

And it is hereby further declared, ordered, directed, and determined, that the courts to be holden for the purposes of the election of any coroner of any one or more of the said districts, when and as often as the same shall become necessary, under the provisions of the said recited Act, shall be as follows, that is to say; for No. 1, the Northern District, to be at Coventry, and the poll to be taken there; for No. 2, the Central District, to be at Warwick, and the poll to be taken there; and for No. 3, the Southern District, to be at Stratford-upon-Avon, and the poll to be taken there:

And it is hereby further declared, ordered, and directed, that this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 24th day of April 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS a Treaty has been concluded between Her Majesty and His Highness the Duke of Brunswick, whereby due protection has been secured within the dominions of the said duchy for the authors of books, dramatic works, or musical compositions, and the inventors, designers, or engravers of prints and articles of sculpture, and the authors, inventors, designers, or engravers of any other works whatsoever of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain and of the said duchy do now or may hereafter give their respective subjects the privilege of copyright, and for the lawful representatives or assigns of any such authors, inventors, designers, or engravers, with regard to any such works first published within the dominions of Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to international

"copyright," doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the day of the date of this Order, the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of any of the following works (that is to say), books, prints, articles of sculpture, dramatic works, musical compositions, and any other works of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain give to British subjects the privilege of copyright, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers, respectively, shall, as respects works first published within the said duchy after the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, have the privilege of copyright therein for a period equal to the term of copyright which authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of the like works, respectively, first published in the United Kingdom, are by law entitled to, provided such books, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, prints, articles of sculpture, or other works of art have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve months after the first publication thereof, in any part of the said duchy:

And it is hereby further ordered, that the authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions which shall, after the said first day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, be first publicly represented or performed within the said duchy, shall have the sole liberty of representing or performing in any part of the British dominions such dramatic pieces or musical compositions, during a period equal to the period during which authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions first publicly represented or performed in the United Kingdom are entitled by law to the sole liberty of representing or performing the same; provided such dramatic pieces or musical compositions have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within twelve calendar months after the time of their being first represented or performed in any part of the said duchy:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders herein accordingly.
