FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1847.

A DDRESS, from the University of Cambridge, presented to the Queen during Her Majesty's visit, on the occasion of the Installation of His Royal Highness Prince Albert, as Chancellor of that University, July 5, 1847:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, avail ourselves of your Majesty's gracious permission at this time to renew our assurance of our firm attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The recollection of your Majesty's former visit is preserved by us with feelings of pride and satisfaction; and we now hail, with fervent joy, your Majesty's presence amongst us for the second time, and desire to express, in the fullest manner in which words can convey it, our heartfelt gratitude for this gracious mark of royal favour.

We trust that we may be allowed to consider the honour which we enjoy as a proof of your Majesty's undiminished favour, which will be cherished as an incentive to renewed exertion, and will encourage the members of our body in their several stations to deserve your Majesty's approbation by a zealous and diligent discharge of their important duties.

The time which has elapsed since the period of your Majesty's former visit has been marked by an important change in the highest office of our body; we have had to deplore the loss of our late excellent Chancellor, who, to his great regret, was on that occasion prevented by the infirm state of his health from assuming his place amongst us, and expressing in person his acknowledgment of your Majesty's gracious favour.

We are encouraged by your Majesty's presence in the University at this time to entertain a confident hope that the act of the University, in filling the vacant office, has been regarded by your Majesty with approbation; and we trust that the same royal protection and favour will be continued to us which we have been wont to enjoy from the Sovereigns of this kingdom.

The occasion seems to require that we should take this opportunity of assuring your Majesty that we are not unmindful of the high purposes which the institutions of the University were intended to accomplish.

We trust that there have not been wanting hitherto a zeal for the studies of literature and science, and efforts to promote the still more elevated and holy cause which our founders had in view—the establishment of religion and virtue upon a good and sure foundation.

We would venture to appeal to recent discoveries in astronomical and other kindred sciences; to the many persons eminent in literature and science; and, in the public offices of life, to the statesmen, the judges, the philosophers of our country, who have received their early education and been taught to discipline their minds in this seat of learning.

We trust that we may call attention also to the clergy in general who have gone forth from us, and contribute so much to the elevation of character of our countrymen, who, labouring in piety and patience, with truth of doctrine and with innocency of life, have made our Church to be the blessing and glory of our land.

While we thus reflect with satisfaction upon the good fruit which has resulted from the past labours of the University, our attention is awakened to the task which lies before ourselves. We see how important is the place which the University occupies in respect to social happiness and order, how dignified the duties, how great the responsibility of those who have to direct its studies and administer its affairs.

We desire to assure your Majesty, that these topics of reflection are ever before our minds, and that it is our care to address ourselves to our duty in a firm and earnest spirit, not daunted by difficulty, but nerved by the consideration of it to that patience of temper which, by God's blessing, we hope will bring success.

It is our earnest prayer, that your Majesty may live long to see the fruit of your efforts for our country's welfare. May Almighty God protect and strengthen you, and, prospering you with all happiness, pour down upon you the continual dew of His blessing.

To which Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious answer :

" I have received, with the highest satisfaction, your loyal and affectionate Address.

" It affords me great pleasure to visit you on this occasion; and to assure you of my entire approbation of the act of the University in the selection of a Chancellor.

" I have always felt it to be one of the first duties of a British Sovereign to extend favour and protection to institutions intended for the advancement of religion and learning.

" I feel peculiarly impressed with a sense of that duty, in a place which has produced so many persons eminently distinguished in science, literature, and religion, and in which I am surrounded by noble monuments of the munificence of Princes who have preceded me on the Throne of this kingdom.

" None of those Princes can have more earnestly desired to promote the welfare of your University than myself, and I shall ever feel the warmest interest in its continued and increasing prosperity."

Buckingham-Palace, July 8, 1847.

His Royal Highness Prince Albert has been pleased to appoint Professor Miller to be Surgeon in Ordinary to His Royal Highness in Scotland.

Downing-Street, July 8, 1847.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of Rear Admiral Sir Hugh Pigot, Knt., Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, to be a Knight Commander of the said Order.

The following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders conferred upon British Subjects, which have been established by the Queen and by Her Royal Predecessors, are published for general information.

1st. That no British Subjects shall accept a Foreign Order, or wear its Insignia, without having previously obtained a Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, (directed to the Earl Marshal of England,) granting them His Majesty's permission to accept and wear the same.

2nd. That the intention of a Foreign Sovereign to decorate a British Subject with the Insignia of such Order, shall be notified to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the King's Minister abroad, or through the accredited Minister of the Foreign Sovereign resident at this Court.

3rd. That when His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken His Majesty's pleasure, and obtained his consent upon the occasion, he shall then signify to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the usual Warrant to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual, and take such other steps as may be necessary for carrying His Majesty's pleasure into effect accordingly.

4th. That when the Warrant is signed by the King, it shall be announced in the Gazette in the usual manner, and registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

In addition to the above Regulations of the King, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent deemed it expedient to announce, in the year 1812,—

5th. " That no Subject of His Majesty could be allowed to accept the Insignia of a Foreign Order from any Sovereign of a Foreign State, except they shall be so conferred in consequence of active and distinguished services before the enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually employed in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign."

And in March, 1813, His Royal Highness was pleased to command that the following proviso should be thereafter inserted in all Royal Warrants for the acceptance of Foreign Orders :

6th. " That His Majesty's license and permission doth not authorize, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorize, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these Realms."

N. B. - Before the Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs takes the Prince Regent's pleasure on any application for an Officer in the Army to be permitted to accept a Foreign Order, he causes the same to be referred to the Commander in Chief, through His Royal Highness's Secretary, to know whether or not His Royal Highness sees any objection to the Prince Regent's pleasure being taken thereupon.

And if the application be in favour of a Naval Officer, the Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs communicates with the First Lord of the Admiralty, to the same effect, previous to the Prince Regent's pleasure being taken thereon.

(Signed) CASTLEREAGH.

Her Majesty has been pleased to direct,—

7th. "That if the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the 2nd Regulation must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

"If the Service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years of the date of such service."

8th. "When a British Subject has received the Royal Permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred."

(Signed) ABERDEEN.
Foreign-Office, August 22, 1843.

The Queen has made known Her pleasure,—

9th. "That the 8th Clause of the Regulations respecting Foreign Orders shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her predecessors, Their Majesties King George IV and King William IV, on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

"Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of the 5th Clause of the Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover."
