AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of February 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Cheadle, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to Saint Chad's Church, at Freehay, in the said parish of Cheadle, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,' and that such district should be named, 'The Chapelry District of Freehay,' and that such district should consist of the south and south eastern portion of the said parish of Cheadle, from the remainder of which parish the district is divided by a line commencing from the boundary between the parishes of Alton and Cheadle, near the Old Furnace, where that boundary meets the brook; and from thence proceeding in a westerly direction along a fence, which divides the two properties called High Shut Farm and Counslow Farm, to the road leading from Counslow to Kingsley; and thence in a southerly direction, along the middle of the said road, until it reaches the Old Toll-gate-house, and then, taking the middle of the old turnpike road, to the Cheadle and Ashbourn
