By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the twelfth day of January next, We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twelfth day of January next, to Tuesday the nineteenth day of January next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: and We do hereby further, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said Tuesday the nineteenth day of January next, assemble and be holden for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Tuesday the nineteenth day of January next.

Given at Our Court, at Windsor, this nineteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and in the tenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of December 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parishes of Kenwyn and Kea, and the district of Chacewater, all in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as hereinafter provided:

“ And whereas the said parishes of Kenwyn

and Kea, and district of Chacewater, are respectively of great extent, and contain a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of each of such parishes and of such district hereinafter mentioned and described, neither of which parts at present contains within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be together constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Kenwyn, and also all that part of the said parish of Kea, and also all that part of the said district of Chacewater, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be together constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Baldhu.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority:

“ And whereas a sufficient sum of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities to produce the annual sum of fifty pounds has been contributed, and transferred to our account and into our names in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by the Right Honourable George Henry Earl of Falmouth, towards the permanent endowment of the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish of Baldhu, so herein recommended to be constituted; and it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, in consideration of such contribution, the first nomination of a minister to the said district be assigned to the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth:

“ We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district of Baldhu, and the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, for the first such nomination, be assigned to and vested in the said George Henry Earl of Falmouth.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of BALDHU, being—

“ All those parts of the parishes of Kenwyn and Kea, and the district of Chacewater, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter, comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of the turnpike road from Chacewater to Truro, and opposite to the middle of the high road from Polstraies to Twelve Heads, and thence extending eastward along the middle of such first-mentioned road to a point (marked b as aforesaid) near a certain place called Glowyth, and opposite to the middle of the high road to Hugos, and thence first southward along the middle of such last-mentioned road as far as Hugos aforesaid, and thence continuing southward along the middle of another road leading by Lambourn to the middle of the road from Godron Barrow to Pound-lane, and thence towards the south east in a straight direction, four hundred and forty yards or thereabouts, to the head of the watercourse called Helston Water, and thence along the middle of such watercourse as far as the middle of the road leading to Carnon-bridge, and thence towards the south west along the middle of such last-mentioned road to the foot of the said bridge on the Kea side, and thence towards the north west along the southern boundary of the said parish of Kea to a point (marked c as aforesaid) at Twelve Heads, and in the middle of the high road from Twelve Heads to Polstraires aforesaid, and thence first towards the north east, along the middle of such last-mentioned road, to the point where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the parishes, and to the incumbent and patron of the church or chapel of the district, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbents and patrons have respectively consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of December 1846,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Camborne, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the mean time, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as hereinafter provided:

“ And whereas the said parish of Camborne is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Camborne, described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Penponds.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“ The district of PENPONDS, being—

“ All that part of the parish of Camborne, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter, situate on the western side of an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked a on the map or plan hereunto annexed) in the middle of the road to Barriper, and on the south western boundary of such parish, and thence extending twenty-two yards or thereabouts as far as the middle of the road to Ramsgate, and thence towards the north east along the middle of such last-mentioned road

as far as the road from Ramsgate to Camborne, and thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned road, across the Hayle and Redruth Railway, to a point (marked b as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of Vounder Vean-lane, and thence westward along the middle of such lane as far as the middle of the road from Penponds aforesaid to Treswithian, and thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to a boundary stone marked P. D. No. 1, and situate on the eastern side of such road, and thence towards the north east eighty-five yards or thereabouts to another boundary stone marked P. D. No. 2, and situate near a stile in the churchway leading from Treswithian to Camborne aforesaid, and thence towards the south east along the middle of such churchway to another boundary stone marked P. D. No. 3, and situate at the southern end of the boundary hedge between two fields numbered 1,170 and 1,171 on the parish map of Camborne, and thence northward along the middle of such boundary hedge, across the turnpike road from Camborne to Hayle, and along the boundary hedge between two other fields numbered 1,165 and 1,167 on the said parish map, across the road from Treswithian to Rosewarne, to another boundary stone marked P. D. No. 4, and situate near a certain watercourse which divides the field numbered 1,080 from the fields numbered 1,093 and 1,094 on the said parish map, and thence also northward along the middle of such watercourse to another boundary stone marked P. D. No. 5, and situate near another watercourse which runs at the side of the road from Rosewarne to Puggis, and thence towards the south east along the middle of such last-mentioned watercourse to the middle of the road from Camborne to Rosewarne, and thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to a point (marked c as aforesaid) opposite to the middle of the road leading to Rosewarne Downs Mills, and thence towards the north west along the middle of such last-mentioned road to the Red River."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patroness of the church of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and such incumbent and patroness have respectively consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

MEMORANDUM.

