

turnpike road; thence, taking the middle of the said turnpike road, for about fifty yards, as far as Moss-lane; and thence, taking the middle of such lane, as far as the point where a brook crosses the said lane; and thence, taking the middle of the brook, as far as a small pool adjoining the Mill House Farm, and from the said pool, taking the line of a meadow fence belonging to the Mill House Farm, to the brook at Cheadle Mill, and then, taking the said brook, to the point near Huntley Hall, at which point another brook, flowing from the Brass Works through Littley Farm, falls into it; thence, taking Littley Brook about two hundred and ten yards, to a fence running westward from the brook, near a Colliery, following the said fence to the road leading from Littley to Huntley; and then, taking a northerly direction for about seventy-six yards, along the middle of the said road, to a fence at the bottom of a small hollow; and then, taking a westerly direction along such fence, to the plantation; and thence, following the fence of the plantation southwards about eighty-four yards, to a meadow; and thence, taking a westerly direction along the said fence for about sixty-five yards, to the northern corner of the said meadow; and thence in a straight line across the plantation to the corner of a croft (No. 1725 in the parish map) near Gun End, and then, taking the northern boundary of the said croft, till it meets the line of division between the parish of Draycott and Cheadle; the district is then bounded on the west and partly on the south by the said parish of Draycott; on the remaining part of the south by the parish of Checkley; and on the east by the parishes of Croxden and Alton, as such district is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

“ That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said church of Saint Chad; and that all the fees arising therefrom should be paid and belong to the Minister thereof for the time being :

“ That the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, as Bishop of the diocese, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield has signed and sealed this representation :

“ Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

C. C. Greville.
