

this week, being resolved not to leave the Army as long as there is a prospect of any considerable Action. The Emperor has made the Count de Scherf-ferberg Governor of Newbrusel; a good Garrison is put into the place; and the Country People of the Neighbourhood are summoned in to help to repair the Fortifications ruined in the Siege; The Bassa, who commanded there, is dead of his wounds; We are assured, that near 6000 persons were killed at the taking of that place; some Turkish Women and their Children who were made Prisoners, have been brought hither. We have an account from Croatia, that General Leslie was come back to Pirovitzza, where he would rest his Troops, after which, and that the 3000 Croats he expected had joined him he would undertake some fresh action, and that it was said he designed to attack Poffega the Capital City of Sclavonia. They write from Upper Hungary, that the Town of Esperies makes a very desperate Defence, and that they have endured three Assaults, with considerable loss of Men on both sides. It is said the Duke of Lorraine will send four or 5000 Men to reinforce General Schultz; though it is not doubted but he will have taken the place before they can join him. The news we had of the Turks having abandoned Novigrad, is not confirmed; They were indeed in so great a Consternation upon the blowing up of their Magazine, followed with the news of the defeat of their Army near Gran, that they were about leaving the Town, but that the Viceroy of Buda sent them positive orders to remain there, with a promise to supply them with whatever they wanted. The Princes de Conti and de la Rochefort, have taken their leave, in order to their return home. The Letters from Cracow tell us, that the Polish Army is in the Field, and that its said they will attack Barrand Meidzibos, to block up Caminiec.

Hamburg, Aug. 31. The Letters from Leopol of the 9th Instant tell us, that the Polish Army was marched from Gumari towards the Nister; That it was said their design was to attack Miedzibos; and that the Crown General had been informed by some Prisoners he took, that a great Body of Tartars commanded by their Cham, was marching to join with 12000 Turks, in order to make head against the Poles. From Warsaw they write of the 17th, that the Court was still at Villa Nova, the King having put off for some days the journey he intended to take towards Leopol; but that his eldest Son Prince James was going to the Army. That the Polish Envoy at Moscow hath given the King an account, that the Czars had consented that Commissioners be appointed on both sides to meet at some convenient place on the Frontiers, amicably to adjust the Differences depending about the Limits. We are told from Berlin, that the Heer Groot was arrived there; being sent by the Duke of Hanover, to make some Proposals to his Electoral Highness, in order to the accommodating the Differences between the Duke of Sax and this City.

Cologne, Sept. 4. Yesterday arrived here the Commissioners appointed by the Elector of Trier and the Duke of Fuliers, in pursuance of the Authority given them by the Emperor for the examining and settling the Affairs of this City, which have been of late in so much disorder; They were received at their coming into the Town by many of the principal Inhabitants, and were afterwards Complimented in the name of the whole Magistracy. This day they have begun to inquire into the late Disturbances, and for that purpose summoned several Persons to come before them, who appeared accordingly. The Bishop of Strasbourg is still here. They write from Strasbourg, that the Princes de Conti and de la Rochefort arrived there the 30th past from Hungary in their return to France.

Amsterdam, Aug. 30. The 28th Instant arrived here a Galiot, which parted on Thursday last off of Holland with three East India Ships, viz. the Exchange of Amsterdam, the Sambi, and the S. Martin, which came on the 8th of February last from Batavia, and the 18th of May from the Cape of Good Hope; The first of these is for the account of the Chamber of Rotterdam, the second for that of this City, and the third for the Chamber of Zeeland.

Hague, September 7. The Troops that are to be at the review on the Veluwe, which will be on the 11th or 12th Instant, are marching thither. The States of Holland and West Friesland will reassemble the 13th; And then its believed they will come to a resolution about the State of the War which has been so long before them. The Seur Guldensteepe is very suddenly expected here in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Crown of Sweden, we have an account of his departure from Stockholm; Its believed that upon his arrival the Alliance concluded between the King of Sweden and this State about three years since, which is now going to expire, will be renewed. The States General have named the Heer Goes to go and reside on their part at the Court of Denmark. The Heer Van Delf Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburg parted from hence yesterday for Cleves. The Letters from Vienna of the 26th past tell us, that the Serassquier Bassa had caused seize, all of the principal Officers of his Army to be strangled for not doing their duty in the late Fight near Gran; That he had passed the Danube at Buda, and being reinforced with several fresh Troops, marched towards Vuccia, and that the Duke of Lorraine having advice of it, repass'd the Danube with the Imperial Army the 24th near Comorra, and advanced towards the Enemy.

Paris September 7. The Court parted the third Instant from Versailles for Chambor. The same day the Princes de Conti and de la Rochefort returned hither from Hungary, and the next morning they followed the Court to pay their Duty to the King.
