

IN conformity with an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, and in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act for better enabling Her Majesty to confer certain powers and immunities on trading and other companies," notice is hereby given, that an application has been made to Her Majesty to grant letters patent, or a charter of incorporation, to a company, to be called "The Valentia Slate Company," for the working of certain quarries in the island of Valentia, in the county of Kerry, in Ireland.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the 42nd year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for consolidating the provisions of the several Acts passed for the redemption and sale of the land tax into one Act, and for making further provision for the redemption and sale thereof, and for removing doubts respecting the right of persons claiming to vote at elections for Knights of the Shire and other Members to serve in Parliament, in respect of messuages, lands, or tenements, the land tax upon which shall have been redeemed or purchased;" notice is hereby given, that the Committee of Catherine Wade, of the Manor-house, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, spinster, a lunatic, intend to sell in several lots, by public auction, on the 1st day of June next, at the Britannia Tavern, Limehouse, in the county of Middlesex, at one o'clock in the afternoon, the following piece or parcel of ground, of which the said Catherine Wade is seized in her demesne, as of fee, that is to say, all that piece or parcel of ground situate, lying, and being at the rear of four messuages or tenements on the north side of the High-street, in the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the county aforesaid, and extending from thence northward along a street called Wade's-place, unto and as far as Shirbutt-street, bounded on the north by Shirbutt-street, on the south by a passage at the rear of the said four messuages or tenements in High-street aforesaid, on the east by the backs of houses in Sophia-street, and on the west by Wade's-place; containing on the south, next the said passage, fifty-seven feet; on the north, next Shirbutt-street, forty-five feet six inches; on the west side, next Wade's-place, two hundred and sixty-four feet; and the east side, two hundred and seventy-four feet six inches, be the said several dimensions little more or less; a part of which said piece or parcel of ground is now in the occupation of John Collins, a further part thereof is in the occupation of Elizabeth Strong, and the remainder thereof is unoccupied; and that the said piece or parcel of ground is intended to be sold for the purpose of redeeming the land tax charged thereon, and upon other messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to the said Catherine Wade.—Dated this 14th day of May 1847.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes,

Chas. Prssly, Secretary.

Great Western Railway (Amendment and Extension) Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is being made to Parliament in the present session, for leave to make provision in the Bill now pending in the Honourable the House of Commons, called "The Great Western Railway (Amendment and Extension) Bill," for enabling the Great Western Railway Company to alter the line and levels of certain portions of the Branch Railway to Clutton, such alteration commencing in the parish of Timsbury, in the county of Somerset, passing thence through the parishes of High Littleton, Farmborough, and Clutton, in the said county, and terminating at or near to the termination of such Branch Railway as originally intended, according to the deposited plans referred to in such Bill, at a certain colliery, in the said parish of Clutton, called "The Grayfield Colliery," belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Warwick.

And it is further intended to make provision in the said Bill for enabling the said Great Western Railway Company to extend such Branch Railway, so that the same may unite with and terminate at certain other collieries belonging to the said Earl, called, respectively, "The Clutton New Colliery," or "The Ham Colliery," and "The Fry's Bottom Colliery," and which said extensions will be situate wholly in the said parish of Clutton.

And notice is hereby also given, that a plan and section of such alterations and extensions, and also a book of reference thereto, have been deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Somerset, at Wells, and with the respective parish clerks of the before-mentioned parishes.—Dated this 3d day of May 1847.

Surrey and Kent Commission of Sewers' Acts Amendment.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the now present session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, explain, enlarge, and extend the powers and provisions contained in the several under-mentioned Acts of Parliament, namely, an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making new sewers and drains, and amending the present sewers and drains within certain districts, under the jurisdiction of the Commissioners of Sewers, for the limits extending from East Moulsey, in Surrey, to Ravensborne, in Kent, and for other purposes relating to the execution of the Commission of Sewers for the said limits;" and an Act, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, enlarging, and extending, the powers of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, relating to the execution of the Commission of Sewers, for the limits from East Moulsey, in Surrey, to Ravensborne, in Kent;" and an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Ma-