The date of the commission of Major John Blackburn, of the 85th Regiment of Foot, is 29th December 1846, and not 29th December 1845, as stated in the Gazette of the 29th instant.

Whitehall, December 28, 1846.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of Archibald late Marquess of Ailsa, Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle (which happened on or about the 8th day of September last), the title and dignity of Marquess of Ailsa devolved upon his grandson and heir Archibald now Marquess of Ailsa, as eldest son and heir of Archibald Kennedy, Esq. commonly called Earl of Cassillis, whilst living the son and heir apparent of the said Archibald late Marquess of Ailsa, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brothers and sister of the said Archibald now Marquess of Ailsa cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their late father the said Archibald Kennedy, commonly called Earl of Cassillis, had survived his father the said Archibald late Marquess of Ailsa, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Marquess of Ailsa, Her Majesty has been pleased to ordain and declare, that David Kennedy, Esq. Gilbert Kennedy, Esq. William Kennedy, Esq. Fergus Kennedy, Esq. Nigel Kennedy, Esq. and Dame Hannah-Eleanor, wife of Sir John Andrew Cathcart, of Carleton, in the shire of Ayr, Bart. the younger sons and daughter of the said Archibald Kennedy, commonly called Earl of Cassillis, and brothers and sister of the said Archibald now Marquess of Ailsa, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same titles, place, pre-eminence, and precedence, as if their said late father had survived his father Archibald late Marquess of Ailsa, and had thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Marquess of Ailsa:

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

WILLIAM REES, of Haverfordwest, Solicitor for the above-named Plaintiffs.

Court of Chancery,

Master of the Rolls.—Tuesday the 22d day of December, in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1846, between James Hicks (since deceased), plaintiff, Ebenezer Keat, defendant, by original bill; and between the said James Hicks, plaintiff, James Foster Groom, James Bradshaw, and John Lamb (since deceased), defendants, by bill of revivor and supplement; and between Thomas Stockham (since deceased), plaintiff, the said Ebenezer Keat, James Foster Groom, James Bradshaw, and John Lamb, defendants, by bill of revivor; and between Mary Stockham, plaintiff, the said Ebenezer Keat, James Foster Groom, and James Bradshaw, defendants, by bill of revivor.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Boyle, of Counsel for the plaintiff in the lastly-above-mentioned cause, that the said plaintiff filed her bill of revivor in this Court against the defendants, and took out process of subpoena against the defendants to the said bill of revivor, on the 29th day of August last and on the 21st day of December instant, requiring them to appear to the plaintiff's said bill; that it appears by the affidavit of Sarah Elizabeth Edwards, that she knows the said defendant, Ebenezer Keat, and that he was living at her house, situate at No. 9, Bridge-street, George-street, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey, from about the month of April 1844 to about the 11th day of January 1845, during which time, and up to the day last mentioned, she was in the daily habit of seeing him there, that the said Ebenezer Keat left her house on or about the day last mentioned, and resided for about a month, as she believes, at the house of a Mr. Storey, Tailor, of John-street, Horslydown, in the county of Surrey, and that she saw the said Ebenezer Keat about one month after he left her house as aforesaid, in Tooley-street, London-bridge, in the said county of Surrey, where she accidentally met him, which is the last time that she ever saw the said Ebenezer Keat, and since that time she never knew where he resided. That it appears by the joint affidavit of John Wright and John Kyme Wright (amongst other things), that the deponent, John Kyme Wright, had made diligent enquiries and used all due means in his power to find the said Ebenezer Keat, or his residence, in order to serve him with the said first-mentioned writ of subpoena, but that deponent had not been able to ascertain where he might be found or where he resides, that deponent is informed and believes that the said Ebenezer Keat is in very indigent circumstances, and has no settled place of abode or employment, and that deponent is further informed, that he intends to keep out of the way to avoid being served with a subpoena to appear to the said bill of revivor; and, from such information, and the reasons in the said affidavit mentioned, the deponent believes that the said defendant Ebenezer Keat intends to keep out of the way, to avoid being served with such subpoena; and that deponent, on the 21st day of December instant, issued another writ of subpoena against the said Ebenezer Keat, James Foster Groom, and James Bradshaw, at the suit of the said Mary Stockham, commanding them to appear to the said bill of revivor; It is, thereupon, ordered, that the defendant Ebenezer Keat do appear to the plaintiff's said bill of revivor on or before the first day of next Hilary Term. And it is ordered, that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with the notice, pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette, on Friday the 1st day of January next. And it is ordered, that a copy of this Order, with the aforesaid notice, be left at the office of Mr. Davies, in Quality-court, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex; at the house of Mr. Ward, No. 37, Webber-row, Blackfriars-road, in the county of Surrey; and at the house of Mr. Perry, in Mill-pond-street, Bermondsey, in the said county of Surrey.

