"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the patrons of the parish churches of the said three parishes of Saint Werburgh, All Saints, and Saint Alkmund, with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, and also with the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lichfield, within whose diocese the said three parishes are situate, that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church and consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Derby, should belong to, and, when occasion may require, be exercised by the Vicar for the time

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Sandbach and Warmingham, in the county and diocese of Chester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite certain contiguous parts of the said parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Elworth, otherwise Eitley-heath, in the said parish of Sandbach, under the provisions of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the church building Acts;" and that such consolidated chapelry should be named, "The Consolidated Chapelry of Elworth," and be bounded as follows, that is to say, the boundary of the said consolidated chapelry of Elworth commences at the Grand Trunk Canal, opposite to the road leading from Taylor's cottage, on the road leading from Sandbach to Middlewich, called Booth-lane, and following the eastern bank of the said canal till it reaches Stud-green-bridge; it then crosses the canal, and proceeds along the boundary of the townships of Tetton and Moston, till it meets a lane leading to the Crow Nest-bridge; it then proceeds along the middle of the said lane till it reaches the canal; it then continues along the western side of the said canal till it reaches the boundary of Moston and Elton townships, which it follows in a south westerly direction till it reaches the road leading from Moston to the Moss-bridge, up the middle of which road it proceeds two hundred and thirty-four yards, and crossing by the garden fence to the south of Barlow's cottage, it reaches a lane, up the middle of which it proceeds easterly, till it reaches a fence leading southerly along the back of Turner's premises; it then again turns easterly till it reaches the canal, which it follows on its western or towing path side till it reaches a footpath leading to Red-lane, which it follows, and proceeds along the middle of the said lane, till it reaches the garden fence of Thompson's cottage; proceeds then along the western side of Red-lane, so as to include all houses abutting thereon till it reaches the garden fences at the back of Wilson's cottage, which it follows till it again meets the Red-lane, down to the middle of which it proceeds, till it reaches the road leading to the Rookery-bridge from Elton; it then follows the south side of the said road towards Elton, till it meets a watercourse, and then turning in a south easterly direction, it follows a fence, over which the Manchester and Birmingham Railway passes, till it meets the boundary of the townships of Sandbach and Elton; along which it then proceeds crossing the canal till it reaches the Sandey-road; up the middle of which it proceeds as far as the turnpike gate in the Sandbach and Middlewich-road; and from thence easterly along the middle of that road, as far as Rithin-lane footpath, which it follows till it reaches Cooksenor-lane; along the middle of which lane it proceeds south easterly till it enters the road leading to Bradwall; it then proceeds northerly up the middle of the said road until it reaches the boundary line which separates the township of Sandbach from the township of Bradwall; along which boundary it then proceeds easterly and south easterly until it reaches the boundary line which separates the said township from the parish of Brereton; it then proceeds along that boundary line, in a northerly and north westerly direction till it meets the parish of Middlewich; and then continues westerly and south westerly along the boundary line, separating the township of Bradwall from the parish of Middlewich until it meets the boundary line separating the said township from the parish of Warmingham; along which boundary it then proceeds southerly until it comes to a point near a road leading from Dale Acre to Taylor's cottage; along the middle of which road

it proceeds south westerly passing Taylor's cottage, to the point where the boundary of the said consolidated chapelry of Elworth commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan thereof hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow and green :

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it has been mutually agreed between the Reverend John Armitstead, of Sandbach aforesaid, Clerk, the patron of the parish church of the said parish of Sandbach, and Brook Greville, late of Holles-treet, Cavendish-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, but now residing at Paris, the patron of the parish church of the said parish of Warmingham, with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, and also of the Right Reverend John Bird Lord Bishop of Chester, in whose diocese the said two last-mentioned parishes are situate, that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Peter and consolidated chapelry of Elworth should belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the Vicar for the time being of the said parish of Sandbach :

" That the consents of the said John Bird Lord Bishop of Chester, as bishop of the diocese, and of the said John Armitstead and Brook Greville, as such patrons as aforesaid, have been severally obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore referred to; and in testimony whereof, the said John Bird Lord Bishop of Chester, John Armitstead, and Brook Greville have severally signed and sealed this representation :
