PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for confirming and authorizing the enfranchisement of certain property, lately belonging to the prebend of Islington, otherwise Isleden, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act (amongst other things) enacted, that, notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements and other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is so vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer and conveyance by us of any such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein; and with a further proviso, that none of such lands, tithes, tenements or other hereditaments be sold, transferred or conveyed except by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas part of the property and endowment of the said prebend of Islington, otherwise Isleden, consisted of the manor of the prebend of Islington, otherwise Isleden:

"And whereas the said prebend has become absolutely vested in us (subject to certain existing leases or grants of parts of the land belonging thereto), in consequence of the vacancy thereof, created by the collation of the Reverend William Hale Hale, Clerk, the late Prebendary thereof, to a residentiary canonry in the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, in the month of October one thousand eight hundred and forty:

"And whereas we are, in right of such prebend, lords of the said manor, and have as such lords enfranchised to (or concurred in the enfranchisement to) the several parties named in the schedule hereunder respectively written, being tenants of the said manor, the several pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments in the said schedule respectively described:

"And whereas applications have been and are likely to be made to us by other tenants of the said manor, for the enfranchisement to them of other lands, tenements and hereditaments, copyhold, of the said manor:

"And whereas we have, upon due inquiry, satisfied ourselves that it is expedient that the several enfranchisements so made by us as aforesaid should be confirmed and made valid, and that we should be authorized to make such further enfranchisements as shall appear to us to be expedient:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the several enfranchisements already made by us of the lands, tenements and hereditaments mentioned in the said schedule, to the several persons therein named, shall be valid and effectual in the law to all intents and purposes, as from the respective times of the making thereof; and that we may be authorized and empowered to do such acts and execute such deeds under our common seal (if any) as may be required or deemed advisable for confirming the same accordingly; and also that we may be authorized and empowered by any deed or deeds under our common seal, from time to time hereafter, to enfranchise, release and confirm all or any of the other lands, tenements and hereditaments, copyhold, of the said manor of the prebend of Islington, in the county of Middlesex, with their appurtenances, and all the seignior, estate, right, title, interest, property, claim and demand whatsoever, both at law and in equity, of or belonging or due by custom or otherwise to the lord or lords of the said manor, or which we may be capable of conveying or releasing in, to, out of, upon or in respect of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, or any of them or any part thereof, unto and to the use of the copyhold tenants thereof, respectively, and their respective heirs and assigns or otherwise as they shall respectively appoint, in such manner and for such price or such prices or sums of money to be paid to us, or for such equivalent part or parts of the lands holden by them, respectively, of the said manor to be surrendered up to us and our successors, as shall upon due inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable; and that the person or persons who hath or have already taken or shall hereafter take any such conveyance or enfranchisement shall not, after payment to us or to our treasurer for the time being, of such price or such prices or sums be responsible for or bound to look to the due application of the same.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

LAWFORDS, Drapers'-hall, 27, Throgmorton-street, London, Plaintiffs' Solicitors.

Vice Chancellor Knight Bruce.—Monday the 8th day of February, in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1847, between Bonaventura Sperati, plaintiff, Christopher John Pike and Alexander Brymer Belcher, defendants, by original bill; and between John Markham Browne, plaintiff, the said Christopher John Pike and Alexander Brymer Belcher, defendants, by bill of revivor.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Forbes, of Counsel for the plaintiff in the second-mentioned suit, that the plaintiff filed his bill in this Court against the defendants, and took out process of subpoena against the defendant, Christopher John Pike, on the 28th day of July 1846, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiff's bill; that it appears, by the affidavits of Jonathan Weymouth and Charles Thorp, that the defendant, Christopher John Pike, has been within the jurisdiction of the Court at some time not more than two years before the subpoena issued; and that, upon enquiry at his usual place of abode, where, at the time when the subpoena was issued, he might probably have been met with, he could not be found so as to be served with process, and that there is just ground to believe, that the defendant is concealing himself to avoid his creditors and being served with the said subpoena; whereupon, and upon hearing the said affidavits, and an affidavit of Henry Francis Whitefield read, it is ordered, that the defendant, Christopher John Pike, do appear to the plaintiff's bill in the secondly above-mentioned suit, on or before the 15th day of March next; and it is ordered, that the plaintiff, in the secondly above-mentioned suit, do cause a copy of this Order, together with the notice pursuant to the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette on or before the 19th day of February instant.