F. H. D.—Entd. J. S.

Ebenezer Keat, take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff, Mary Stockham, may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as she may appear to be entitled to on her own shewing.

JNO. WRIGHT, No. 20, King's-road, Bedford-row, Solicitor for the above-named plaintiff, Mary Stockham.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Govey versus Meeres, the creditors of Richard Govey, formerly of Assembly-row, Mile-end, in the county of Middlesex, and late of High-street, Poplar, in the same county, Gentleman, deceased (who died in the month of February 1846), are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to leave their claims of debts before William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and to establish such claims before the said Master, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree and the General Orders of the said Court.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 8th day of December 1846, Thomas Rawbone and Edward Hawks, both of Hollywood Brewery, Little Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex, Brewers, have assigned, in manner therein mentioned, all their estate and effects unto James Randell, of Queenhithe, in the city of London, Malt Factor, and Henry Benjamin Walmsley, of 24, New-road, Mile-end, in the said county of Middlesex, Malt Factor, their executors, administrators, and assigns, upon trust, for the benefit of all the creditors of the said Thomas Rawbone and Edward Hawks, as therein mentioned or referred to; that the said indenture was duly executed by the said Thomas Rawbone and Edward Hawks, respectively, on the said 8th day of December last, and by the said James Randell and Henry Benjamin Walmsley on the 21st day of December last; and the execution of the said indenture by the said Thomas Rawbone is attested by Thomas Parker, of 18, Saint Paul's Church-yard in the city of London, Solicitor; and the execution of the same indenture by the said Edward Hawks is attested by Robert Shafto Hawks, of Three Crown-square, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, Solicitor; and the execution thereof by the said James Randell and Henry Benjamin Walmsley, respectively, is attested by Benjamin Stenning, of 13, London-street, Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Solicitor; and notice is hereby further given, that the said deed is left at the office of Messrs. M. Leod and Stenning, of No. 13, London-street, Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Solicitors, for execution by such creditors as have not yet executed the same.—Dated this 1st day of January 1847.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Thomas Bowles, of Horsmonden, in the county of Kent, Farmer and Licensed Victualler, by indenture, bearing date the 22d day of December instant, assigned unto George Prentis, of Maidstone, in the said county of Kent, Wine and Spirit Merchant, all his personal estate and effects, upon the trusts therein mentioned, for the equal benefit of his creditors; and that the said indenture was duly executed by the said Thomas Bowles and George Prentis on the day of the date thereof, and was duly attested; and all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said George Prentis on or before the 4th day of January next; and notice is hereby further given, that a meeting of the creditors will be held at the Gun Inn, Horsmonden, on Monday the said 4th day of January next, at twelve o'clock precisely, when the accounts relating to the said estate will be produced for inspection and examination; and notice is also given, that all such creditors as shall not execute the said indenture, within three calendar months from the date thereof, will, in pursuance of the provisions therein contained, be excluded from all benefit under the trusts thereby declared.—Maidstone, December 28, 1846.

