovil, and also all that part of the parish of Kingston, otherwise Pitney, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, situate on the southern side of an imaginary line extending eastward from the boundary of the adjoining parish of Preston, along the middle of Huish-lane, across Hendford-street, along the middle of the street called ‘The Borough,' through the market place, and along the middle of Middle-street, and of the Sherborne turnpike road, as far as the river Yeo."

And whereas, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, the draft of the scheme herein recited has been duly transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the said parish of Yegvil, and also to the incumbent and patrons of the said parish of Kingston, otherwise Pitney, out of which two parishes it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken; and one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and certain observations and objections, offered by the incumbent of the said parish of Kingston, otherwise Pitney, have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with the said recited scheme:

And whereas the said recited scheme has, notwithstanding such observations and objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

C. C. Greville.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Edinburgh.

Edinburgh Regiment of Militia.

John Fletcher, younger, Esq. to be Captain, vice William Fraser, resigned. Dated 27th June 1846.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northumberland.

Northumberland and Newcastle Yeomanry Cavalry.

Lieutenant John Cookson to be Captain, vice Weaverson, deceased. Dated 10th September 1846.

Cornet Adam Atkinson to be Lieutenant, vice Cookson, promoted. Dated 10th September 1846.

Cornet James Henry Hollis Bradford Atkinson to be Lieutenant, vice Parker, resigned. Dated 10th September 1846.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Croft Unitarian Chapel, situated at Southworth with Croft, in the parish of Southworth with Croft, in the Registrar's district of Winwick, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 4th day of September 1846, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 19th day of September 1846,

John Fitchett Marsh, Superintendent Registrar of the Warrington district.

P. DEANS, Registrar of Bank Returns.

The Oxford and Salisbury Direct Railway Company.

WE, the undersigned, five Shareholders in the above Company, hereby, in exercise of the powers of the Act of Parliament, ninth and tenth Victoria, cap. 28, call a Meeting of the Shareholders therein, to be held at the Guildhall Coffee-house, in the city of London, on Friday the 2d day of October next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, for the purpose of determining whether the Partnership or Company above named shall be dissolved; and, further, whether such dissolution shall or not be deemed an act of bankruptcy.—Dated this 18th day of September 1846.

Clitheroe Junction Railway.

AT a Meeting of the Shareholders in the Clitheroe Junction Railway Company, held at the Star Inn, in Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, on Saturday the 19th day of September 1846, pursuant to an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to facilitate the dissolution of certain railway companies," Samuel Ashton, Esq. one of the Committee, was elected Chairman, and Frederick Copley Hulton, Thomas Birkbeck, and John Harrison, Esqrs. three of the Shareholders in the said Company, were elected Scrutineers, pursuant to the said Act.

It was thereupon moved and seconded,

"That the Clitheroe Junction Railway Company be forthwith dissolved, pursuant to an Act, intituled 'An Act to facilitate the dissolution of certain railway companies,' and that the dissolution of the Company shall not be taken to be an act of bankruptcy, but that the affairs of the Company be wound up according to the rules applicable to the dissolution of partnership undertakings."

The Chairman having put the question, and the Scrutineers proceeded to record and cast up the votes, declared, that persons representing 9553 shares, being at least one third part of the shares in the Undertaking actually issued, were present, and had voted in favour of both questions. The Chairman thereupon declared, that both questions had been carried in conformity with the provisions of the Act under which the Meeting had been held.

London and Birmingham Extension, and Northampton, Daventry, Leamington, and Warwick Railway Company.

AT a Meeting of the Shareholders of this Company, called by virtue of the Act ninth and tenth Victoria, cap. 28, intituled "An Act to facilitate the dissolution of certain railway companies," and held at the Hall of Commerce, in the city of London, on Friday the 4th day of September 1846.

No Member of the Committee being present and willing to take the chair, the Meeting elected Thomas Pocock, Esq. Chairman, who, having taken the chair, Thomas William Powell, Elias Davis, and William Frederick Spackman were, immediately afterwards, elected by the Meeting Scrutineers, to verify the votes of the Shareholders entitled to vote, and to declare the same.

