Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 5, 1847.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 27th May next, at two o'clock, to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 24th day of April 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for consolidating the two medieties of the vicarage of Bubwith, in the county and diocese of York.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that with respect to any parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two or more incumbents, each having a mediety or portion of the benefice, a plan or plans may be framed by the bishop of the diocese, with the consent of the patron or patrons, and so as not to prejudice the interest of any existing incumbent, for constituting any of such portions separate benefices, or for consolidating two or more of such portions into one benefice to be held by one incumbent, or for making such other arrangements as he may judge likely to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in such parish, and any such plan may be carried into effect by the authority therein provided :

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York, has, by virtue of the said recited provision, duly framed and submitted to us a plan for consolidating the two medieties of the said vicarage of Bubwith, which said plan bears date the fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and is in the words and figures following, that is to say :

"Whereas the profits and spiritual charge of the vicarage of Bubwith, in the county and diocese of York, have been heretofore divided between two incumbents, each having a mediety or portion of the benefice, and one of such medieties is in the patronage of Her Majesty, and the other is in the patronage of the Dean and Chapter of York, and is now vacant; and it appears to be expedient, that the same medieties or portions should be consolidated into one benefice, and held by one incumbent:

"And whereas the said patrons have consented and agreed to such consolidation upon the terms and conditions following, that is to say:

"That the patronage of the said consolidated benefice should hereafter be exercised alternately by Her Majesty and by the said Dean and Chapter of York, and that the first turn should forthwith be exercised by Her Majesty, by presenting to the now vacant mediety or portion the Reverend William George Wilkinson, Clerk, the present holder of the said other mediety or portion, and that upon his vacation of the consolidated benefice, the said Dean and Chapter shall present a Clerk thereto:

"Now, therefore, I, Edward Archbishop of York, with the consent of Her Majesty, testified by this plan having been signed and sealed by the Right Honourable Charles Christopher Baron Cottenham, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of York, signified under their common seal, do hereby recommend and propose, that the said two medieties or portions of the vicarage of Bubwith shall be consolidated into one benefice, upon the terms and conditions hereinbefore mentioned, and shall for ever be called and known by the name of the vicarage of Bubwith, in the county of York, and shall be held by one incumbent as vicar thereof.

"And whereas the arrangement proposed in the said plan appears to us likely to promote the efficient discharge of the pastoral duties of the said parish of Bubwith:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the said plan be carried into effect accordingly.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Sir Culling Eardley Smith, of Bedwell-park, in the county of Hertford, Bart. Her royal licence and authority, that, in compliance with a proviso contained in a certain indenture of settlement, bearing date the 15th day of June 1824, he may take upon himself and use the surname of Eardley only, and quarter the arms of Eardley with his own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Exchequer Bill-Office, No. 2, Whitehall-Yard, May 18, 1847.

THE Exchequer Bills, dated in the month of June 1846, viz.

Per 9 Victoria, cap. 15, £18,380,200, anno 1846, with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 15th day of June 1847, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily, from half past ten o'clock till two, until and including the 4th day of June, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 15th day of June, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of three pence by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 15th day of June, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal of the Exchequer Bills issued under the above-mentioned Act, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 4th day of June, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 16th day of June.

The bills to be classed in separate lists, according to the Acts under which they have been issued.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills charged on Supplies, dated prior to June 1846, have been advertised to be paid off.

Notice.—The Exchequer Bills issued p. 9 Vict. cap. 15, and dated 16th March 1847, will bear interest at the rate of three pence per centum per diem, on and after 15th June 1847.

IN conformity with an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, and in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act for better enabling Her Majesty to confer certain powers and immunities on trading and other companies," notice is hereby given, that an application has been made to Her Majesty to grant letters patent, or a charter of incorporation, to a company, to be called "The Valentia Slate Company," for the working of certain quarries in the island of Valentia, in the county of Kerry, in Ireland.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the 42nd year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for consolidating the provisions of the several Acts passed for the redemption and sale of the land tax into one Act, and for making further provision for the redemption and sale thereof, and for removing doubts respecting the right of persons claiming to vote at elections for Knights of the Shire and other Members to serve in Parliament, in respect of messuages, lands, or tenements, the land tax upon which shall have been redeemed or purchased;" notice is hereby given, that the Committee of Catherine Wade, of the Manor-house, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, spinster, a lunatic, intend to sell in several lots, by public auction, on the 1st day of June next, at the Britannia Tavern, Limehouse, in the county of Middlesex, at one o'clock in the afternoon, the following piece or parcel of ground, of which the said Catherine Wade is seized in her demesne, as of fee, that is to say, all that piece or parcel of ground situate, lying, and being at the rear of four messuages or tenements on the north side of the High-street, in the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the county aforesaid, and extending from thence northward along a street called Wade's-place, unto and as far as Shirbutt-street, bounded on the north by Shirbutt-street, on the south by a passage at the rear of the said four messuages or tenements in High-street aforesaid, on the east by the backs of houses in Sophia-street, and on the west by Wade's-place; containing on the south, next the said passage, fifty-seven feet; on the north, next Shirbutt-street, forty-five feet six inches; on the west side, next Wade's-place, two hundred and sixty-four feet; and the east side, two hundred and seventy-four feet six inches, be the said several dimensions little more or less; a part of which said piece or parcel of ground is now in the occupation of John Collins, a further part thereof is in the occupation of Elizabeth Strong, and the remainder thereof is unoccupied; and that the said piece or parcel of ground is intended to be sold for the purpose of redeeming the land tax charged thereon, and upon other messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to the said Catherine Wade.—Dated this 14th day of May 1847.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes,