WHEREAS by an indenture of release and assignment, bearing date the 3d day of December 1846, made, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, for rendering a release as effectual for the conveyance of freehold estates as a lease and release by the same parties, between James Cross, of Shaw-house, near Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, Woollen Manufacturer, of the first part; Joseph Hamilton Moore, of Rochdale aforesaid, Wool Merchant, John Hulton, of Bolton-le-Moors, in the said county of Lancaster, Gentleman, and William Lambert, of Manchester, in the said county, Wool Merchant, of the second part; and the several other persons whose names and seals are, or are intended to be, thereunto subscribed and affixed, being respectively creditors of the said James Cross, of the third part; the said James Cross did release and assign unto the said Joseph Hamilton Moore, John Hulton, and William Lambert, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, all the real and personal estate and effects of the said James Cross, upon the trusts therein declared, for the equal benefit of all the creditors of the said James Cross. Notice is hereby given, that the said indenture was executed by the said James Cross, and also by the said Joseph Hamilton Moore, John Hulton, and William Lambert, respectively, on the 3d day of December now instant; and that the execution thereof by the said James Cross, Joseph Hamilton Moore, John Hulton, and William Lambert, respectively, is attested by William Heaton, of Rochdale aforesaid, Solicitor; and that the place of abode of the said Joseph Hamilton Moore is in Drake-street, within Rochdale aforesaid—that of the said John Hulton in Lower Bridgeman-street, in Great Bolton, in the said county—that of the said William Lambert at No. 20, Rosamond-place, Chorlton-on-Medlock, in the said county—and that the place of abode of the said William Heaton is at Townhead, within Rochdale aforesaid; and the said indenture now lies at the office of the said William Heaton, in Rochdale aforesaid, for execution by the creditors of the said James Cross.—Dated this 29th day of December 1846.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture of appointment, dated the 26th day of December 1846, and made between James Stevens, of Beccles, in the county of Suffolk, Butcher, of the one part, and Lewis Cottingham, of Reydon, in the said county, Gentleman, and John Mayhew, of Beccles aforesaid, Draper, of the other part; and by an indenture of assignment, bearing even date with the said indenture of appointment, and made between the said James Stevens, of the first part, the said Lewis Cottingham and John Mayhew, of the second part; and the several persons who by themselves, or by persons on their behalf, and by them duly authorized, have subscribed their names and affixed their seals to the said indenture of assignment, being, respectively, creditors of the said James Stevens, of the third part; he the said James Stevens hath conveyed and assigned all his real and personal estate and effects whatsoever unto the said Lewis Cottingham and John Mayhew, upon certain trusts (after satisfying certain mortgages, debts, and expenses therein mentioned), for the benefit of all the creditors of him the said James Stevens, parties to the said indenture of assignment of the third part, rateably and in proportion to the amount of the principal of the debts or sums of money due or owing to them; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indentures were, respectively, duly executed by the said James Stevens, Lewis Cottingham, and John Mayhew, and every of them, on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and such executions were attested by, Edward Colby Sharpin, of Beccles aforesaid, Solicitor, and George Adamson, of the same place, his Clerk; and that the said indenture of assignment now lies at the office of the said Messrs. Sharpin and Swatman, at Beccles aforesaid, for execution by the creditors of the said James Stevens; and all persons indebted to the estate of the said James Stevens are required to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said trustees; and all persons having any claim or demand upon his estate or effects are requested forthwith to send an account thereof to the said trustees, or one of them, and to execute the said deed of assignment, in order that they may not be excluded from the benefit thereof.

THIS is to give notice, that by an indenture, bearing date the 3d day of December 1846, William Glyde the elder and William Glyde the younger, both of Lyme Regis, in the county of Dorset, Clothiers, have conveyed and assigned all their estate and effects whatsoever, both joint and separate, to John Noake Highmore, of Preston Plucknett, in the county of Somerset, Woolstapler, and John Swaine Hooke, of Lyme Regis aforesaid, Woolstapler, as trustees, upon trust, for the benefit of all the creditors of them the said William Glyde the elder and William Glyde the younger; and that the said indenture was duly executed by the said William Glyde the elder, William Glyde the younger, and John Swaine Hooke, on the said 3d day of December, and by the said John Noake Highmore on the 16th day of December 1846; and which indenture was witnessed by Robert Hillman, of Lyme Regis aforesaid, Solicitor.