It was then moved and duly seconded, that this Company be now dissolved.

It was also moved and seconded, that the vote of dissolution shall not be taken to be an act of bankruptcy.

The Chairman duly put the questions from the chair, and the Scrutineers proceeded to take and record the votes thereon, and made the following report:

"At a General Meeting of the Shareholders of the London and Birmingham Extension, and Northampton, Daventry, Leamington, and Warwick Railway Company, held at the Hall of Commerce, Threadneedle-street, in the city of London, this 4th day of September 1846, pursuant to a requisition signed by five Shareholders, and left at the Office of the Company on the 15th day of August last, and afterwards by notice inserted in the Royal Gazette on the 25th day of August last, and in the Standard, Sun, and Globe daily newspapers on the 26th day of August last.

"We, the undersigned, having been appointed Scrutineers to ascertain the number of votes given for and against the dissolution and bankruptcy of the above-mentioned Railway Company, do hereby certify, that the numbers on the several questions were as follows:

For the dissolution,	-	4636.
Against it,	-	none.
For the dissolution being an act of bankruptcy,	-	110.
Against it,	-	4321.

*Thos. Wm. Powell.
Elias Davis.
W. F. Spackman."*

And the number of shares issued and paid up, prior to the 31st day of March last, being 18,715, and the number voting at this Meeting not being sufficient to constitute a Meeting under the Act, the Meeting was and is therefore adjourned to Thursday next the 10th day of September instant, to be then held at the same place, at one o'clock precisely.

*Thos. Pocock, Chairman.
Elias Davis,
W. F. Spackman,* } Scrutineers.
Thos. Wm. Powell,

At such adjourned Meeting, duly advertized according to the said Act, and held at the Hall of Commerce, Threadneedle-street, in the city of London, on Thursday the 10th day of September 1846, Thomas Pocock, Esq. Chairman, the minutes of the last Meeting having been read by the Chairman, the Scrutineers proceeded to record and cast up the votes, and certified that, including those who had voted at the original Meeting, persons representing 6796 shares were present, that the holders of 6671 shares had voted in favour of dissolution; against it, none; that the holders of 190 shares had voted that the dissolution be an act of bankruptcy, and the holders of 6481 shares had voted against the dissolution being an act of bankruptcy.

We, the undersigned, Chairman and Scrutineers, do, therefore, hereby certify, that the question of the dissolution of the said Company was carried in the affirmative, and the question that such dissolution be an act of bankruptcy was carried in the negative.

And we further hereby certify, that by such decision, the said Copartnership or Company formed, or intended to be formed, was and is dissolved from the 10th day of the present month of September 1846.

CONTRACT FOR MARINE CLOTHING AND NECESSARIES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 31, 1846.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 1st of October next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning,

All such Clothing and Woollen and Linen Articles of Necessaries as may, from time to time, be demanded for the Royal Marines and for the Artillery Companies of the Royal Marines.

The Clothing to be supplied either made up or in materials for making up.

A form of the tender and the conditions of the contract may be obtained at the said Office, and patterns of the articles may be seen on application at the Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of eleven and two.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £3000, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS for SALT BEEF and PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 3, 1846.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 24th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT MEAT,

Of the Cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 12,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 18,000 Navy Tierces of Pork.

in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only, as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

Two thirds of the beef to be delivered in tierces, and the remainder in barrels, and a quantity of pork, equal to 250 tierces (and for which separate tenders are to be made), to be delivered in casks, containing 100 pounds each, and of the remaining quantity of pork, three fourths to be delivered in tierces, and the remaining one fourth in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods:

Beef, two thirds on or before the 31st March 1847, and one third on or before the 31st May 1847;

Pork, one third on or before the 31st March 1847, and two thirds on or before the 31st May 1847; and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantities beyond those specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork (except for the pork, to be delivered in casks containing 100 pounds each), will be admitted.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorized in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef, and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words, "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.
