

said Commissioners, affords accommodation for six hundred persons in pews, and one thousand two hundred persons on free seats; and the other, called Saint Mary's Church, situate at Summer's-town, in the said parish, affords accommodation for about two hundred and six persons; to which last-mentioned church a district, consisting of a small portion of that part of the said parish of All Saints, Wandsworth, which is proposed to be formed into a separate and distinct parish for the said church called Saint Anne's Church, has been assigned under the provisions contained in the tenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and the incumbent or minister of which district has by law exclusive cure of souls therein:

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the said parish of Wandsworth, it appears to them to be expedient, that such parish should, under and by virtue of the powers contained in the sixteenth section of the Act herein firstly recited, be divided into two distinct and separate parishes, and that such parishes should be named, 'The Parish of All Saints, Wandsworth,' and 'The Parish of Saint Anne, Wandsworth;' that the said church called All Saints Church should remain and be the parish church of the said parish of All Saints, Wandsworth, and that the said church called Saint Anne's Church should become and be the parish church of the said parish of Saint Anne, Wandsworth; and further, that the boundaries of such last-mentioned parish should be as follows, on the west by the river Wandle and the parish of Wimbledon, on the south by the parish of Streatham, on the east by the parish of Battersea, and on the north by the river Thames, as the same are more particularly delineated on the map or plan thereof hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink; and that the said district which has been assigned to Saint Mary's Church, at Summer's-town aforesaid, and which is surrounded by a red line on the said map, should be considered as included within the said proposed new parish of Saint Anne, for vicarial rights and purposes, but so as not to interfere with the pastoral duties of the incumbent of Saint Mary's Church, at Summer's-town, as by law established, but that the present consecrated burial ground, at or near to Garrett-lane, which is situate within the aforesaid boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Anne, should be excluded from such new parish, and belong to the said parish of All Saints, Wandsworth, and which burial ground is marked on the map hereto annexed, but left uncoloured:

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the part of the original parish of All Saints, Wandsworth, remaining after such division, should form the parish of All Saints, Wandsworth, as aforesaid:

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that the population of such divided parishes would be as follows, that is to say, the east division of the said parish, which is proposed to form the new parish of Saint Anne (including the district already attached to Saint Mary's Church, at Summer's-town), will contain a population of about five thousand two hundred and seventy persons; and the west division of the said parish, which is proposed to remain attached to the old parish church of All Saints, will contain a population of about two thousand three hundred and forty-three persons:

"And your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that the only glebe land or property in the nature of and considered as glebe land, which now belongs to and forms part of the revenues or endowments of the Vicar of the original parish of All Saints, Wandsworth, consists of a vicarage house and garden, which is situate close to the said church called Saint Anne's Church, and which will be within the proposed limits of the boundaries hereinbefore mentioned as the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Anne, Wandsworth, and which vicarage house and garden your Majesty's Commissioners propose should cease to belong to the Vicar of the said parish of All Saints, Wandsworth, and should