Chas. Prssly, Secretary.

Great Western Railway (Amendment and Extension) Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is being made to Parliament in the present session, for leave to make provision in the Bill now pending in the Honourable the House of Commons, called "The Great Western Railway (Amendment and Extension) Bill," for enabling the Great Western Railway Company to alter the line and levels of certain portions of the Branch Railway to Clutton, such alteration commencing in the parish of Timsbury, in the county of Somerset, passing thence through the parishes of High Littleton, Farmborough, and Clutton, in the said county, and terminating at or near to the termination of such Branch Railway as originally intended, according to the deposited plans referred to in such Bill, at a certain colliery, in the said parish of Clutton, called "The Grayfield Colliery," belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Warwick.

And it is further intended to make provision in the said Bill for enabling the said Great Western Railway Company to extend such Branch Railway, so that the same may unite with and terminate at certain other collieries belonging to the said Earl, called, respectively, "The Clutton New Colliery," or "The Ham Colliery," and "The Fry's Bottom Colliery," and which said extensions will be situate wholly in the said parish of Clutton.

And notice is hereby also given, that a plan and section of such alterations and extensions, and also a book of reference thereto, have been deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Somerset, at Wells, and with the respective parish clerks of the before-mentioned parishes.—Dated this 3d day of May 1847.

Surrey and Kent Commission of Sewers' Acts Amendment.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the now present session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, explain, enlarge, and extend the powers and provisions contained in the several under-mentioned Acts of Parliament, namely, an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making new sewers and drains, and amending the present sewers and drains within certain districts, under the jurisdiction of the Commissioners of Sewers, for the limits extending from East Moulsey, in Surrey, to Ravensborne, in Kent, and for other purposes relating to the execution of the Commission of Sewers for the said limits;" and an Act, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, enlarging, and extending, the powers of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, relating to the execution of the Commission of Sewers, for the limits from East Moulsey, in Surrey, to Ravensborne, in Kent;" and an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, enlarging, and extending the powers of two several Acts, passed in the forty-ninth and fiftieth years of His present Majesty, relating to the execution of the Commission of Sewers, for the limits extending from East Moulsey, in Surrey, to Ravensborne, in Kent;" or to repeal the said Acts, and to substitute better and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof, and to extend the powers and provisions of the said three several Acts, or the powers and provisions to be by such intended Bill substituted in lieu of such Acts, or some of such powers and provisions respectively, to the district comprised in the said three several Acts, and to certain other districts under the jurisdiction of the Commissioners of Sewers, for the limits extending from East Moulsey, in the county of Surrey, to Ravensborne, in the county of Kent, such last-mentioned districts being situate within the parishes of Saint Mary Lambeth, Saint Giles Camberwell, Battersea, Clapham, Streatham, and Tooting, all in the county of Surrey; the parish of Saint Paul Deptford, in the counties of Surrey and Kent; and the parish of Saint Nicholas Deptford, in the county of Kent.

And in such Bill are intended to be contained new and additional powers and provisions for enabling the Commissioners of Sewers, for the limits aforesaid, to alter and improve the existing sewers, drains, watercourses, and other works in the said districts, and for making and maintaining new sewers, drains, watercourses, and other works in the said districts, as well for the health and comfort of the inhabitants thereof, as for the defending, draining, sewing, and securing the lands and property therein; and in the said Bill are also intended to be contained powers and provisions for enabling the said Commissioners of Sewers, for the limits aforesaid, to alter and vary the rates, charges, and assessments by the said Acts, or some of them authorized to be made and collected, and to make, levy, and collect new and other rates and assessments, on and from the inhabitants, owners, or occupiers of the lands and hereditaments within the said districts, and to borrow money at interest on the credit of such rates; and also powers and provisions for enabling the said Commissioners of Sewers to purchase by agreement and hold lands and hereditaments for the purposes of the said Commission; and also other powers and provisions for the more effectual execution of the Commission of Sewers for the limits aforesaid.—Dated this 8th day of May 1847.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, two clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination until the last day for entering deposition, inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

In the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.
